Douth Revealed Their Sin. Cincinnati, Nov. 1.—Yesterday morning Frank H. Woodrow, a prominent stationer, hurriedly automored Dr. F. Brunning to flat No. 7 in the Alta building, at Fourth and Sycamore streets. The doctor was shown the dead body of a young woman in a bathtub full of water. Dr. Brunning said it was a case of death from drowning. The body was that of Miss Nannie Eversleigh. She and Mrs. Josie Gerold, a widow, had spent the night in Woodrow's flat with Woodrow and Hoyd Wessel. The police believe all were intoxicated, and that the girl either committed suicide or was acdentally drowned.
