Election Echoes. Agents of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals were sent to Pottsville yesterday, but this did not prevent Brumm's backing.

Stone was defeated in the Third ward, and Ryan went out of the town with a larger majority than Higgins, the home candidate, had.

Not before has there been such an election in Schuylkill county. The independent voter, as we predicted, was out in full force yesterday.

THE ELECTIONS ARE OVER. But That Wont Keep You Warm This Winter. Now is the time to clothe yourself for the winter and get protection from the cold blasts that will soon be sweeping.

AN IMPORTANT DIFFERENCE. To make it apparent to thousands, who think themselves ill, that they are not afflicted with any disease, but that the system simply needs cleansing, is to bring comfort home to their hearts, as a positive condition is easily cured by using Syrup of Figs.

RAILWAY WRECK.

A Head End Collision Between Two Engines on the Lehigh Valley.

Another wreck on the Lehigh Valley railroad was added to its steadily increasing list of disasters last evening. It occurred on the curve between Packer collieries Nos. 3 and 4, near Last Creek.

A single track is used, and a train of empty coal cars was lying at the switch at Pappanhook when a freight train to pass. After receiving orders to pull out they passed the Last Creek station with orders to go ahead. After reaching the deep curve between both collieries the collision occurred with terrific force.

Deaths and Funerals. Elizabeth, wife of P. W. Post, died at her home in Port Carbon, after a brief illness from pneumonia. Deceased was 42 years old, and leaves besides a husband six children.

PERSONAL MENTION. Leon Wasley returned to Philadelphia today. Mrs. Carrie Brice, of Nuremberg, is being entertained by Mrs. John Roberts.

THE BRIGHT SIDE. "While there is life there is hope." Never was a truer maxim written or spoken than this. But with the sick not only is there hope but there is the chance of restoration to health.

YOUR WEAK SPOT.

DO YOU KNOW JUST WHERE IT IS?

"A Fortress is no Stronger Than its Weak Spot." Neither is Any Man or Woman. "Hopelessly ruined through one weak spot!"

It was a great scientific expert who recently expressed this opinion in regard to a costly battleship lately completed for the U. S. Navy. When the huge vessel was launched and made ready to receive its gigantic cannon, it was found that it could not stand the strain of the added weight.
