Deaths Cannot be Cured
 by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a running ear, or it may become deaf, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; since cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

SALISBURY'S SPEECH

At the Annual Banquet of the Lord Mayor of London.

NO PROTECTORATE OVER EGYPT.

But the British Premier Emphasized the Necessity of Being Prepared for All Eventualities—Uncle Sam a Disturbing Factor in European Politics

London, Nov. 10.—The lord mayor's show was witnessed by the usual crowd. The enthusiasm was revived when the car representing the Sudan, with soldiers of the regiments which took part in the battle of Omdurman, and the car representing the English speaking races. The latter displayed among other things Britannia and Columbia seated beneath a canopy, while the American flag was borne by a British sailor and the British flag carried by an American sailor. There was also an illustration of Admiral Tattenhall's "Blood is thicker than water" and of Admiral Kimberley's repetition of the same expression to Captain Kitchener after the disaster at Adia, Samoa. The lord mayor, Sir John Voce Moore, was enthusiastically cheered.

The annual banquet of the lord mayor of London took place at the Guild Hall last evening. There were about 850 guests present, including members of the diplomatic corps, cabinet ministers and other distinguished people and their wives.

The Marquis of Salisbury, in responding to the toast, "Her Majesty's Ministers," spoke of the proposed conference of nations to take measures for the suppression of anarchists, declaring that he was bound to say he had no great hope that legislation would abate "this horrible, monstrous affliction of humanity."

After referring in a laudatory manner to the British campaigns in India and in the Sudan, the premier turned to the Cretan question and the concert of Europe. He said he was afraid that the proceedings of the concert were not at all well admitted. At the same time, he pointed out "patient application combined with the moral strength of Europe has at last succeeded in fulfilling the promise to the Cretans of giving them autonomy under the suzerainty of the sultan."

Turning to the crisis with France, the premier remarked: "We have had quite recently to consider whether the question of a European war was not very near. But the result has turned out happily through the great judgment and common sense displayed by France under circumstances of unusual difficulty. There has been some surprise on both sides of the channel at the fact that war preparations have not suddenly ceased. But it is impossible to stop them at a moment's notice."

The Marquis of Salisbury did not announce a British protectorate over Egypt, but he emphasized the necessity of being prepared for all eventualities. The premier also said the United States was a new and disturbing factor in European politics, but not to the detriment of Great Britain.
