HUNTERS IN TROUBLE

Serious Charges Made Against Six Girardville Young Men. WARRANTS ISSUED FOR THEM!

Charged With Causing a Collision in Which Several Girls Were Thrown From a Wagon. Injured and Their Clothes Ruined—One of the Offenders Shot. Complaint was lodged before Justice Shoemaker this afternoon for the arrest of six young men of Girardville, who are charged with riotous conduct and causing damage to a party of young folks of town who sought recreation in the Catawissa Valley on Wednesday last. A shooting occurred in the affair, but the result was not serious.

According to the story as stated by one of the complainants, Misses Ida, Carrie and Louise Williams, of West Lloyd street, and Agnes Tobin, accompanied by William Williams, a brother of the first three named girls, went to the valley for pleasure. They made the trip in a wagon. When driving homeward, and near Sitcher's hotel, they observed a crowd of young men in a wagon ahead. The latter were returning from a hunting trip and behaved in such a manner that the Williams party decided to stop at Sitcher's and give the other party a chance to get a good lead. The latter were displaying a demijohn, shouting, singing, and flourishing guns and revolvers.

The Williams party lauded until ten minutes after the Girardville party had turned and bent in the road, and then resumed their journey. To the surprise of the Williams, upon rounding the turn, they observed their tormentors but a short distance ahead. It was decided to try and pass them, and then drive rapidly ahead. When the Williams party got near Sitcher's hotel, they were again overtaken, and the latter were again charged with causing a collision in which several girls were thrown from a wagon and injured. The Williams party was again charged with causing a collision in which several girls were thrown from a wagon and injured.

The wagon damaged in the affair was owned by Thomas Williams, the huckster of West Lloyd street, and a brother of four of the hunting party. The Girardville young men wanted to settle last night by paying for repairs to the wagon, but the Williams want a hundred dollars damages for personal injuries, clothing ruined and the inconvenience caused by the enforced walk home.

SENATOR QUAY'S DEFIANCE.

He Declares That "the Gage of Battle is Accepted." Philadelphia, Nov. 11.—Senator M. S. Quay issued the following statement last night:

"Throughout the remarkable campaign just closed I declined to give expression to any opinion regarding the issues involved, or the methods resorted to by the enemies of Republicanism, though persistently urged to speak. It is now that the battle is over and the victory won. The sovereign people have, by their emphatic verdict, set the seal of condemnation upon the late contest by the enemies of the Republican party. The falsifier, the scandal monger, the blither, has been repudiated by the people, and never again will the present generation witness the performances of this breed of character assassins.

"Despite the extraordinary efforts to defeat Republican candidates for the legislature, which have been successful in a number of counties, the general assembly will be overwhelmingly Republican. The legislature will comprise 165 Republicans, 86 Democrats and 3 Independents, a Republican majority on joint ballot of 78.

"Regarding the United States senatorshipe, I can only say this: All of my friends have been aware of my personal antipathy to another term in the senate, but those prominent in the late crusade against the Republican state and legislative candidates chose to force the issue. They have made it imperative that I shall be a candidate for re-election. The gage of battle is accepted. The result is in the hands of the Republican members of the incoming legislature: a very large proportion of whom are my political and personal friends. Of the result there can be no possible doubt.

"The attempt to purchase the United States senatorshipe two years ago did not succeed then, nor will a similar attempt succeed now, because sounder methods having been repudiated by the people of this state. I hereby offer a reward of $10,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any one endeavoring to bribe any state senator or representative-elect. The money for payment of this reward is on deposit with George A. Huhn & Sons, bankers and brokers, Philadelphia."

KEYSTONE STATE VOTE

It Shows a Plurality For Stone, Republican, of 119,326.

SWALLOW CARRIED ONE COUNTY.

In Every County Excepting Lackawanna the Prohibition Candidate Was Third—The Legislature and the Contest For the Senatorship.

Philadelphia, Nov. 11.—Following is the vote by counties for governor. The figures given in many of the counties are official, and the remainder are unofficial footings of the complete returns. The vote for the three leading candidates totals up 958,816. This is the heaviest vote ever cast for governor, and has been exceeded only by the presidential election of 1888, 1892 and 1896.

Stone, Rep., received 473,968 votes; Jenks, Dem., 357,742; and Swallow, Pro., H. G., 132,098. Stone's apparent plurality is 119,326, and he polled only 12,890 short of a clear majority over the other two candidates.

The vote for state treasurer last year was: Beacom, Rep., 372,448; Brown, Dem., 247,731; Swallow, Pro., 118,989; Beacom's plurality, 129,717. The normal Prohibition vote in the state is about 29,000. Last year Swallow carried ten counties, while this year he has a plurality in only one—Lackawanna. Stone carries 35 counties and Jenks 21. Swallow was third in every county excepting Lackawanna.

In the vote for state senators to fill the vacancies caused by the expiration of the terms of 26 Republicans and 5 Democrats the Democrats have elected 11 of the 25 new senators. Of 25 hold-over senators 24 are Republicans and 1 Democrat. The political complexion of the new senate will be, therefore, 28 Republicans and 12 Democrats.

In the vote for the 204 members of the house of representatives 128 were chosen who were candidates under the Republican column and 78 under the Democratic heading. These 78 include some Republicans who were nominated through fusion with the Democrats, with the object of defeating the regular Republican candidates, and were elected on the basis of opposition to the re-election of United States Senator Quay. Those elected under the Republican heading also include some who have declared themselves opposed to Senator Quay's re-election.

It has not been clearly determined just how many of the 254 joint members will vote with the Democrats on party questions or how many will or will not join with the Quay forces in the election of a United States senator. Both the Republican factions claim to have sufficient strength to control the election of a senator.

Full Returns Elected Gaston. Philadelphia, Nov. 11.—Official footings last night of the vote of Crawford and Erie counties, comprising the Twenty-sixth congressional district, gave the Democrats another congressman from Pennsylvania, Gaston, Dem., having a plurality over Higginis, Rep., of 21 votes. This makes ten Democrats elected from the state, a gain of seven.

Present Delegation Stands 27 Republican and 2 Democrat. While the delegation to the new congress will be composed of 29 Republicans and 10 Democrats. The Twenty-sixth district is now represented by Sturtevan, Rep.

Fusion Governor In Nebraska. Omaha, Nov. 10.—Unofficial returns from Nebraska indicate the election of Poynter, the fusion candidate for governor, by 2,000 over Hayward, Republican.

The balance of the fusion state ticket will have about the same plurality. The state legislature will be Republican on joint ballot by from 6 to 8, insuring the election of a Republican to succeed Senator Allen in the senate. The congressional delegation stands: Republican, 2; fusion, 2; doubtful, 2.

Complete West Virginia Returns. Parkersburg, W. Va., Nov. 11.—Complete returns show that the Republicans elect Davener in the First, Dayton in the second and Freer in the Fourth congressional districts, and the Democrats Johnson in the Third district. Owing to the notices of contest served on members-elect of the legislature even the official count may not decide the political complexion of that body now.

Latest Congressional Claims. Washington, Nov. 11.—Chairman Babcock of the Republican congressional committee, claims that the Fifty-sixth congress will be composed as follows: Republicans, 185; Democrats, 153; Populists, 6; Silver Republican, 1; Secretary Kerr, of the Democratic committee, claims that the opposition will have 159 votes, and perhaps 161.

THE MAN WITH THE HAMMER!

The man who wields the hammer with the most flourish and makes the most noise isn't always the one who drives the most nails. His nails may be bent, his hammer poor, and when the day's work is done he'll be behind. We drive bargains, not nails, but our stock is up in quality. The blows of our hammer are accurate and regular. We are making a winning record every day in our GROCERY line.
