Perations of a Local Industry Suspended By Internal Troubles.

The plant of the Shenandoah Hat and Cap Company, on North Emerick street, will be shut down to night indefinitely. This is not unexpected, as it has been known for some time that the company contemplated steps

It is stated upon what appears to be excellent authority, that the suspension is not due to financial complications, or lack of orders, but has been precipitated by dissension among the stockholders, they being at variance as to the policy of management. It is rumored that the factory will be put in ops ration again after a readjustment of affairs, which will include a withdrawal of some of the people now interested in the in-dustry.

Stolen Coats Recovered.

While attending a ball at Mahanoy City recently Christ Foltz and James Hilbert, of town, had their overcoats stolen from them. The parties who stole the garments left them in an Italian saloon at Mahanoy City after failing to sell them, and the Italian subse-quently turned the coats over to a saloon keeper named Bretz, to have him give them to the owners, should the coats be claimed, Bretz read an account of the theft in the newspapers and sent word to Foltz and Hilbert, who went to Mahanoy City last night and recovered the coats from Bretz.

The legal gentleman referred to came here to investigate circumstances surrounding the failure of a business man of town who was recently sold out at Sheriff's sale. While he was not disposed to go into particulars or furnish names, he intimated that his trip had been quite successful, as he had secured affi-davits bearing upon the removal of goods a short time previous to the Sheriff's sale, and the affidavits would be placed on file with the commissioner in bankruptcy at Easton, before whom the lawyer instituted proceedngs before coming to this borough.

"Next Door" Has Troubles.

A clever little story was narrated here to-day by a member of the "Next Poor" company which placed at Lewistown on Wednesday. Several weeks ago the manage-ment secured a date at Hersker's theatre, Mahanoy City, but decided later on to cancel it in preference to Kaier's grand opera house. On Tuesday the manager of Hersker's theatre. John Hersker, accompanied by a Mahanoy City constable, went to Lewistown, armed with an injunction for recovery of damages. After arriving there a search was made for either the manager of the company or the star, Archie Royer. At the hotel where the troupe registered the writ was read to Mr. Moyer, who said he knew nothing of the over. No remedy wins the gratitude of sufferers as does the world-renowned Anchor Mr. Royer's company listened to the difficulty Mr. Royer's company listened to the difficulty it was impossible for the two men to locate him, and they were compelled to leave for home without serving the papers.
