A BOY'S AWFUL DEATH.

Ground to Pieces in Rollers at Packer No. 4 Colliery.
John Cullihan, a boy 14 years old, met with a fatal accident at Packer No. 4 colliery at noon to-day, by being ground to pieces in the rollers.
It is not known how the accident happened.
It was not discovered until pieces of the victim's body were carried down with coal to the tables of the slate pickers, who stopped work at once and went to their homes. The colliery remaining idle for the remainder of the day.
The remains of the victim were distributed in various parts of the machinery connected with the rollers, and it was with great difficulty that they could be gathered together.
The victim was the son of John Cullihan, of Emory Hollow.

ASHMEN VICTIMS.

One Roasted and the Other Barely Escapes a Similar Fate.
William Welsh, 21 years, of St. Clair, and Howard Fertig, 23 years, of Pottsville, were engaged in dumping ashes into a pit at the Merriam colliery, near St. Clair, yesterday, when they were overcome by the gases.
Welsh tumbled into the pit and was roasted to death. Fertig fell close to the mouth of the pit and was found almost suffocated half an hour later by men who missed the victims at the colliery and went in search of them.
Fertig was finally recovered.

Suit for Benefits.
Lentz and Company, operators of the Park colliery, and 97 of the company's workmen are defendants in a suit at Mahanoy City in which Charles Seader claims benefits from them. It is alleged that about ten years ago an organization was effected whereby it arranged that in case any employe should meet with an accident whereby the victim should be killed, lose a limb, or sustain a broken back, a fund for the family, or victim, would be raised by the company contributing $50, and each employe half a day's pay. A year ago Seader, a timberman, lost an eye by being struck by a piece of timber. He claims the relief above referred to, but the company and employes claim the injury is not of the character contemplated by the organization. Decision is reserved in the case until Tuesday night.

The Rogers Molested.
The proprietors of Hersker's opera house at Mahanoy City on Saturday night, recovered judgment for $200 before Justice Breunon, of Mahanoy township, for damages on breach of contract in a case against the Brothers Royer, who played here last week.
The Royers paid the costs and entered an appeal from the judgment. The Messrs.
Hersker allege that the Royers booked themselves for Koster's opera house after booking with them, and left a date on their hands which could have been filled profitably had the Royers given notice of the change.

Football Accidents.
William Trainer, of Mahanoy City, had the muscles of his left leg badly strained while playing football at New Boston on Saturday. During a tackle he was thrown head first to the ground.
Football Jones, a member of the Miners-ville football team, had one of his legs broken in a game at Hamburg on Saturday.
Adam Becker, of Mahanoy City, was severely injured in a football game on Saturday. His right ear was almost torn off and his body badly bruised in a mix up at a goal line.

Signed the Pay Rolls.
Company F and the other members of the Fourth Regiment, P. V. I., after their physical examination, signed the pay rolls Friday night. They expect to be paid off and mustered out of the service next Wednesday. Each private will receive an average $69 pay. There will be disbursed at Pottsville in all about $12,000.

Will Return to the Klondike.
From Tanana, Alaska, returned Messrs. James and Benjamin Treasure returned from a visit to Shenandoah Treasures yesterday and will spend several weeks in Tamaqua before leaving for San Francisco, and thence to the Klondike.

Escaped From the Almshouse.
Two inmates of the insane department of the County Almshouse made their escape on Saturday, but were captured. One was Mrs.
Fenstermacher, who is scarcely so badly demented as to bear constant watching, and the other was John Dull, of Mahanoy City.
It is a mild case of insanity. A general alarm was given of his escape, and yesterday he was captured at Mahanoy City and returned to the institution.

Dr. Holt's Cough Syrup for your cough, or cold on chest or lungs. It is truly a wonderful medicine. No other remedy has made so many remarkable cures. Price 25c.

Stout's Small Majority.
The official returns, not including the soldier vote, show that Mark D. Bowman, of Mahanoy City, the Republican candidate for County Surveyor, was only defeated by 252 votes. The official returns show that Bowman received 321 votes in the soldier companies to 79 for Stout. This reduces the latter's majority to 28.

Leg Broken.
John Babel, of West Hookleberry alley, sustained a fracture of the left leg, two inches above the ankle, by a fall of coal in the Glangowan colliery Saturday night.
Dr. Stein reduced the fracture.

Higher Fares and Less Cars.
Reports confirming the rumors that the Schuylkill Traction Company contemplates increasing fares have gained circulation with the addition that the number of cars on the Shenandoah-Girardville branch is to be reduced and a 40-minute schedule will supplant the 30-minute schedule now in force.

To Re-enlist.
J. Howell Hughes, who was mustered out of the volunteer hospital service last week at Camp Meade, left for that place to-day to enlist in the regular army hospital service for three years.

Timberman Injured.
Richard Toebey, employed in the timber yard at the Maple Hill colliery, had his left ankle badly injured on Saturday by a heavy timber rolling upon it.

Arm Dislocated.

Win. Penn, while playing with companions, fell and dislocated his left elbow. Dr. W. N.
Stein rendered surgical aid and reset the member.

yesterday, Joseph Shupenia, a 12-year-old boy of Mahanoy City, had the palm of his right hand blown away.

VIOLENT
LUNATIC!

Ciderawicz, the Woman Chaser, Once More in Custody.
WILL NOT BE RELEASED AGAIN!
He Severely Beat Four Men Before Being Overpowered and Bound With Ropes.
Arrangements Being Made to Send Him to an Insane Asylum.

At a late hour Saturday night Policeman Martin Mullaly was summoned to a house on East Centre street to arrest a man who, the messenger said, had nearly killed four men.
Mullaly summoned assistance and he and the place designated. He there found Frank Ciderawicz, a Lithuanian, bound from hand to feet with ropes.
The occupants explained that Ciderawicz made a friendly call at the house during the early part of the evening, but after remaining a couple of hours became quarrelsome.
Efforts were made to pacify him, but he became violent and half a dozen men were unable to keep him under control. It was not until after he had beaten four men severely and showed signs of exhaustion that he was overpowered. To prevent further damage he was bound with a clothes line. He was well bound, too, as the police had to cut the ropes in several places to give the prisoner freedom of the legs to walk to the lockup.

Ciderawicz was locked up he was identified as the man who was in the lockup last week for annoying women on South Jardin and South West streets. At that time the opinion was expressed that the man was insane and he was held prisoner for a couple of days, when the police released him after failing to locate any of his friends. When given his freedom Ciderawicz was apparently harmless.

The man is still in the lockup, and will be kept there until arrangements can be made to transfer him to the insane department of the Schuylkill Haven almshouse. Chief Burrows Taber went to Schuylkill Haven to locate a local agent for the transfer.
Ciderawicz can only give his name. Efforts to locate his boarding house have failed. On his person were found a passport showing that he came to this country two years ago.
Receipts for money sent to the old country through a local agent were also found. Several people supposed to know the whereabouts of the unfortunate denied knowing anything when called upon.

WANAMAKER "RAISES" QUAY.

Offers a Reward of $20,000 to Provocate Legislative Corruption.
Philadelphia, Nov. 14.—Ex-Postmaster General Wanamaker has issued a vigorous statement in reference to the announcement made by Senator Quay of his candidacy for re-election to the United States senate. The statement says in part:
"The truth is the recent election is a most significant rebuke and defeat of Senator Quay and all he represents.
His candidate for governor received a minority of the votes cast for that office, and is only elected because the opposition was not solidified upon a single candidate. Colonel Stone is not the choice of a majority of the voters of Pennsylvania.
"Significant above all is the result of the election of members of the general assembly. The source legislators will be composed of 254 members; of these at least 155 are expressly commissioned by the people and pledged to vote against Senator Quay, and not more than 99 can in any contingency justify a vote for his re-election.
"Senator Quay's hopes, however, to defeat the popular will by the tyranny of his own peculiar machine methods. If the men who are elected are loyal to the constituencies which elected them and the pledges and promises upon which their elections were obtained, it is not possible for him to secure a sufficient number of Republican members who will be found so false to their pledges and their constituencies as to voluntarily assent to any machine subterfuge or device for strangling manhood, undermining character and political freedom."
Mr. Wanamaker concludes by offering a reward of $20,000, the collateral being on deposit with the Real Estate Trust company, of this city, for the conviction of any person who attempts to bribe a legislator, or of any legislator accepting a bribe.

End of Camp Meade in Sight.

ginia, Eighth Pennsylvania and First sylvania left today for Summerville, and tomorrow the Thirteenth Pennsylvania starts for Augusta, Ga. A battalion from a regiment not yet designated will also be sweeping the old government property. Secretary Alger that a portion of it may return next spring.

AMBASSADOR
M'MILLAN

Michigan Senator Selected for the Court of St. James.
RUSSELL A. ALGER FOR SENATOR.

The Secretary of War, the Story Goes, Will Be Appointed by Governor Pingree For the Unexpired Term, Which Lasts Until March 3, 1901.

Washington, Nov. 14.—United States Senator James McMillan, of Michigan, is to succeed Secretary of State John Hay as ambassador to Great Britain, unless Ambassador Alger and a few of his personal friends have been misinformed. The statement came so directly from a gentleman who is in a position to be advised on the subject that it may be considered absolutely accurate. The suggestion of Senator McMillan for the English mission is not new, as the subject has been frequently mentioned in Michigan politics, and also at the national capital since the first report was circulated that Secretary Alger would retire from the Mc-Kinley cabinet.
All efforts to obtain an authorized confirmation of the report have been equally futile, but at the same time those who are closely associated with Senator McMillan and Secretary Alger in unguarded moments during the last few weeks have stated with qualification that the incident is as good as closed, so far as Senator McMillan's appointment by the president is concerned.
The statement that Senator McMillan was willing to relinquish the remainder of his term in the senate to go to the court of St. James has never been directly denied by the president. Secretary Hay or Senator McMillan.
The inference is that when McMillan resigns his seat in the senate Governor Pinegrove, of Michigan, will appoint Senator Alger to fill out the unexpired term, which lasts until March 3, 1901.
This is the plan said to have been agreed upon between the president, Secretary Alger, Senator McMillan and Governor Pinegrove some time previous to the recent elections.
The subject has been kept in the background pending the campaign, but the Michigan men are now looking forward to an early culmination of the project, which will relieve the administration of the services of Secretary Alger without inflicting serious wounds upon his personal pride.
Senator McMillan is now rounding out his second term in the senate and he has no further aspirations in that direction. The novelty of being one of the richest members of that distinguished body, and in addition being regarded as one of the ablest and most astute counsellors in the Republican party, has passed, and he is said to be willing to go to the court of St. James during the remainder of the McKinley administration.

Admiral Schley's New Command.
Washington, Nov. 14.—Rear Admiral W. S. Schley will be assigned to command the European station when it is reconstituted, upon the conclusion of the treaty of peace. Rear Admiral W.
T. Sampson will retain command of the North Atlantic squadron. A gut squadron will in all probability be formed, separate from the North Atlantic squadron, and an officer of the rank of commodore will be assigned to duty as its commander-in-chief.

Young Desperado's Double Crime.
Reading, Pa., Nov. 14.—Morris J.
Lutz, aged 44 years, a shoemaker, was shot and fatally wounded yesterday by his son Harvey, aged about 18.
Young Lutz came home intoxicated, and his father reprimanded him. This angered the boy, and he fired two shots through his father's head. The latter ran into the street and fell over from the loss of blood, and the boy then committed suicide by cutting his throat.
He had the reputation of being a desperate young fellow.

Gideon W. Marsh Still in Jail.
Philadelphia, Nov. 14.—The clerk of the United States court said last night that up to the hour of the closing of court Saturday afternoon the $20,000 bail of Gideon W. Marsh had not been entered. E. Cooper Shapley, Marsh's counsel, did not see his client Saturday, but will probably visit him in prison today.

Robbers at Minersville.
Three masked burglars, probably the same ones that operated at Centralia, looted three places in Minersville yesterday morning, among them being the post office. Few stamps and no money belonging to the government were secured, but it is not known what individuals lost. Adam Hinkle's blacksmith shop was entered and some tools secured, and then they forced an entrance to Charles Gutsch's jewelry store. The proprietor was held up in true burglar style and jewelry to the extent of $50 was secured.
An attempt was made to enter Mohan's store, but the burglars were scared off. Minersville has no police force, and so far no trace of the burglars has been secured.
