Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be aken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; fine cases out of ten are caused by catarri, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

A Fiery General Arouses the Ire of Unpaid Soldiers.

THE GENERAL'S ORDERS IGNORED

Ordered His Regulars to Fire on the Mutinous Orden Publico, But They Refused to Obey the Command, and the General Left in Disgust.

Havana, Nov. 15 .- Private reports from Puerto Principe and Neuvitas, Cuba, say that 7,000 regular soldiers mutinied, demanding their pay before embarking for Spain. About 4,000 armed soldiers, the reports add, presented themselves in front of the palace, calling upon the military governor, Emilio March, for their overdue pay. Thereupon General March drew his sword and ordered them to disband. The soldiers, however, refused to obey, and some of them, armed with loaded rifles, threatened the life of General March, who returned his sword to its scabbard, crying out:

"Do you wish to kill me? Well, kill

The soldiers in reply shouted: "No, no; we only want our pay before embarking for Spain." General March promised them that they would be paid, and the soldiers returned to their quarters peaceably.

The mutiny of the orden publico forces, which for two days threatened the peace of this city, resulted yesterday in the dissolution of that body, when, after the payment of some as rears and the promise of a full liquida-tion, the revolting troops laid down their arms. Captain General Blanco then ordered all the foot and mounted regiments of the orden publico to be disbanded, that organization ceasing to exist from this date.

The Havana mutiny was precipitated by General Arolas, the military governor of the city, whose fiery temper and brutal treatment of officers is the source of daily spreading discontent. At midnight on Wednesday General Arolas, at the head of a battal on of regular infantry, having been apprised of the intention of the troops to join in the mutiny and demand their pay, surprised the artillery outposts stationed along the Vedado road, disarmed them and placed them under surveillance. The next morning the third company of the orden publico, numbering about 150 men, drew up before the captain general's palace, on the Plaza de Armas, and demanded their overdue pay. The men were ordered to retire, but refused. General Arolas, who arrived on the scene almost simultaneously, in an excess of rage lifted his baton of office and savagely attacked some of the onlookers, seriously hurting a government employe who had rushed out of the palace from curiosity.

The orden publico, with fixed bayonets, assumed an attitude of deep hos-tility towards General Arolas, whom the men considered responsible for the disgraceful way in which they had been treated. That moment General Solano, Captain General Blanco's chief of staff, appeared at the palace door and commanded the attention of the men. addressed them in a conciliatory tone, upbraided them for their insubordination, and condemned the ill advised course they were pursuing. Then placing himself at their head Solano himself marched the men back to their quarters, where he again addressed them, promising them they would be paid.

The mutinous orden publico subsequently learned that General Arolas had called over 4,000 regulars from the Believing that General Arolas meant to disarm them they left their quarters, each man with 150 rounds of ammunition in his belt, and lined up in the street opposite to the armory ready to offer resistance, if necessary Shortly after nightfall General Arolas, at the head of the regulars, arrived fore the Orden Publico's quarters, where before him stood the mutinous Third company. General Arolas re-minded them they were regulars and veterans, not mere policemen, as they had been tauntingly referred to. The orden publico then gave three cheers for Spain and the army, which were lustily answered. To the disgust of General Arolas, however, right on the heels of these "vivas" the regulars cheered their comrades, and the orden publico answered in turn. General Arolas, mad with rage, ordered his men to charge, but they re-fused to obey. He then ordered them to fire, which they also refused to do.

General Arolas then left for the palace, accompanied by his staff and seven

About two blocks from the scene of the mutiny General Arolas' party came upon an innocent and unsuspecting member of the orden publico, who was unarmed. Arolas drew his sword and savagel, attacked the man, inflicting on him severe wounds, from which the victim of the assault died.

A PLEA FROM FILIPINOS. Practically an Arraignment of Our Representatives.

"SLIGHTS SHOWN OUR LEADERS"

Is the Burden of "An Appeal to Pres ident McKintey and the American People" by the Representatives of General Aguinaldo in Hong Kong.

Hong Kong, Nov. 15.-The Phipino junta, representatives of General Aguinaldo and the Filipino government here, have drawn up what they designate as an "appeal to President Mc-Kinley and the American people," but what is in reality rather in the nature of an arraignment of American actions. in the Philippines.

John Barrett, former United States minister to Siam, was asked by the junta to present the memorial to the United States government and people Mr. Barrett replied that, while he could have no official influence regarding the status of the matter, he was satisfied that the document which represented the sentiments of the Filipinos would receive at the hands of the Americans all the consideration it merited.

The memorial says: "We, the Hong Kong representatives of our countrymen, appeal to the great the mairon of the Sault Ste. Marie cut and good ludgment of President Mc-Kinley and the spirit of fairness and justice of the American people, as it is always shown in their regard for the ting glass. Mr. Williams said the despetitions of the weak and oppressed. "While the fate of the islands is still ancholia. power to prevent a conflict between the Americans and Filipinos—awaiting patiently the conclusion of the Paris con-ference—we implore the intervention of the president, supported by the will of the people, to end the slights shown our leaders, soldiers and people by some of the American military and naval officers, although we do not wish to wrong Admiral Dewey or General Otis,"

The memorial then avers that "false reports are spread broadcast alleging that the Filipinos are responsible for all the friction," points out that "the tension is greater every day, and any moment a shot may be fired by an irresponsible American or Filipino sol-dier, leading to great bloodshed," and beseeches the United States "to help the junta to control our own people by directing American officials at Maniia to temper their actions with friend-

"From the commencement of the hos-thities," continues the memorial, "the Filipinos acceded to all the American requests, but after bottling up the sequests, but after bottling up the Spaniards in Manila the Filipinos were completely ignored when the Americans advanced, and were thus deprived of the fruits of victory. Now, after months of campaigning, the Filipino troops have been ordered beyond the contrate where they have no quarter. suburbs, where they have no quarters and where supplies are difficult to obtain. All our launches have been selzed because of foolish rumors that we would attack the Americans, and when we asked explanations we were not even answered. The Spaniards, of late the enemies of the Americans, have been shown every consideration, while the Filipinos, their friends and allies, are often treated as enemies.

After asserting that the Pilipinos uni-formly acted upon the advice of the Americans and were informally recog-nized by them until Manila was captured, the memorial goes on to say:
"We can only attribute this sud change to orders from Washington to American officials at Manila to avoid ompromising the American governmen vernment. The Americans are carry ingssight of the former friendly inter ourse and assistance and of the assur ances the American officers gave Gen eral Aguinaldo which he communicate his followers.

After emphasizing the Junta's "abso lute confidence in President McKinley and the people of the great republic." stating that "our protests are not prompted by animosity, but are direct ed against conditions existing at Maed against conditions existing at Ma-nila, and not against the American gov-ernment and people." acknowledging "our gratitude for destroying the Span-ish power in the Philippines," and expressing "a hope that the islands are not to be returned to Spain." the memorial concludes thus:

"We await the arbitrament of the peace commission with even greater in-terest than the Americans, because it concerns our land, our happiness and our freedom."
