GEN. YOUNG TESTIFIES.

Before the Commissioners Investigating the War Department.

POPULAR IMPRESSION REFUTED.

The Rough Riders Were Not Ambushed, as Currently Reported, at the Battle of Guasima-Cubans Gave No Ald-Held Back by Shafter's Orders.

Washington, Nov. 18 .- Dr. Forwood ontinued his testimony before the wa investigating commission yesterday concerning conditions at Montauk Point, where he was chief army sur He said that from the beginning to the end of the history of the general hospital at Camp Wikoff there was are remarkably low. never a time when there were not from 50 to 500 vacant beds. Many patients soon after arriving were sent away to hospitals in neighboring cities, largely in response to public clamor. During the first 30 days of the history of the camp 9,000 patients were treated, and it would have been out of the question to take care of them all in the camp hospitals. Dr. Forwood declared there had been a sufficiency of medicines and medical supplies at all times-a wasteful abundance, in fact.

Major General S. B. M. Young was before the commission at its afternoon session, relating in detail his experience at Santiago and vicinity, and afterwards at Montauk. He said he had landed at Daiquiri on the 21st of June, and that by the morning of the 23d his entire brigade had been put ashore. He had notified General Wheeler and had received orders to move on four or five miles and secure a good camp. the government camping ground was and he had replied that the Spaniards occupied it. "I then," said General Young. "asked permission to go to see the ground, saying I would like to get it for our own troops, to which General Wheeler assented.

In accordance with this arrangement he moved out at 5 o'clock next morning to fight the battle of Guasima, sending the volunteers, the rough riders, by one road, the regulars going by another. He declared that there was no surprise in this fight and no ambus-cade, as had been reported. General Young said be had occupied the eneny's camp that day, "and it was a very good camp," he added naively. In reply to a question as to what aid he had received from the Cubans in this fight he replied none whatever. The Cuban guides had deserted him upon the first fire. After the fight was over, however, some of the Cubans had come up under the command of a and good service. Frenchman, who saluted him very tragically with his sabre, saying that he had been ordered by General Castillo to follow the enemy and fight him wherever he could find him. General Young said he simply ordered the Cu-bans to the rear, and the only service they had performed was to gather up the baggage that the American soldiers had discarded.

General Young said that immediately and Linoleums cheap at the ground over toward Cancy and had informed General Wheeler that he was confident he could take the place that night with his brigade if allowed to do so. General Wheeler had replied that his orders from General Shafter were not to advance without notifying him, and that he would notify the general of his (General Young's) wishes. He had not heard anything more officially in regard to the matter. With this General Young's service in with fever on the 30th of June and sent back home. After a period of sickness ture! Cuba ceased, as he was taken down he was sent to Montauk Point to es-tablish Camp Wikoff. He considered the camp very healthful and the site desirable. "As to what was done there for the soldiers," he said, "I think brain, caused by a blow on the back of the deserved more credit for what I did head, inflicted by some unknown parties at Montauk than for what I did at La while he was driving home one night about Guasima. He said the prias Indian campaigns he had been en-gaged in. There had been occasions when he and his command had had to live on corn, and others when there was nothing to be had except horse meat or burro meat." "But that," added the general, "was not in the news-papers." He was satisfied that most of the complaints against the camp were unfounded. General Young concluded his testimony with the state-ment that the soldiers were far better cared for than they had been in the civil war. The commission adjourned at o'clock to meet at the Fifth Avenue hotel, in New York, today. General Dodge stated that letters had been received from about a hundred persons in the vicinity of New York, but said he did not know whether all of these would appear as witnesses. After con cluding the work in New York the mmission will proceed to Boston, and returning will stop at Philadelphia, to make certain inquiries there.
