The Coal Trade. At the close of the eleventh month of the year 1898, a review of the authracite trade hows that it does not appear in much better shape, so far as the price is concerned, than was the case at the beginning of the year; in fact since, the opening of what may be termed the active shipping season in May there has been a decline in the price per ton that repre-sents considerable loss. The indications point to an advance in the price of bituminous the failure on the part of the County Commissioners to furnish Tax Collector Burke demand for coke. This is narriented by the with the tax duplicate for 1890. This start is a good industrial condition in the country is shown by the very great activity in iron and reflected by the demand for coke. Negro Troops Again Causing Trouble at Anniston, Ala.

PROVOST GUARDS PUT TO FLIGHT

Two Members of the Provost Guards Missing, and Probably Dead-One Dead and One Dying Negro Brought In-Negroes Fire on All Whites.

Anniston, Ala., Nov. 25.—Members of the Third Alabama negro regiment OF FALL HATS caused great excitement here last night. Shortly after dark Private Glidhart, of Company B. Second Arkansas, while going towards his regimental camp from town, was shot in the head by a negro soldier, who also stabbed are remarkably low. him in the back. Glidhert was taken the regimental hospital. later a member of the Fourth Kentucky was shot by negro soldiers who lay it a guiley, shooting at the white men passed. Firing was heard Liberia, the negro quarter of the city, which is not far from Walnut street, and a squad of provost guards went to investigate. As it turned the corner of Fifteenth and Pine streets a large crowd of negro soldlers, without warning, opened fire upon the guards with Springfields, the gun in use in the reg The guard returned the fire, but had but few cartridges, and soon had to retreat. Reinforcements and more ammunition were sent for, but when they arrived the negroes had disappeared. The number of negroes in the was variously estimated at from 50 to 200. In the engagement Sergeant the arm. Private Graham, Third Tennessee, eccived a painful but not necessarily dangerous wound in the stomach. Two other members of the provost guard are missing and cannot be found. One dead and one dying negro have been brought in.

When news of the trouble became known the white soldiers who were in the city gathered around the provost guards' headquarters and begged for guns and ammunition, crying like children because their requests could not be granted. Citizens armed themselves and repaired to the scene of the battle. Mayor High at once ordered all saloons closed. Several negro soldiers, one with a Springfield which had just been fired, were arrested and locked up, though it was with difficulty that the white soldlers and citizens were prevented from wreaking summary ven-geance upon them. Armories of the two local military companies were broken into and every gun and cart-ridge appropriated by unknown parties. General Frank, who is in comwas on the streets until a late hour. General Colby, commanding the Second brigade, ordered out two companies each of the Third Tennessee and Second Arkansas and brought them to the city for whatever service might be required. They scoured the city and carried all soldlers not on duty back to camps. A member of the Fourth Wisconsin is said to have been shot, but the report cannot be verified. One negro soldler, while under arrest, was shot in the arm by a citizen. After the engagement at Fifteenth and Pine streets very few negroes, either soldiers or civilians, were to be heard at intervals in various parts of the city, and rumors are affoat of several crowds of negroes in ambush, but all investigation was fruitless.

A negro soldier was dangerously beaten by some white soldiers on Tenth street yesterday, and this incident is supposed to have caused the riotous actions on the part of the negroes, who are said to have slipped out of the ture!
