DEATHS AND FUNERALS.

The Obsequies of Mrs. Kimmel and Mrs.
Davenport.

One of the greatest throngs that has ever attended service in the German Lutheran church was in attendance yesterday afternoon at the funeral of Mrs. Amelia Kimmel, wife of William Kimmel. The funeral left the family residence on North Jordin street shortly before two o'clock. The pall bearers were Messrs. Martin Grubler, Herman Neuman, John Kaufman, John Bartsch, Jacob Hildenbrand and George L. Hafner. The last five names represent the committee of the German Lutheran church, of which the husband of the deceased is a member. The service was of a most impressive character and in delivering the sermon Rev. John Grubler, the pastor, spoke affectionately and heartily of the deceased who was a member of the congregation for about thirty-two years. There were many beautiful floral offerings. The remains were interred in the Odd Fellows' cemetery.

DAVENPORT.
The funeral of Mrs. Hattie A. Callen Davenport, wife of former School Director Robert A. Davenport, took place at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon from the family residence at No. 27 South Jordin street. The cortege proceeded to the Methodist Episcopal church, where a very large gathering of people witnessed services of a most solemn and impressive character. They were conducted by Rev. William Parck, former pastor of the church now located at Manayunk, Pa. Rev. J. F. Swindell, the pastor of the congregation, assisting. Rev. R. E. Johnson, of Avalon, Chester county, and Rev. Charles Roads, of Philadelphia, were also in attendance, as well as Rev. R. T. Callen, also of Philadelphia, a brother of the deceased. The several church organizations with which the deceased had been actively identified were represented at the service and there were many beautiful floral tributes. The pall bearers at the funeral were Messrs. J. J.
Price, A. H. Swain, James May, Moses Owens, James Patterson and H. E. Dangler.
Interment was made in the Odd Fellows' cemetery.

HALL.
The remains of Isabelle, an infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hall, were interred in the Odd Fellows' cemetery yesterday afternoon by Undertaker J. J. Franey.

HAYES.
The funeral of Patrick Hayes took place from his late residence on East Lloyd street this morning. Services were conducted in the Annunciation church, which were followed by interment in the Annunciation cemetery by Undertaker O'Hara.

MAHANOY CITY.
Mrs. P. J. Malone died on Saturday at her home in Mt. Carbon, after a long illness.
She is survived by a husband and three children. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning.

GREEN.
The remains of John Green, who died at his home in Girardville on Wednesday, were interred at the latter place yesterday. The deceased was 66 years old, and leaves five sons, a wife having preceded him several years ago.

The Duplicate Received.
On Saturday Tax Collector Burke received his duplicate for 1898 from the County Commissioners, which should have been in his hands at least one month ago. The total valuation is $2,468,067, while last year's valuation was $2,387,421. Mr. Burke is now preparing to receive taxes from those who desire to save the whole amount when payment is made within sixty days. The burough rates is 13 mills—5 for water and 8 for borough. The School Board has not yet fixed the school tax rate, but, now that the total valuation is known, will probably do so at the next meeting of the Board.

COUNSEL FOR
TAXPAYERS

Important Action at a Special Borough Council Meeting.

JOHN F. WHALEN IS EMPLOYED.

The Sheaffer Estate, P. & R. C. & I. Co. and Girard Estate Engage Him to Act as Tax Collector Scanlan's Duplicates, and the Borough Council Endorses
the Action.

An important special meeting of the Borough Council was held Saturday evening. It was called for general business, but more especially to act on a communication from the companies that form what is known as the Taxpayers' Association of the county. A result of the meeting in this connection, John F. Whalen, Esq., becomes associated with Borough Solicitor Burke in the litigation growing out of the affairs of Tax Collector Scanlan.

The meeting was attended by Councilmen McGuire, Kugler, Straughn, James, Bell, Hand, Conkey, Murphy, Shuemaker, Lally, Neisewter, Harkins, Berman, Magaglio.
Mr. Bell brought up the first order of business by asking what arrangements Council proposed making for annulling the snow Schuykill Traction Company draws from its road on West Coal street. The matter was referred to the street committee.

Upon motion of Mr. Conkey, John Robt.
McGuire was granted the use of some crossings at the intersection of Bowers street and Apple alley.

Upon motion of Mr. Straughn the finance committee, in conjunction with the Borough Solicitor, was instructed to proceed to draw the bonds to be redeemed on Jan. 1st, next, and make proper publication of the same.
It was also decided that bonds in demoni-ations of from $100 to $1,000 be drawn.

Mr. Hand reported that the finance committee had gone over the treasurer's books and found the balances due on Tax Collector Scanlan's duplicates were correct as previously reported.

Mr. Brennan reported that the survey committee gave a survey of White street, between Lloyd and Coal streets.

The following communication was read:
NOVEMBER 23, 1898.
To the Borough Council.

I desire to report that I have filed for the borough six liens for claims incurred in putting in pavements; on these liens I have levied and will reduce them to their judicial value. I have also filed for the
judicial value.

I had hoped to have the case of Mrs. Mary Mellert finally before court on next Monday, but as the court will not raise court until witnesses could not be present at the last two hearings, we have been prevented from closing the testimony; it is expected the judgment stands as to date and $20.00 on Monday a week.

I have already placed in the hands of the president of Council and the chairman of the judicial committee a communication containing notices with regard to the forthcoming sale of ex-Tax Collector Scanlan's store; they will present these papers this evening.

Yours truly,
M. M. BURKE,
Borough Solicitor.

The report was accepted and the time for Mr. Walsh to make payment was extended.
The following additional communication from the Borough Solicitor was submitted:
NOVEMBER 23, 1898.

DEAR SIR:—Please see to it that the borough is represented at the sale of Mr.
Scanlan's store stock. I shall be present, as solicitor, but the bidding, etc., should be attended to by a member of Council or one of its committees. Yours truly, M. M. BURKE.

It was decided to let the matter go over until the regular meeting to be held next Thursday evening, the law committee in the meantime to look the matter up.

The warrant of Tax Collector Burke for 1898 was read and the proceedings were authorized to execute it.

Mr. Straughn submitted the following communication:
POTTSVILLE, PA., Nov. 25th, 1898.
To the Members of the Borough Council, Shenandoah, Pennsylvania.

GENTLEMEN:—In the interest of the taxpayers of Shenandoah, we have retained John F. Whalen, Esq., as attorney to represent them in the proceedings now pending for the collection of the balance of taxes due by Collector Scanlan of Shenandoah.

We have requested him to appear at the hearings now being held and we would request that Council grant him additional authority to act in conjunction with their Solicitor in the carrying on of such proceedings as are necessary to protect the borough and its taxpayers. The cost of such services will be met by us, and we hope that you can pass such action as will give him full authority to protect the interests of the borough to a great extent those represented by us.

Very truly yours,
WM. L. SHEAFER,
For the Estate of P. W. Sheaffer, dec'd.
The Phila. & Reading C. & I. Co.
By H. C. WILSON, Asst. Land Agent.
The Girard Estate.
By HENRY S. THOMPSON, Engineer.

Mr. James moved that the communication be accepted, spread on the minutes, and that the original be placed on file.

Mr. Straughn then presented the following resolutions, and they were adopted: WHEREAS, We members of the Borough Council of Shenandoah, Pa. appreciating the importance of the proceedings now pending in reference to the 1895 and '96 duplicates of Tax Collector Scanlan, and believing additional counsel necessary to properly protect the borough's interests, therefore, be it Resolved, That we hereby invest John F.
Whalen, Esq., with full and complete authority to act in behalf of the borough, in connection with our Solicitor, M. M. Burke, Esq., in all matters pertaining to the bonds in question, with the view of securing for the borough full legal protection.

Resolved, That whatever action the members of Council may deem advisable to take in the future bearing upon the bond question will only be done at the solicitation or under the advice of the attorneys above named, thus assuring them our full confidence in their ability to properly and legally protect the interests of the taxpayers of the borough.
The construction committee was instructed to procure bids for the painting of the borough building roof and the roof of the bell tower, the bids to be submitted to Council next Thursday evening. The committee was also instructed to have the roof of the building patched where it is necessary.

Upon motion of Mr. James the secretary was instructed to notify John F. Whalen, Esq., and all the signers of the communication bearing upon Mr. Whalen's employment in tax cases, of the action taken by Council in the matter.

Tax Collector Scanlan asked Council for a statement of his account on the 1895 duplicate, as requested at the last meeting; and also asked that he be granted the additional executions for 1895.

President McGuire replied that no action had been taken on the execution claim, and that the finance committee had reported that it was working on the statement for 1895.
On motion of Mr. Bell, it was decided that the committee of the different wards bring in their reports on the additional execution lists for 1895 next Thursday evening.

BOROUGH RESTRAINED.

Sureties On Mr. Scanlan's 1896 Bond Institute Proceedings.
Special to EVENING HERALD.

Pottsville, Nov. 23.—Messrs. Mellert, Brobst and Rynkiewicz, sureties on the 1896 tax bond of M. J. Scanlan, of Shenandoah, this morning went into court and procured a rule temporarily enjoining the borough and School Board from proceeding against the bondsmen for collection of the balances alleged to be due under the duplicate of 1896.

The following is a copy of the petition presented in the proceeding: In the Court of Common Pleas of Schuykill county.

The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania vs. Michael J. Scanlan, of the Borough of Shenandoah, and the Borough of Shenandoah, vs. Michael J. Scanlan, Thomas Scanlan and others, on the tax bond of 1896, No. 17, November Term, 1898.

To the Honorable the Judges of the said court:

The petition of Edward C. Brobst, Michael Brosst, Joseph Rynkiewicz, respectfully shows: That the said Michael J. Scanlan, one of the defendants above named, was duly elected to the office of Collector of Taxes of the Borough of Shenandoah, in said county, for the years 1894, 1895 and 1896, and that, as collector aforesaid, he gave bonds as required by law for each of said years, and that he is a resident of said county.

That your petitioners, the defendants named in the above stated case, became the sureties of the said Michael J. Scanlan, collector as aforesaid, on his bond for the year 1896, which said bond bears date the 21st day of September, 1896, and was filed in the Court of Quarter Sessions of said county on 26th day of September, 1896, and was marked approved by said court on the 26th day of September, 1896, and remained of record in the office of the clerk of said court until the 6th day of September, 1898, when, upon application of counsel for the above named plaintiff, the said bond was certified by order of said court to the Court of Common Pleas, and judgment pursuant to a warrant of attorney in said bond for the sum of $100,000 was entered thereon against your petitioners, and the other defendants above named, and said judgment stands as a lien for said sum against your petitioners.

Your petitioners further respectfully show that the said Borough of Shenandoah, one of the plaintiffs above named, filed a statement or resolution, purporting to have been adopted by the Town Council thereof, upon which said application was made to the court for an order certifying said bond to and directing judgment to be entered thereon in the said Court of Common Pleas as aforesaid, by which statement or resolution said borough claims a balance of $14,803.96 due by said collector for the year 1896, and the borough taxes levied by said borough for the year 1896. And the said school district, the other of said plaintiffs, has also filed a statement or certificate claiming a balance of $9,841.06 as due by said collector on the duplicate of school taxes for the year 1896, and alleges that the sureties on said bond are liable for said sums, respectively, and threaten to collect the same by legal process.

Your petitioners further represent that they are advised by counsel that the entry of said judgment against your petitioners and their co-sureties in the name and way above stated is irregular and illegal, in that it is not in accordance with the requirements of the provisions of the Act of the General Assembly in such cases made and provided, which regulates and provides the manner and mode of proceeding upon official bonds.

Your petitioners further represent that they have a just, full and legal defense to wholesale of the plaintiff's claim, respectively, in the above stated case, the nature and character of which is as follows, to-wit:

That the said Borough of Shenandoah, acting through the Town Council, which had full jurisdiction and authority in the premises, did not prepare or deliver to the said collector any duplicate for taxes levied by it for the said year of 1896 until the month of September, 1897, about or more than a year after the giving of the said bond, and has any warrant ever been issued, executed and delivered by said borough to said collector authorizing him and requiring him to collect the taxes levied by the said borough for the said year 1896, as required by law, and that the said collector has as such duplicate or warrant during the period for which said bond was given by defendants.

And your petitioners further aver and expect to be able to prove, that all borough taxes collected by the said collector for 1896 have been faithfully accounted for and paid over to the treasurer of the said borough, according to law, and after such payments by the said collector to the officials, the said borough unlawfully undertook to appropriate and apply said money so collected for taxes for the year 1896 to the other duplicates and accounts of said collector for other years. And your petitioners allege that there is not due by said collector of taxes for the year 1896 to the said borough the sum of $14,803.96 claimed by it and set forth in the statement filed, as herein above stated; but that, crediting the said collector with moneys collected by him for borough taxes for the said year of 1896

STORM VICTIMS.

Number of Deaths as a Result of the Late Blizzard.

THE HEAVIEST SINCE 1888.

At Least Twelve Lost From Sunken Barges in Boston Harbor.

FOUND FROZEN IN THE STREETS.

In New York and Jersey City a Dozen Persons Were Discovered Lying Unconscious in the Snow—Of These Three Are Dead and the Condition of Others Is Critical—New York Police Took Heroic Measures to Prevent Further Fatalities, and the Plan Was Successful.

New York, Nov. 23.—When the people of New York awoke yesterday morning they found the blizzard that raged when they retired was still in progress. The storm, which began with a soft, sleety snow on Saturday at noon, increased greatly as the day went on with heavier snowfall, the wind blowing a gale at midnight. There was a slight abatement of the wind yesterday, but the snow still fell and drifted high and the temperature dropped rapidly.

It looked in the morning as though the blizzard would continue all day, but at 10 o'clock there was a breaking away in the west, a brightening of the light, and finally the storm ceased altogether, and the severest blizzard since the memorable one of March, 1858, came to an end. The wind blew at the rate of 50 to 60 miles an hour during the height of the storm. Snow fell throughout New York state. The fall in New York city, the weather bureau reports, was about 10 inches.
Philadelphia, 9 inches; Boston, 6 inches; Portland, Me., 4 inches; Albany, a little over an inch. The lowest temperatures reported were: New York city, 25; Albany, 18.

With the brightening of the skies in this city came an increase in the velocity of the wind, and the loose dry snow was sent swirling and eddying everywhere. Nearly a foot of snow had fallen, but in places it had drifted to four and five feet. The peculiarity of the storm was the enroasting of nearly every window, the sides of buildings and trees, and when the storm cleared away the great city was transformed into a spectacle of glistening white of surpassing beauty. Broadway and all the great thoroughfares of the city presented a fantastic appearance. In the greatest artery of business activity of the country there were drifts on the sidewalks through which the early morning wayfarer plowed his waist.

An order was sent out from police headquarters to the various precinct commanders to have arrested all persons found alone in a condition that would raise even the suspicion of intoxication. As a result the police courts yesterday were crowded with eminently respectable looking persons, who were let go with a small fine and an admonition to get out of the snow. Notwithstanding the precaution on the part of the police there were a number of casualties, including several deaths from exposure. John Martin, 55 years old, a former insurance agent, was found in the park at Tenth street and Avenue B and taken to Bellevue hospital. Both his legs and hands were badly frozen. He had lain down on a bench to die, he said. He had had nothing to eat for several days. An unknown woman was found unconscious in a snow drift at Seventy-eighth street and Avenue A. She was removed to the Presbyterian hospital, where her condition was said to be serious.

An aged German, Frank Schneider, of Dutch Kills, Long Island city, was found late Saturday night at Seventeenth street and Second avenue. He was lying on a snow bank, almost unconscious, and was transferred to Bellevue. An unknown man, discovered in a basement on the Bowers and removed to Hudson street hospital, died there from alcoholism and exposure. A policeman rescued Dennis Quinn, a letter carrier, who had fallen helpless in the snow early yesterday morning, badly frozen.

In Jersey City the body of Rosanna Cunningham, 42 years of age, was found late Saturday night at Seventeenth street and Second avenue. Her skull was fractured. The body was almost covered with snow. It is believed she received her injuries from a fall.

At 7 a. m. a policeman found Charles Schopp unconscious in the snow in Jersey City. Before he could be carried into a house Schopp died. He had started for a butcher shop, where he was employed, and his death is attributed to exposure and exhaustion from his struggle through the blinding storm.

George Heck, 42 years old, and William Allen were also found in Jersey City by the police badly frozen. The former had been drinking and was unconscious, and is likely to die.

John Bohan, while on a street car, became benumbed by the cold at Avenue B and Third street and fell from the platform of the car. He lay in the snow for a considerable time, but was finally discovered by a passerby and sent to Bellevue in an ambulance.

Julius Hooserberg, a homeless man, who sought shelter in a barn at Stapleton, Staten Island, was found frozen to death.

Frank Jones, aged 40 years, was found dead on the Tarrytown road, near White Plains. He had been blinded and benumbed and fell in the snow to perish.

THE STORM IN BOSTON.

A Dozen Lives Lost With Wrecked
Barges in the Harbor.

Boston, Nov. 23.—A record breaking November blizzard swept over the greater part of New England Saturday night and Sunday, completely demoralizing traffic of every description, and well nigh paralyzing telegraphic and telephonic communication. What the northeast gale, coming on a high course of tides, drove the sea far beyond its usual limits and made a mark along shore exceeded only by the memorable hurricane of 1851.

While the storm was heaviest in the city.
