Fatal Early Morning Fire in New York's Aristocratic Quarter.

THREE DEAD AND SEVERAL HURT

Of the Dead One Was a Servant Girl Who Sacrifieed Her Own Life in Order to Warn Others, and Her Escape Was Cut Off.

New York, Dec. 21 .- A flerce fire started in the handsome house at 269 West Seventy-third street, occupied by Charles H. Raymond, general agent of the Mutual Life Insurance company, at an early hour yesterday morning, which resulted in the death of three persons and the serious injury of sev eral others.

The dead are: Mrs. Charles H. Raymond, 55 years old; death resulted from compound fracture of the leg and internal injuries. Mrs. Victoria Under-wood, of Zanesville, O., sister of Mrs. Raymond, jumped from third story window. Harriet Fee, domestic, burned to death. Injured: Charles H. Raymond, 60 years; shock, overcome by smoke. Will-iam Doerr. 30 years, conductor; injured about the body, scalp wound. William Ferguson, 26 years, butler; face lacer-ated, overcome by smoke. The fire started in the basement, and in a few minutes the lower part of the house was enveloped in flames. There was a panic, and Mrs. Victoria Under-wood, Mrs. Raymond's younger sister, who had come here from Ohio to spend the Christmas holidays, jumped from the third story window and was killed almost instantly. William Doerr, a conductor, who had run to assist in the rescue, among many others, and who was ascending a ladder to try to rescue Mrs. Underwood, was struck by her body as she fell and knecked to the pavement below He struck an iron railing that surrounded the house and was seriously injured.

Mrs. Raymond, who occupied a room on the second floor, was assisted to the window by her husband and stood on the sill, panic stricken and calling for help. Two firemen went rapidly up scaling ladders, while people, on the street shouted to the Raymonds not to jump. They were so confused and frightened and half suffocated that they seemed not to know what they were doing.

As the firemen neared the window Mrs. Raymond stumbled and fell. Her night dress caught in a rung of the adder and her body whirled around as it fell to the flagged area. She was picked up unconscious and taken to Roosevelt hospital, where she died last night

Harriett Fee, a domestic, who had run upstairs at the first alarm to arouse the persons sleeping in the house, was unable to get to the street again, and was burned to death.

Mr. Raymond himself was rescued and taken to Roosevelt hospital, where it was found that he was suffering a eat deal from having inhaled flames and smoke.

It is claimed by the authorities that the casualities resulted by reason of panic. The house was supplied with fire escapes and the firemen were early at the scene.

The greatest applause followed Mr. McNeill's remarks.

John Kliby, of Ouray, Colo., and the miners of the west were looking more to Mr. Gompers to aid them in their struggles than any one else. There were no other nominees, and Henry Lloyd, of Massachusetts, moved that the vote of the convention be cast for Mr. Gompers. This was done amid great cheering, Isauc Cowan, the Cleveland socialist, objected, and his vote was recorded against Mr. Gompers.

With the exception of the fourth, fifth and sixth vice presidents and three fraternal delegates the rest of the old officers were elected without any opposition. The remainder of the ticket follows: First vice president, P. J. McGuire, Philadelphia; second vice president, James Duncan, Baltimore; third vice president, James O'Connell, Chicago: fourth vice president, John F. Mitchell, Indianapolis; fifth vice president, Max Morris, Denver; sixth vice president, Thomas I, Kidd, Chicago: secretary, Frank Morrison, Chicago; treasurer, John B. Lennon, Bloomington, Ilis.

Fraternal delegates-To the Union Congress of Great Britain: Thomas F. Tracey, New York, of the Cigarmakers' union, and James O'Connell, Chicago, of the Machinists' union. To the Trade and Labor Congress of Canada: John F. O'Suillyan, Boston, of the Massachusetts state branch. The convention spent most of yes terday in amending its constitution and providing means for widening the scope of its work. The Federation increased the per capita tax upon members of trades union organizations from three-to this, but the delegates were strongly in favor of it. On every hand they declared that an increased revenue was needed to carry on the work of organization so as to strengthen the abor cause.

George E. McKitts had some doubt us to the efficacy of such a law, "And further," said be, "it will simply li-cense the employment of children. We will be put in the light of recognizing what we know to be an evil."

Mr. O'Sullivan said he believed that the employment of children could never be checked until the women workers of the land identified themselves with the trades unions. He was certain, too, that women would never receive equal pay with men until they showed a strength united enough to force it upon their employers.

I must express my high appreciation of the wast amount of good that you have rendered the public. A correct measure of your usefulienes merer has been, and never will be estimated by the public, no, not even by the multitude of afficied humanity that has been relieved and cured by your medi-cines. Wherever I go or have been in the United States, I find persons who have used, and are using Dr. Flerce's medicines with satisfac-tion, for all conditions for which they are recom-mended. Never has one spaken disparagingly of their action, and from having aren as often built and they are recommended. It is not common for regian physicians to endorse and recommend proprietary medicines, but in this part. They on blay constitution, one more and
