JUR COUNTRY: First, Last and Forever.

WE are in receipt of bound copies of the report of the State Board of Health, for which the secretary has our thanks.

SOME of the friends of Congressman Dalzell are booming him for the United States Senatorship. We can imagine the feelings of Chris. Magee.

The Southern States. President McKinley's trip through the South has been productive of several results, notable among them is that the people of all the states are drawing closer to each other in the sense of nationality. The President has shown a desire to deal with Southern sentiment in a considerate spirit and to efface as far as possible the old feeling of sectional bitterness. This is a task in which temperament and natural disposition count for much, and McKinley has shown that he is the man for the work.

The reception accorded the President on his recent visit to Atlanta is an evidence that he stands well with Southern. They do not agree with him politically, but appreciate his fairness, courtesy, innate kindness and unbounded patience in contact with messengers and men. While firm and unflinching in support of the policies with which he is identified, he still meets their opponents on friendly terms and weighs their side of the case dispassionately.

McKinley's mind has been calmly trained in the practical affairs of the nation. He has been always a close student and builder. None of the elements of the destructive are found in him. Inevitable and personal aggression are not in his line. There is no record of his utterance of a harsh or unpleasant word.

It is easy to like such a President, even if his political views are not accepted. What President McKinley evidently sees in the South is a great region which, through force of past circumstances, is not in full accord with the keynotes of national progress, nor developing its resources as rapidly as might be, nor taking as broad a share in public affairs as it would be able to sustain by virtue of its intelligence and character.

That the President earnestly desires the South to move forward to a realization of all just advantages can not be doubted. He respects its people and their intellectual gifts, cherishes the hope that the old sectionalism will vanish, and labors to unite the people of all the states in a common patriotism. There is no condition that the South shall be Republican. It might well be for good reasons that could be urged, but the President presents simply the idea of national fellowship and a new era freed from the reserve engendered by the war. His efforts in the South are for country, not party.

In choosing leaders for the volunteers the President displayed his appreciation of Southern ability and his own impartial methods. The making up of the peace commission was another instance of his desire to give due recognition to the South. This wish, in fact, has marked his action since he was inaugurated. He has made the overtures that the South take a deeper and more active interest in the current affairs of the country. Nor has he been misunderstood. The warmth of his greeting in Georgia is due to the intuitive knowledge that his friendship for the South is the expression of the man, and not of a partisan.

Illusions and misconceptions remain in the South that have retarded its growth and prosperity. There can be no better step toward getting rid of them than to get out into the sunshine of patriotism and of nationality as broad as America.

Death of an Atlantic City Pioneer. Atlantic City, Dec. 22.—Colonel Daniel Morris, aged 79 years, who planned the present city of Atlantic City and entered the work of laying the first railroad from Camden to this city, died yesterday.

Colonel Morris accumulated over a million dollars by judicious investments in real estate in this city, but at the time of his death his fortune is estimated at about $250,000. He had turned over to charitable institutions the greatest part of his wealth. A few years ago he erected a home for orphans at Hedgesville, N. J., known as the St. Michael Orphan Asylum and Industrial school. For several years he was a surveyor of state railroads in Pennsylvania, back in the forties.

Suit Against Convict Loses. Vicksburg, Miss., Dec. 22.—Vollmer & Mounger, attorneys, have filed a bill in the circuit court on behalf of Ella Brown, colored, asking damages for personal injuries received while in the service of T. R. Foster and J. J. Mulligan, lessees of county convicts. The complainant alleges that the Brown woman was terribly beaten by one of the convicts having in charge of the convicts at work on the county farm. The woman claims that she was whipped because she was sick and unable to work. Her body was terribly lacerated and she lay at the point of death for five weeks. The complainant was convicted of a minor misdemeanor.

The Mustered Out of Volunteers. Washington, Dec. 22.—Nothing definite has been decided by the war department as to the regiments which will be included in the 50,000 volunteers to be mustered out. It is said, however, that they will be distributed as equitably as possible among the several states, and in a general way the first regiments mustered in will be the first to go out.

SYRUP OF FIGS

THE EXCELLENCE OF SYRUP OF FIGS

is due not only to the originality and simplicity of the combination, but also to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific processes known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. only, and we wish to impress upon you all the importance of purchasing the true and original remedy. As the genuine Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. only, a knowledge of that fact will assist you in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties. The high standing of the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. with the medical profession, and the satisfaction which the genuine Syrup of Figs has given to millions of families, makes the name of the Company a guarantee of the excellence of its remedy. It is far in advance of all other laxatives, as it acts on the kidneys, liver and bowels without irritating or weakening them, and it does not gripe nor nauseate. In order to get its beneficial effects, please remember the name of the Company—

MILES AND MERRITT

Testify Before the Commission Investigating the Conduct of the War.

Washington, Dec. 22.—General Nelson A. Miles, commanding the United States army, and General Wesley Merritt, commander of the American forces at the capture of Manila, were the principal figures before the war investigating commission yesterday. General Miles responded to the summons only after several days' consideration. He was accompanied by his own stenographer. His examination was comparatively brief, and not sensational. He spoke with some bitterness as to the "embalmed beef" and the canned beef furnished the army in the field. This he characterized as an experiment for which "some one in Washington" was responsible. He said that the landing facilities of the Santiago expedition were inadequate, and that the men were short of rations and medicines, and might have been better protected from exposure to fever contagion. General Merritt told the commission that he regarded the Philippine expedition as a decided success, and would conduct it on the same lines if he had to do it over. He spoke in high terms of the troops under him, and said his army was well supplied with medicines and food. General Merritt paid quite as high a tribute to the civilian staff officers as did General Shafter the previous day, saying: "They were good officers, intelligent, anxious to learn and to work."

DON'T BLAME THE GIRLS.

Lieutenant Hobson Declares Their Kisses Are Purely Patriotic. Denver, Colo., Dec. 22.—A reception was given Lieutenant Hobson at the residence of the Brown Palace hotel yesterday afternoon, attended by no less than 2,000 people. There was no kissing. The committee having the affair in charge decided that this feature of Lieutenant Hobson's reception in the east should be omitted, and the officer heartily seconded the decision. When asked about recent newspaper criticisms of his kissing experiences the lieutenant said: "I have nothing to deny or take back. I wish to say, however, that I desire to bear all the responsibility. No one else must be blamed. I recognize purely the patriotic enthusiasm of the women and girls in kissing. Understand me, though, I do not wish that they be charged with any wrong. Most of them were school girls. They were in a frame of mind that was prompted by purely patriotic motives."

The "Hobson Game" in Kentucky. Lexington, Ky., Dec. 22.—The Hobson game was tried for the first time in Lexington yesterday. Lieutenant Burnham Law, assistant surgeon of the Seventy-first Ohio, was passing through the city. A Miss Warren, with whom he was acquainted, and several other handsome young ladies whom he met for the first time were at the train to see him, and during the short wait each of the girls kissed him twice.

Secretary Long's Illness. Washington, Dec. 22.—The list of official invalids has been increased by Secretary Long, who is suffering from a cold contracted during his visit to the south. He has been confined to his apartments ever since his return, and has attended to his official duties there. His illness will be well again in a few days. Secretary Hays remained at home today, and is said to be improving.

Theft by Banker Convicted. Boston, Dec. 22.—The jury in the case of W. S. Jewett, formerly president of the Lake National bank, of Wolfboro, N. H., charged with the embezzlement of $25,000, said to have been committed while settling the affairs of the bank, brought in a verdict of guilty on the opening of the circuit court yesterday.

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bed effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. At druggists fifty cents or one dollar.

You may have a sample bottle and a book that tells more about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, if you send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing be sure and mention that you read this generous offer in the Shenandoah HERALD.

Baby Mine!

Every mother feels an indescribable dread of the pain and danger attendant upon the most critical period of her life. Becoming a mother should be a source of joy to all, but the suffering and danger of the ordeal make its anticipation one of misery.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

is the remedy which relieves women of the great pain and suffering incident to maternity; this hour which is dreaded as woman's severest trial is not only made painless, but all the danger is removed by its use. Those who use this remedy are no longer dependent or gloomy; nervousness, nausea and other distressing conditions are avoided, the system is made ready for the coming event, and the serious accidents so common to the critical hour are obviated by the use of Mother's Friend. It is a blessing to woman.

Civil Service Law Violations. Washington, Dec. 22.—An issue of some importance has been raised by the civil service commission as to the right of Comptroller Tracewell of the treasury, to refuse to audit the accounts of persons appointed to positions "in connection with the civil service law." The civil service commission called the attention of the comptroller to a list of clerks in district attorneys' and marshals' offices, deputy marshals, stenographers, etc., alleged to have been appointed contrary to the civil service act. These appointments, it is stated, were made without examination or certification, and the question was whether they should be allowed compensation.

WEYLER HUNG IN EFFIGY.

Cubans Make Merry Over the Execution of a Havana Suburb.

Havana, Dec. 22.—Effigies of General Weyler hung in Cerro, the suburb, surrounded by jeering crowds, while small processions march and counter-march along the streets, shouting constantly. Business is virtually suspended in consequence of the rejoicings over the execution. In some instances bands of Cubans have visited Spanish shopkeepers and compelled them to shout "Viva Cuba Libre," and wave Cuban flags.

Senora Parres, the lady who entertained the Cuban Generals Sangrally and Lauret and other Cuban officers at a dance at her residence in Cerro Tuesday evening, sent a message to the United States military commissioners, suggesting that the Spanish soldiers might invade Cerro and raid her home. Major Harrison, though taking no account of her fears, stationed two guards in front of her residence.

Printed papers insulting to the Spaniards and threatening to kill them after Jan. 1 continue to be circulated in various parts of the island. The alcalde of Santiago de las Vegas has seized large quantities of such clandestine prints and burned them.

The Cuban patriotic committees are planning for a five days' feast after Jan. 1, during which all business is to be suspended.

Two Shot by Reckless Soldiers. Meridian, Miss., Dec. 22.—Lucy Thomas and her 4-year-old boy were shot at Eutaw, Ala., yesterday by soldiers of the First Missouri volunteers, who were mustered out at Columbia, Tenn., on Tuesday. The child was shot above the left eye and is not expected to recover. The mother received a painful wound in the arm. The boys were drunk and disorderly, recklessly shooting into every house as they passed. The woman and child were standing in the door of their home. The firing was done from the train on which the soldiers were en route home. Governor Johnson, of Alabama, has offered a reward of $100 for the arrest and conviction of every man implicated in the shooting.
