REV. O'BOYLE LEAVES.

Gone to Sunbury to Assume His New Charge.

Rev. Robert O'Boyle, late pastor of the Trinity Reformed church, preached his farewell sermon in the church Sunday night, accompanied by his family, to-day left town for Sunbury, to assume the pastorate of the Reformed church there. A large delegation representing the local congregation was at the P. & E. railway station to take leave of the pastor and his family and the parting was an affecting one. Rev. O'Boyle was connected with the Trinity Reformed church for many years and, through his industrious and persistent work, he brought it to the foremost rank of the local places of religious work. In his duties as pastor he was ever watchful for occasions when he could do something to advance the interests of his congregation, collectively and individually, and as a citizen of the town he was held in high esteem. The Herald joins the many friends he leaves here in wishing him the same success with his labors were rewarded in town.

M'ANDREW DEAD.

Injuries Received in Shenandoah City Cattle Race Fatally.

Frank McAndrew, the young man who was hurt while employed as a driver in the Shenandoah City colliery on the 19th inst., died from the effects of the injuries yesterday. McAndrew's head was struck between two cars while he was unhooking a sprouter, and extensive hemorrhages of the eyes, ears and nose were caused.

A Pastor's Pretty Gift.

The scholars of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday school were most gratifyingly surprised at the session of the school Sunday afternoon when the pastor of the church, Rev. John T. Swindell, presented each of them with a neat little volume containing the International Sunday school lessons for the year. The cover of the little work was pretty and unique in design, bearing a spray of golden rod and in the lower right hand corner a small portrait of the donor.

Moore Sentenced.

New York, Dec. 27.—William A. E. Moore, who was convicted about two weeks ago of playing the badger game on Martin Mahon, was to-day sentenced by Recorder Goff to imprisonment for 19 years. Moore is the husband of Fayne Strahan Moore.

Caught in the Act.

There was a scene at the corner of Main and Centre streets Saturday afternoon, which was occasioned by the detection of a man stealing a pocketbook from a market basket a woman was carrying on her arm. Joe Kehoe, a conductor on a Schuylkill Traction car, made the discovery. The man accused protested that he picked up the pocketbook from the street, but the irate woman who carried the basket charged him with a falsehood, and struck him in the face twice with her fist. Both parties boarded a car and journeyed to their homes down the valley.

Brennan's Cafe Attraction.

Messrs. Connell and Hallen, two clever metropolitan vaudeville artists, will open an engagement at Dan Brennan's cafe to-night and will continue during the holiday week. They will render all that is new in the world of song and also several red hot comedies. A change of bill will be made nightly, and Mr. Brennan guarantees them to be an all star attraction.

Judge Koch's Christmas.

Although yesterday was the day legally set apart for the observance of Christmas Judge Koch spent several hours in his office in Potsville hearing motions for new trials and disposing of other unfinished business on his calendar. Judge Koch's term on the bench expires on January 1st and he is desirous that none of the cases before him shall be left unfinished when his successor goes upon the bench.

Health Reports.

Alex. Drumbocki, aged 11 months, 407 South Main street, was reported to the Board of Health this morning as a sufferer from membranous croup, and is in a critical condition. Bernard McHale, aged 8 years, and residing at 19 North Chestnut street, is suffering from scarlatina.

Air Gun Noisance.

The Herald has been asked to call the attention of the authorities to the needless use of air guns by boys. This morning there were seven of the guns in play on West Cherry street and the residents of that vicinity were kept in a state of nervousness.

Christmas Gifts.

Incidental to the Christmas exercises in the First Baptist church Sunday evening a presentation of a purse of $25 was made to the pastor, Rev. D. I. Evans, in behalf of the congregation. Miss Emily L. Jones, the organist, was presented with a toilet set and a shaving set was presented to Mr. Charles Rowlands, the leader of the choir. The congregation supplemented these gifts with a collection of $13.48 for the Philadelphia Baptist orphanage.

Married.

Henry Howells and Miss Elizabeth Cope were married Saturday night by Rev. D. I. Evans, pastor of the First Baptist church. Miss Annie Howells was the bridesmaid and William Thomas the groomsmen. The ceremony took place in the costly furnished home of the bride couple at Turkey Run and was followed by a supper, which was enjoyed by a number of friends.

GIFTS TO CHILDREN.

Delightful Gatherings in Many of the Churches Last Night.

SANTA CLAUS WAS GENEROUS!

Candies, Fruits and Other Tokens Distributed Among Hundreds of Little Ones, Who Respond With Sweet Songs and Pretty Speeches.

Christmas entertainments were held last night in the Methodist Episcopal, Primitive Methodist, Presbyterian, United Evangelical, Trinity Reformed and several other local churches and pleasing programs of a literary and musical character were rendered at each. Each church was tastefully decorated and incidental to the entertainments there was a distribution of tokens among the scholars of the Sunday schools.

The Herald published a number of the programs on Saturday and space in this issue will only admit the publication of such programs as were not ready in time for the previous issue. The program of the entertainment in the Presbyterian church was as follows:

Anthem, choir; invocation, pastor; opening address, Andrew Kinkaid; singing, "Jesus is Come"; school; responsive reading, school; vocal solo, "Palestine" Rev. H. W. Koehler; singing, "Praise the Lord ye Sons of Zion"; recitation, Miss Hattie Meyer; vocal solo, "Christmas"; Margaret Redd; responsive reading, school; song, "Christmas Snowflakes"; primary class; recitation, Miss Yetta Myrick; song, "The Christmas Bells"; primary class; recitation, Paul Houck; song, "We are Happy"; boys of primary class; recitation, Sadie Gibson; song, "Twinkling Little Stars"; girls of primary class; singing, "All Hail to the Morn"; school; "Echoes from the Trees"; Miss Glover's class; violin solo, Miss Eva Brewer; anthem, choir; responsive reading, school; singing, "Jubilation"; "Christ is Born"; school; recitation, Miss Lizzie Clifford; singing, "The Happy Christmas Day"; school; "A Tribute to the Flag"; Miss Daniel's class; singing, "The Bells are Calling"; school; recitation, Miss Ray Koenig; singing, "What a Joyous Time"; school; address, Pastor; singing, "Shout the Happy Tidings"; school; distribution of gifts.

All Saints' Church.

After an appropriate religious service in All Saints' Episcopal church last evening there was a Christmas entertainment during which Santa Claus made his appearance and distributed gifts with a generous hand among the children. Miss Edith Morgan, the organist, was presented with a valuable token in appreciation of her services in connection with the choir. The feast of sacred, musical and literary selections offered at the Methodist Episcopal church was as follows: Singing, "Joy of the World"; prayer by Rev. J. T. Swindell; the pastor's address; school; recitation, "A Greeting"; George Jones; singing, "Jesus our King"; primary school; singing, "Merry Christmas"; school; recitation, "In Jesus Name"; Estella Fiast; singing, "Twinkle Little Stars"; primary school; singing, "Hark! Salmon Flunked.

Friends of Martin Fahy, of town, went to Mahanoh City Saturday night and tied a match for Fahy to see if Michael Salmon, a dash of 50 yards for $500 a side. Yesterday Salmon said he knew nothing of the match until he was informed of it by some friends, and then he concluded that he would not run Fahy unless the distance was made 100 yards. Fahy would give him a start of three yards.

Fell From a Tree.

Thomas Kelly, a residence of Wiggins, 26 years old, slipped through the electric railway trestle near Wiggins on Sunday morning and dropped 40 feet to the ground. He was picked up unconscious and now lies at his home in a precarious condition. He suffers from concussion of the spine and paralysis of the lower limbs.

AUSPICIOUS OPENING.

Little Irene Myers Draws Large Audience at Ferguson's Theatre.

Little Irene Myers and an excellent company opened a week's engagement at Ferguson's theatre yesterday afternoon under most favorable circumstances. They were greeted by the largest matinee audience in the history of the theatre and at the evening performance the house was crowded to the doors. Standing room was at a premium long before the curtain was raised, and the company responded to the generous patronage by giving two of the best performances ever given at the theatre by a repertoire company. Two sterling plays were given with evidence of attention to every detail. "The Black

LITTLE IRENE MYERS.

Flag" was the bill at the matinee, and "The Silver King" the evening production. Both pieces were admirably presented and the little star, Miss Myers, appeared brilliantly in a firmament of clever artists. She is an exceptionally pleasing little actress and equally effective in comedy and strong scenes. Miss Myers is ably supported by Charles H. Leplur, a capital comedian with a big stock of catchy specialties. Several members of the company appeared in specialties between acts, and all were heartily appreciated. Among them was a townsman, Mart Maley, who renders buck and wing dancing in clever style. To-night the company will present "Kidnaped," a play abounding in strong scenes and situations with a dash of comedy here and there.

Deaths and Funerals.

The remains of William Mulhall, who died in Philadelphia on Friday from the effects of injuries sustained on a railroad, arrived in town Saturday night and the funeral took place yesterday morning from the residence of the deceased's sister, Miss Annie Mulhall, on West Centre street. High mass was celebrated in the Annunciation church and interment made in the parish cemetery. O'Hara Bros. were the funeral directors.

The funeral of Louis Lechleitner took place this morning from the residence of the deceased's mother, on West Centre street.

After the celebration of High mass at the Annunciation church the remains were interred in the Annunciation cemetery. M. O'Neill was the funeral director.

Thomas Flannery died this morning at his home in Lost Creek, from pneumonia. He was about 65 years old.

The remains of Mrs. Edward Hussey, an aged resident of Grandville, were yesterday interred in the parish cemetery. Deceased was the esteemed wife of P. J. Dugan, principal of the Brownsville schools.

Elizabeth, infant daughter of George and Mary Gregory, of East Centre street, died yesterday morning. She was 10 months old and died from convulsions. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon.

The funeral of Edward, three-year-old son of William Wentz, of Delano, took place this afternoon.

Ralph Millard, an aged and highly esteemed resident of Mahanoh City, died this morning from pneumonia. He was 68 years old and had resided in Mahanoh City for 30 years. He was inside foreman at the New Boston and Robinson collieries before he retired from active life.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup always cures coughs and colds. It is poor economy to neglect a cold when a bottle of this reliable remedy will relieve and cure it at once. Price only 25c.

Sunday School Election.

An election of officers of the First Baptist Sunday school on Sunday resulted as follows: Superintendent, J. P. Williams; Assistant, John Rudd; Treasurer, Luke Bowen; Secretary, Mark Edwards; Assistant, Miss Jennie Jones. Mr. Williams has held the position of superintendent for ten consecutive years and is one of the main promoters of the school, being persistent in his efforts for its welfare at all times and most generous in his support financially as well as morally.

A WARNING TO CUBANS.

Proclamation Ordering Them to Treat Spanish Courteously.

DISORDERS WILL BE SUPPRESSED.

At Present Havana is the Scene of Many Violations of the Law—A Spanish Merchant Who Refused to Kiss the Cuban Flag Macheded.

Havana, Dec. 27.—The American evacuation commissioners today issue a proclamation to the inhabitants of the island of Cuba, giving in detail the program agreed upon for the evacuation by the Spanish troops on Sunday next. The proclamation, which is signed by Major Generals Wade and Butler and Brigadier General Clous, then proceeds:

"The undersigned desire, in this public manner, to impress and enjoin upon all the people of the island the necessity for strict compliance with the terms of this agreement, to the end that public order and the respect for the gravity of the occasion may prevail, and especially to admonish all classes of people to exercise self-restraint and moderation and refrain from giving cause of offense or irritation and from the exhibition of excitement, undue manifestation of feeling, or from doing any act calculated to produce irritation or bad feeling.

"For nearly four months this commission and other officials of the United States have been under the protection of the Spanish authority. They have extended to us the most scrupulous courtesy and consideration, and not one unpleasant incident has marred our sojourn in their midst, and now that our positions are soon to be reversed, and they are to become our guests and entitled to our protection we must see to it that they enjoy the same impunity and consideration. The best interests of all classes, Cubans, Spaniards and Americans, will be thereby subserved. Any violation of the terms and provisions of this agreement will be resented, and offenders brought promptly to justice. The preservation of peace, the security to persons and property and the establishment and maintenance of government are indispensable to the welfare and happiness of the people. We, therefore, confidently invoke the aid and cooperation of the inhabitants in accomplishing these ends."

DISORDERS IN HAVANA.

Spanish Merchant Macheded For Refusing to Kiss the Cuban Flag. Havana, Dec. 27.—Francisco Quintero, a Spanish merchant, while walking along the main street yesterday, was fired at from the roof of a house and seriously wounded. During the last 24 hours one man has been killed and 12 have been wounded in affrays in different parts of the city and 11 burglaries have been committed. The city is in a state of unrest.

Yesterday a Cuban mob threatened to attack the residence of Marquis De Montoro, secretary of the treasury in the Automotist cabinet and a member of the Spanish evacuation commission. The house is on Narbonne street, in a part of the city already evacuated. On the matter being brought to the attention of the United States evacuation commissioners a guard of regulars was sent toward the residence until further orders.

Some disturbances having occurred in San Lazaro street, and a Spanish store there having been sacked by the Cubans, the United States commissioners have sent a staff officer, with a detachment of troops, to the scene of disorder. The Eighth and Tenth regular infantry regiments are encamped near the Hotel Trocha, the headquarters of the Americans at El Vedado.

A party of colored Cubans yesterday morning entered the wholesale grocery establishment at 112 San Jose street, owned by the Spanish firm of Mestro & Mata, and ordered Senor Mestro to kiss the Cuban flag and to cry "Viva Cuba Libre." He refused to obey, whereupon one of the Cubans cut his head badly with a machete.

The Spanish troops are evacuating the city so rapidly that it is almost impossible for the Americans to provide promptly for the preservation of peace. Rioting began at Monserrate last night. A battalion of Spanish troops hurried to Galiano street, the dividing line between Cuban and Spanish territory, and order was restored, but in the firing before the troops arrived an 8-year-old Cuban child was killed by a stray bullet.

Spanish territory in the new world is now limited to a narrow strip of land between Havana harbor and Galiano street. The flags of Cuba and the United States are waving within two blocks of La Prada, a great boulevard which runs through the center of Havana.

Excitement having been evacuated, the place was alive yesterday with Cubans and people from the United States. The scenes enacted at Cerro and Vedado last week and at Jesus Del Monte Sunday were repeated at Monserrate. There was even a greater demonstration, for Monserrate comes almost to the city, owing to the intense enthusiasm the populace insisted on kissing the "brave Americans," no matter whether they wanted to be kissed or not.
