SERIOUS RUNAWAY.

Sleighing.

George Davis, of Turkey Ron, his wife and son, William, and the son's wife, met with a serious accident yesterday afternoon while sleighing. They were homeward bound and on the way to fown, descending the road from the cometeries, when the driver lost control of the sleigh and it slid against the horses, who became alarmed and plunged, causing the sleigh to upoot.

All the occupants of the sleigh were throw upon heaps of rocks at the side of the road and sustained severe injuries. George Davis received a laceration of the scalp which resevere lucorations of the face and contusions of the face and breast, her son was also badly cut abbut the mce and both his eyes wer badly damaged. Mrs. William Davis was cut and bruised about the body, but less injured than the others. Dr. J. Pierce Enberts attended all the victims. The horses attached to the sleigh ran down the hill about forty yards, and then stopped of their own accord
