The injured are: Dr. Robert Blacks-ley, of Plymouth, Pa., fracture of vertebrae, caused by falling from third door window, will probably die; Henry Painter, Grapeville, Pa., small blood vessels of lungs ruptured by inhaling smoke, may recover; John L. Mills, proprietor of the hotel, face and body badly burned; Mies Mills, his daughter, cut by glass while breaking through window to escape; William Garretson, Clearfield, Pa., delegate to miners' national convention, painfully burned about the back and hips.

The fire originated on the second floor from an explosion of gas, and within a few monments the building was a mass of flames and blinding smoke The noise of the explosion awakened most of the guests, about 20 in number, and a frantic fight for life enmied.

Robert N. Thompson, of Kulaska, Mich., was the means of saving at least six lives. In the first moments after the explosion he rushed into the hall-way of the second floor and stumbted over the unconscious form of a woman whom he dragged into the reception room. Five others, three men and two women, who had been turned back from the stairway by the flames, were bricking and fighting for some exit. Thompson forced them all into the big and lacked the door. that it meant death to go into the hall he fought the desperate men back until the arrival of the firemen, when all
