THE LEHIGH WRECK!

ANOTHER RESIDENT OF TOWN THOUGHT TO BE AMONG THE KILLED.

Patrick O'Donnell, of Town, was One of the Passengers and is Missing—Mrs. Parrish, of Town, Was Killed.

It is with deep regret and sincere sympathy with the afflicted family that the report that Mrs. Charles Parrish, of West Centre street, was killed in the L. V. R. R. wreck in New Jersey, is confirmed. The two sons of the victim, Charles and Arthur, left town at noon yesterday to ascertain if their mother was one of the victims, their fears having been aroused by failure to hear anything from the unfortunate woman after she left town on Monday morning to visit her daughter at Jersey City.

The young man intended to go to Plainfield, N. J., but received intelligence en route that caused them to leave the train at Round Brook. They were met at that place by P. J. Ferguson, claim agent for the L. V. R. R., and an official of the company from Bethlehem, both of whom took the Messrs. Parrish in charge and escorted them to the Round Brook morgue, where the identification of Mrs. Parrish was made. The remains had been embalmed. The victim's head and face were badly contused, but the features were not disfigured. Arthur Ward, of Jersey City, son-in-law of the deceased, was also present at the identification.

Arthur Parrish left Round Brook with the remains at 8:15 last night and arrived here at 4:15 this morning. On the same train were the remains of seven of the Mt. Carmel and Shamokin victims. Mr. Parrish says there are still five unidentified victims at the Round Brook morgue.

Charles Parrish and Mr. Ward went to Jersey City from Round Brook and this afternoon they arrived in town, accompanied by the latter's wife.

Elizabeth Parrish, the deceased, was 54 years of age and is survived by her husband and the following children: Mrs. A. Ward, Jersey City; Mrs. William Alsop, Mt. Carmel; Charles, Maud, Arthur, Florence, Harriet and George, residing at home. The funeral will take place from the residence of Mrs. Parrish, 306 West Centre street, at 1:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Services will be held in the Primitive Methodist church and interment will be made in the Odd Fellows' cemetery. Mrs. Parrish was a member of the Women's Relief Corps, No. 59, of town. The special train which brought home the remains of Mrs. Elizabeth Parrish this morning had on board the remains of John Jarvis, Jacob Heller, Frank Ryleski and William Hinkle, of Mt. Carmel; W. C. Leader, Warren T. Merkel, H. E. Weikle, N. Weikle, George Joseph and Miss May Schminkey, of Shamokin. The same train carried the remains of A. S. Kistner, of Middleville, as far as Delano, from which point they were taken to their destination by a special train.

MAY BE O'DONNELL.
Patrick O'Donnell, of town, father of Edward O'Donnell, the local agent for C. D. Kaiser & Co., was among the passengers who left town on the second L. V. excursion train Monday morning. He was going to Newark, N. J., to visit a son. Nothing has been heard of him since and it is believed, from the published descriptions, that he is one of the unidentified men at the Round Brook morgue. Edward O'Donnell and Michael Dougherty leave for Round Brook this evening.

ELDERLY KILLED.
A despatch from Shamokin says that Miss May Schminkey, aged 17 years, and George Joseph, aged 18 years, both of that town and two of the victims killed in the wreck, were an eloping couple. They were on their way to New York to get married. Joseph died in the hospital at South Plainfield. Miss Schminkey was instantly killed, her head being terribly crushed. Joseph was a son of J. Joseph, a merchant of Shamokin, and grandson of Joseph Portner, of Mahanoe City. The remains of Joseph will arrive at the latter place on Friday morning, the funeral taking place from Mr. Portner's residence. High mass will be celebrated in St. Fidelis' German Catholic church.

Rev. John Harris, of Mt. Carmel, who was in the wreck and was sent home by special train to notify families of the victims at Mt. Carmel and Shamokin of the disaster, tells the following story: "I was seated in the first passenger coach, it being next to the engine, and besides myself, most of the Mt. Carmel people were seated therein. We had no warning of our danger until the whistle of our engine blew several shrill toots. Then all of a sudden a terrible crash occurred, and the tank and boiler, stripped of the cab, plowed its way through the car, which was crowded with human freight. It was a terrible sight and the shrieks of the dying and wounded will reverberate in my ears until death. All the passengers killed were struck by flying stones, and their heads mostly suffered the fatal wounds, while the injured sustained broken legs and other fractures, and injuries from seats driven by the awful force of the engine. The last man caught in the wreckage was Attorney L. S. Walter, of Mt. Carmel. He was two seats ahead of myself and pinned down. While in that position he heroically directed the saving of others. When extricated from his perilous position, Mr. Walter's left ankle was found to be broken and his right foot badly sprained. My escape was remarkable, the tank having stopped in its deplorable track two seats in front of the one I occupied. The force of the shock threw one dead body against me, and I was covered with blood.

J. A. Sullivan, who had charge of the running of the train on the Eastern & Anby Railroad yesterday, has been suspended. Sullivan was on duty when the fatal wreck at West Dunellon took place. As yet the investigation of the disaster has not been completed by the Lehigh Valley officials. Harry Butland, of Easton, the operator at South Plainfield, has also been suspended.

There are seventeen injured persons at the Plainfield hospital. Two are likely to die, Engineer Rick and a child named Parocca from Shamokin. If they die the fatalities will aggregate 18.

MAY BE UNDEAD.
It is now believed that the unidentified man in the morgue at Round Brook and described as wearing a brown suit of clothes and cuff buttons with the initials "J. J." upon them is J. J. Uaupis. The man referred to was a tailor employed in town by Matt. Walek. About two weeks ago Uaupis went to Minersville and opened a tailor shop. It is stated he left Potsville on Monday morning to make connection with the Lehigh Valley excursion. His friends at Minersville and this place have not heard from him since Monday.

WAYLAYING THE MINERS

Stopped on Highways and Robbed of Their Earnings.

TWO VICTIMS THIS MORNING!

Hold Up at the Muzzles of Revolvers by Three Unknown Men While on Their Way Home From Work—Sixty Dollars and a Watch Taken.

Recent experiences of miners on the roads and pathways between this town and the collieries in the Gilberton valley and Ellangowan district have brought vividly to mind recollections of the days of stage coach robberies, when men with drawn revolvers, in a matter of course sort of way, held up passengers and relieved them of their valuables with the same courtesy as circumstances would permit. The only difference between the old style of "hold ups" and the system now in vogue in this vicinity is that in the latter the highwaymen make no pretension to courtesy or delicacy of action. They enjoy the same freedom and meet with the same success as their western antecedents, and now have thus far fallen into the hands of the law.

The latest case reported was a robbery near Turkey Run, between 12 and 1 o'clock this morning. The victims were Stacey Gellinski and Joe Karnick, Lithuanian residents of town. They were on their way home after a night shift at the Boston Run colliery. Before entering upon the shift each man drew his semi-monthly pay of $30 and they carried the money in their pockets when homeward bound. They followed a foot path which crosses the mountain near Turkey Run and had just passed over the summit when three unknown men having the appearance of tramps, suddenly confronted them. Two of the strangers drew revolvers and thrust the muzzle close to the faces of their victims, at the same time demanding their money. The two miners offered no resistance and the third stranger proceeded to rifle their pockets. He secured the sixty dollars, and also a silver watch belonging to Gellinski. After the robbery the miners were ordered to proceed on their way, which they did. They say they do not know which direction the robbers took. Threats caused them to hurry homeward and not become inquisitive about the movements of the others.

Gellinski and Karnick made complaint to Chief Burgess, who ordered an arrest, and the official promised to do what he could for them, but it is believed it will require systematic work to break up the gang which has so successfully operated on hardworking men whose movements are closely watched on pay days.

SUITS FOR TAXES.

Steps Taken to Enforce Collections on the Schuylkill Duplicates.
M. M. Burke, Esq., yesterday entered four suits to recover taxes due under the 1885 and 1886 duplicate assessments. The claims vary from $100 to over $200, and one is for $284.23. Mr. Burke has only been furnished with a partial list of delinquents and the aggregate of that list is $7,205.08. The lawyer states that all the claims are for taxes due on real estate and, while regretting being obliged to annoy or distress the parties, the duty will be vigorously performed. There is no alternative under existing circumstances. No doubt is entertained about any of the claims being collectable.

Seeking a Settlement.
John A. Johann, of Philadelphia, representing the Schuylkill Traction Company, was in Ashland yesterday and held a conference with a number of business men of that town. The subject under discussion was the existing difficulties between the company and the Town Council, and an effort was made to effect a compromise. What success Johann's efforts met with is not known.

Fell Under a Train.
Clayton, the sixteen-year-old son of Cleaver M. Tiley, of Frackville, was killed in a unfortunate accident on the P. & E. railroad at St. Clair. He and another young lad of about his own age boarded a coal train at Frackville in the evening, and rode to St. Clair. In attempting to jump on another train to make the return trip his foot slipped and he fell beneath the wheels which passed over his right leg, mauling it so badly that it had to be amputated six inches below the knee. He is a very bright boy, and a skilled telegraph operator, and is employed in the office at the head of the Frackville grade.

Quite a number of people in this section of the county are shareholders in the New York Saving Fund, which, it is rumored, has gone the way of the Girard Saving Fund, of Girardville, and the Safe Deposit Fund, of Reading. Special to EVENING HERALD.
Washington, Jan. 11.—The Peace Treaty was acted upon favorably to-day by the Committee on Foreign Relations, when they unanimously reported it back to the Senate with a favorable report, for immediate consideration. The members of the Peace Commission have been at work among their colleagues in the Senate, and there is now no doubt of its ratification, and the debate will be curtailed. There are facts connected with the treaty which are still unknown to the world at large, all of which will be fully explained when the treaty is before the Senate. Many interesting developments will be brought out during the consideration of the treaty in executive session of which the general public is now in ignorance.

KILLED BY A DUMPER.

A Fatal Accident at the North Mahanoe Colliery This Morning.

Frank Wertz, aged 49 years, was instantly killed at the North Mahanoe colliery, Mahanoe City, this morning by being struck by a runaway dumper. A loaded dumper was being hoisted up the dirt plane, and was half way up when the larney jumped the track and swung clear, allowing the dumper to rush back to the bottom, where it struck Wertz. The man was hurled a considerable distance and his head was crushed. Wertz left a wife and seven children. He was a well known and highly respected man. A few months ago he gave up work as blacksmith at the colliery and moved to Reading, but recently returned and went on the chain gang at the colliery.

The Haupt Sale.
The public sale of the estate of the late William Haupt took place at Frackville yesterday. The horses sold readily and brought good prices. The farming implements were purchased by J. J. Kebler. The proceeds of the sale netted in the neighborhood of $3,000. The farm outside of Frackville was not sold as expected, but will be held by the heirs and rented for cultivation.

UNITED MINE WORKERS IN SESSION

The Constitution Compells the President to Devote His Time and Attention to the Interests of the Union Exclusively.

Pittsburg, Jan. 11.—The bitter wrangle over the appointment of the credentials committee, which occupied the entire session of the national convention of United Mine Workers on Monday, was renewed yesterday. Charges of unfairness were freely made by the anti-administration factions, and these accusations were promptly denied by President Hatchford. Acting President Mitchell and Secretary-Treasurer Pearce.

President McIbryde, of the Ohio district, and President Doan, of the Pittsburgh district, announced the withdrawal of candidates for office from those districts. In order, as Mr. Doan declared, to "leave a clean field to the book holders." T. L. Lewis, of Ohio, who had been looked upon as a candidate, alleged that the national officers had used their influence in favor of certain candidates for office and that the funds of the miners had been used for electioneering purposes. He said that he would make these charges in writing and was prepared to prove all his allegations.

Acting President Mitchell said the charges were made without proofs, and denied that the organization has been used in his behalf. The charges, he said, were untrue. President Ryan, of Illinois, caused some excitement by offering to donate $100 to the organization if the charges were proved. After adjournment the Ohio delegation held a conference and decided to contest the right of President Hatchford to hold office, on the ground that he is a member of the national industrial commission and cannot therefore comply with the constitution, which requires the president to devote his time and attention to the interests of the Union.

SHARKEY DEFEATS M'COY.

Fitzsimmons Must Now Concede the Claims of the Sailor Pugilist.
New York, Jan. 11.—Tom Sharkey, the American sailor, stands the only heavyweight possibility for championship honors and the title now held by Bob Fitzsimmons. He whipped Kid McCoy good and hard in the tenth round of what was to have been a 20 round battle, and by doing so the Irish-American pugilist forged his way so positively and undeniably to the front rank that Fitzsimmons must now consider the sailor pugilist's claim without delay.

Sharkey last night was a revelation to those who saw him a couple of years ago. His ring work and generalship are so vastly superior to his exhibitions when he first came to the east as a fighter that the improvement is almost incredible. Great bunches of muscle, with unlimited confidence and a cool head, are the qualifications which have enabled Sharkey to fight his way to the front.

McCoy used every artifice known to the advanced school of pugilism in last night's contest, and his defeat must not be attributed to any lack of close study on his part of every trick in the boxing game. Many of his friends feel that he ought to have gone up against smaller game than Sharkey.

When McCoy went Sharkey twice to the floor in the third round, no one doubted the Irishman's ability to hit hard, and many thought that he had Sharkey at his mercy. This idea was soon dispelled when the Irishman began to get to his man.

Guffey Urges Jenks' Candidacy.
Philadelphia, Jan. 11.—National Democratic Committeeman J. N. Guffey last night withdrew his name as a candidate for the caucus nomination for United States senator in favor of George A. Jenks, the recent Democratic candidate for governor. Mr. Guffey stated that in his opinion Mr. Jenks was the choice of Democrats generally, and he would favor his nomination.

Archbishop Ireland's Visit to Rome.
London, Jan. 11.—The Rome correspondent of The Daily Telegraph says: "Archbishop Ireland is coming to Rome to explain his conduct during the Hispano-American war. The influence he was supposed to possess with President McKinley led the Vatican to take certain steps, which proved abortive, to the great chagrin of the pope."
