THE borough election is one of much importance to the taxpayers and they should see to it that good from Pon-volls Republicamen are noshinated for the various offices. The way to do this is to attend the party primaries, and not allow the nominations to go by default. If incompetent men secure these nominations, the people themselves sal are to blame.

WR hear people assert occasionally that if there was a contagious disease in their house and the local authorities placed a placard on the building, they would tear it down. B. F. The recommendation was endorsed by Judge Bechtel, who heartily favors a law granting to grand juries greater power in the matter of placing the costs upon the parties who instigate these petty prosecutions, greater power in the matter of placwhich are generally of such a trivial character that they should never have been returned to court.

The sessions of the criminal courts in this county bears out the statement that there are people who are in court year after year; who bring prosecutions for assault and battery merely for the fees that fall to their coffers as witnesses and for free transportation. Many Justices offer the plea, and perhaps justly so, that they cannot prohibit these cases going to court under the present statutes of criminal law. If that is true the recommendation of the grand jury, presented to court last week, would certainly prove effective. Our law makers could stop the inroads made on the county treasury by the enactment of a law, giving the grand juries greater power in the disposition of the costs in the matter of from one end of the year to the other.

IS OUR LIBERTY A SHAM?

Penneylvania is the Keystone State. It is considered to be the great pillar of American liberty, but don't fool yourself in believing it to be such, as it is not. I will explain. I do a little restring sometimes and in prefacing one of my recitations I use the sentence, 'the liberty which we siloy today. After I had finished a young miner approached me and said: 'My friend, I amafter coming from a place where there is not that liberty you boast of, and which you say was so dearly purchased. I am a miner and worked at Reaver Meadow. I had eight days' wages for my Christmas pay. Beture I got my pay a company store clerk culled at my boarding house and said to the boarding mistress that he wanted an order from me, so that some of my wages would be taken out of the store. The woman replied that he would have to see me which he did as I came out of the mine. told him that I wanted nothing, and hat after paying my board I was badly n need of the few dollars left for Christmas and the holldays. He insisted that had to take something, so I decided me tell you, they went, to bleese imder ten days. I had to do this to keep my job I had to buy whether I wanted anything or not, and I had to buy in het stars and no other. Now, tell me, is concluded, "where is your boasted berty that we enjoy roday."

Now this incident occurred just before hristmas, after the liberty to be Cubans from their Spanish tyrants what feats we man and fover, after all he hullabloo about giving liberty to be Cubans from their Spanish tyrants what feats we man and fover, after all he hullable about their Spanish tyrants what feats we man and fover, after all he hullabloo about giving liberty to be Cubans from their Spanish tyrants what feats we man and fover, after all he hullabloo about giving liberty to be Cubans from their Spanish tyrants. WHO STRUCK BEN CUMMING?

Admiral Dewey's Sword of Honor. Washington, Jan. 11.-The sword of honor voted to Rear Admiral George Dewey by joint resolution of congress in June last was received at the navy department yesterday from the makers Tiffany & Co. of New York. It is said to be one of the finest specimens of the swordmaker's art ever seen in this country. With the exception of the steel blade and the body metal of the scabbard the weapon is composed entirely of 22 karat gold. It is probable that the sword will remain in the possession of the navy department and be on exhibition in a glass case until Admiral Daws returns to this country and takes personn! charge of it.

HIS ATTACKS ON THE COURT.

Evidently Belleving That the Judges Favor Dreyfus, He is inflaming Pub-He Opinion by Newspaper Attacks Which Jeopardize the Republic,

Paris, Jan. 11.-The Dreyfus affair has now entered upon one of its bit-terest chapters. Accusations, vituperations and threats are raging in the cales and among the scores of boulevard sheets, many of which have found their sole reason for existence months past in the unhappy strife they

as the most dangerous factor to the in- pain across my loins and a great deal of head-It is regarded by impartial observers stitutions of the republic the affair has sache. The kidney secretions were not yet developed that the president of the normal and every movement I made, such as chambers of the court of cassation stooping, hending forward, or attempting to should assume the role of a leader of lift anything caused sharp twieges to pass agitation against the tribunal declar-through me which held me motionless for a lng that 16 of his colleagues are conspiring to defeat the ends of justice. The method he employs, of appealing to the populace through the newspapers, in the eyes of the most conservative, store. The first box did me so much good I aggravates his course by its lack of got another, but I did not have to use half dignity. It is evident that he, believe of the second box, before the whole trouble ing that the court of cassation will decide in favor of Dreyfus, intends to Since I took Doan's Kidney Pills there have divest the decision of all weight by impeaching its fairness in advance, and seems likely to succeed, so far as the hitherto respected the court, but are now only easer to find excuses for discrediting it, are concerned.

The opinion is gaining ground that other, in this man, M. Quesnay de Beaure-paire, a leader, the lack of which has hitherto been the chief guarantee of the ontinuance of the present regime.

M. Beaurepaire today contributes to the papers another rhetorical denunciation of the court of cassation. He exhorts the government to take the Dreyand during the winter season, a third, the fus case from the hands of the criminal Florida Limited, is added. If you are going chamber and to entrust II to the 49 magistrates composing the whole court or to five of the oldest justices. He appeals to the Dreyfusards: "Repudiate M. Loew and the others who serve you too well not to serve you badly. Ac cept instead magistrates without conceived opinions, men who are honest and slaves of the law."

The gist of M. Beaurepaire's charge is that M. Bard and M. Loew conferred with Colonel Picquart privately in an anteroom, and also instructed the clerk of the court to express to him the ourt's regret at having kept him waiting and being unable to hear him that District Passenger Agent, 828 Chestnut street, day, which the clerk refused to do, re-Philadelphia, Pa., he will arrange all the questing a messenger to take Colonel lequart a glass of wine.

The Marin asserts that when General Billot (former minister of war) was before the court drink was offered him also. To such triffes has the strife descended. The papers heatedly affirm and deny the statement as to Billot who has been appealed to settle the matter, but the refuses to speak.
It is believed that only 15 judges in the whole court have Dreyfus leanings so that the hearing thus far is said to be to the ad antage of the anti-Drey fusurds. The discussion of the affair in the chamber of deputies elicited the usual cries of "Vive l'armee" and "A bas Dreyfus."
