NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA

To Gain Flesh, to Sleep Well, to Know What Appetite and Good Digestion Mean.

MAKE A TEST OF STUART'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS.

No trouble is more common or more misunderstood than nervous dyspepsia. People having it think their nerves are to blame and are surprised that they are not cured by nerve medicines. The real seat of the mischief is lost sight of. The stomach is the organ to be looked after.

Nervous dyspeptics often do not have any pain whatever in the stomach, nor perhaps any of the usual symptoms of stomach weakness. Nervous dyspepsia shows itself not in the stomach so much as in nearly every organ. In some cases the heart palpitates and is irregular; in others the kidneys are affected; in others the bowels are constipated, with headaches; still others are troubled with loss of flesh and appetite with accumulations of gas, sour risings and heartburn.

It is safe to say that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure any stomach weakness or disease except cancer of the stomach. They cure sour stomach, gas, loss of flesh and appetite, sleeplessness, palpitation, heartburn, constipation and headache.

"Some weeks ago my brother heard me say something about indigestion, and taking a box from his pocket said "Try Stuart's Tablets." I did, and was promptly relieved. Then I investigated the nature of the tablets and became satisfied that they were made of just the right things and in just the right proportions to aid in the assimilation of food. I heartily endorse them in all respects, and I keep them constantly on hand."

GENERAL WOOD ARRIVES

The Commander at Santiago Was Summoned to Washington.

HE DENIES ALARMING REPORTS.

Citizens of Santiago Made No Demonstrations Against the Order Transferring Customs Receipts to Havana. A Statement by General Castillo.

New York, Jan. 11.—The United States transport Mississippi, which sailed from Santiago on the evening of Jan. 4, arrived yesterday. On board the transport were General Leonard Wood, military governor of Santiago, and Lieutenant Hanna, aide-de-camp; Dr. Castillo, a brother of the Cuban General Castillo, and Colonel Gibson, who superintended the distribution of provisions to the starving Cubans.

General Wood said his visit here was in response to a telegram from the secretary of war received on the day he left Santiago, seven days ago. What was required of him by the government was only conjectural. "At the time he left Santiago everything was quiet and the affairs of the province and city in the best condition. General Brooke had assumed command only two days before, and the transfer of the customs revenues from Santiago to Havana was therefore new, so he had very little information about the question, and that little would not be proper for him to mention till he had conferred with the government.

The customs receipts received at Santiago every month from the various parts of the province were about $70,000. Under Spanish rule all the customs receipts from the whole island went to Havana. The general would not make any comment on the changed situation, but it was manifest that he thought the receipts should continue to go to Santiago to make provision for public works and sanitation. By order of the government the operation of General Wood's order for centralizing the customs receipts of the Island of Cuba at Havana has been suspended for the present, till the government fixes a plan for their distribution, apparently depending much on General Wood's visit, though he would not say so.

When shown the dispatch stating that General Brooke had expressed astonishment that General Wood had permitted a demonstration at Santiago against the order concentrating customs at Havana he declared that if such a dispatch had been sent by General Brooke to Washington General Brooke was laboring under a mistake. No such demonstration occurred, the people having been perfectly quiet about the matter, and the only thing of public character was a gathering led by the mayor and chief men of the city, attended by a band, to express good will toward him on his departure.

Dr. Joaquin Castillo, who was a passenger on the Mississippi and accompanying General Wood, is bound to Washington as representative of the Santiago board of trade, and the business community generally in the customs matter. Dr. Castillo was a general in the Cuban army and served during the first year of the Cuban insurrection, but from that time was associated with the Cuban junta in New York under General Palma, and directed a number of filibustering expeditions. He is now a practicing physician, and is the head of the Santiago hospital.

Dr. Castillo said that as against the monthly customs receipts at present in Santiago formerly there were about $30,000, or less than half, though the present tariff is mostly under the third class, while the Spanish tariff rigidly stuck to the high charges under the first class. No more imports were received now, maybe not so much, but all imports now paid their share of the duty, instead of a great part being smuggled and stolen, as formerly. In addition to the customs revenue about $500,000 yearly is realized from the municipal taxes at Santiago. These revenues are now all being directed to public improvements. There are a thousand men now employed building roads and in other public works.

DECIDED AGAINST QUAY.

The Senator Must Stand Trial in the Philadelphia Court.

PETITIONERS MUST PAY COSTS.

The Supreme Court Declares Itself Satisfied That the Petitioners Can Have a Fair and Impartial Trial in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Jan. 11.—The supreme court yesterday dismissed the petition of the defendants in the Quay conspiracy case and the case will now go back to the court of quarter sessions for trial in the regular course of procedure.

The petition had been filed on behalf of United States Senator Quay, his son Richard R. Quay, and former State Treasurer Benjamin J. Haywood, who asked for a writ of certiorari to remove the case to the higher tribunal on the grounds that political prejudices would prevent them from getting a fair trial in the county court.

Chief Justice Sterrett handed down the opinion. He merely announced that the rule was discharged and the petition dismissed at the cost of petitioners. The chief justice filed an opinion, concurred in by the entire court, but this was placed on record without public reading.

Briefly stated, the court declares itself satisfied that the petitioners can and will have a fair and impartial trial in this county.

The announcement of the decision created a profound sensation in political circles and there is much speculation as to its effect on the selection of a United States senator, for which the state legislature will begin balloting next Tuesday. Senator Quay left town for Washington yesterday afternoon without having expressed any opinion concerning the case. He did say, however, that he would be in Harrisburg tonight. The legislature will reconvene tomorrow.

District Attorney Rothermel said that the trial will go on in the regular course of business, but he was not prepared to say when it will be heard. Although Former District Attorney Graham, who instituted the proceedings while in office, was engaged by his successor, Mr. Rothermel, as special attorney to conduct the case before the suprem court, it is not known whether Mr. Graham will handle the case when it is resumed in the quarter sessions.

The charges against the defendants is conspiracy with John S. Hopkins, cashier of the People's bank, who committed suicide when the bank failed last March, to misuse state funds on deposit there. They were arrested last October, and after a preliminary hearing entered bail for trial. The date fixed for trial has several times been postponed. Senator Quay and his co-defendants have persistently alleged that the prosecution is actuated by political enmities, the aim of which is to defeat his re-election to the United States senate.

SAGASTA STILL IN POWER.

He Announces That There Will Be No Cabinet Crisis.

Madrid, Jan. 11.—The premier, Senor Sagasta, had an hour's audience with the queen regent yesterday and afterwards announced that there was no cabinet crisis, that he would not submit a vote of confidence, and that he believed the present ministry would present itself to parliament.

Senor Sagasta's statement has caused much excitement in political circles, where it had been believed that a cabinet crisis was inevitable. It is not yet clear whether the crisis is merely deferred until after the next cabinet meeting or whether Senor Sagasta has succeeded in inducing certain colleagues to reconsider their resignations.

Several Dissident Conservatives, including the Duke of Teutan, minister of foreign affairs in the Canovas cabinet, and Tomas Castellanos, former minister of the colonies, have apparently decided to join Senor Sagasta. Other members of the party have attached themselves to Senor Silvela, so that the Dissident Conservative party, as an organization, may be considered dissolved.

Smith For Expansion.

Philadelphia, Jan. 11.—Postmaster General Smith addressed the Contemporary club last night on "The Future of American Foreign Politics." His speech was an eloquent endorsement of the expansion policy. He argued that this country has precisely the same right to acquire islands in the Pacific that belongs to every other nation, and that in doing so we do not trespass upon any other's province or transgress any just rule of conduct. The Monroe doctrine is not affected, declared the speaker, adding: "Nothing could be more illogical than to say that our flag should not remain in the Philippines because their people are unfitted to come under American control, and then to say that we ought not to undertake to control them because they are entitled to self government."

Mr. Dingley's Condition.

Washington, Jan. 11.—No material change was reported in the condition of Representative Dingley yesterday. He has been a trifle more comfortable, and there has been a very slight abatement of the nervousness which was so severe Monday. About the best that can be said is that he is not appreciably worse. At midnight one of his sons made the following statement: "Mr. Dingley is holding his own and resting quietly. Pulse good. Doctors expressed themselves more hopeful."

Russell Sage's Appeal Sustained.

Albany, Jan. 11.—The court of appeals yesterday reversed the judgment of $45,000 secured by William R. Laidlaw, Jr., against Russell Sage, and ordered a new trial. Laidlaw was in Sage's office at the time of Norcross' attempt on Mr. Sage's life, and he secured the judgment on the ground that Sage had used him as a shield.

AMBASSADOR TO RUSSIA.

Charlemagne Tower For St. Petersburg and A. C. Harris For Vienna.

Washington, Jan. 11.—The list of nominations sent to the senate by the president yesterday includes the following: Charlemagne Tower, of Pennsylvania, now minister to Austria-Hungary, to be ambassador to Russia; Addison C. Harris, of Indiana, to be minister to Austria-Hungary. There were president yesterday include the following appointments in the volunteer infantry.

Mr. Tower is a wealthy gentleman of Philadelphia, is about 50 years old, and given to literary pursuits. He has never taken any active interest in politics, and never was known as an "organization" man in any way. He has written a history of Lafayette and some essays. His appointment as minister to Austria, when made at the beginning of the present administration, was not made upon the request of the senators from Pennsylvania, and his selection was something of a surprise to them.

Mr. Harris, who goes as minister to Austria, is a resident of Indianapolis, and one of the foremost of the bar of the state. Mr. Harris has given comparatively little attention to politics. He has never held office except to serve for one term as a member of the state senate. He was one of the Republican candidates for presidential elector during the campaign of 1896, and was at one time a candidate for congress against Mr. Bynum. Mr. Harris is about 53 years of age. He is married, but has no children.

Ex-Congressman Russell Dead.

Boston, Jan. 11.—Former Congressman William A. Russell died yesterday from an attack of apoplexy at his home in this city, aged 67. He was a member of the Forty-sixth and Forty-seventh congresses from the Seventh Massachusetts district.

Senator Lodge Re-elected.

Boston, Jan. 11.—Hon. Henry Cabot Lodge was unanimously re-elected United States senator by the Massachusetts legislature in joint convention yesterday. The choice was made by acclamation.

Mrs. Alfred Clarke, of Hitewan, Manor Co., Iowa, has been the mother of four children. Now she says:

"I am about to become a mother again, and I have been troubled with morning sickness and vomiting. I could not eat any breakfast; but two days ago I began taking your 'Favorite Prescription' twice a day, a teaspoonful at a time and I am pleased to say that I have not had a vomiting spell for two mornings."

The "Favorite Prescription" relieves morning sickness and the other discomforts of the period preceding motherhood by purifying the whole system and by strengthening and invigorating the special organs involved. Morning sickness is due to the efforts of nature to remove from the body every bit of impurity which might offset the health of the little one to come. The direct cause of the nausea is an irritation of the nerves of the feminine organism, which have a sympathetic connection with the nerves of the stomach.

The "Favorite Prescription" goes directly to the seat of the trouble, soothes the ruffled nerves and brings comfort at once. It is a safe medicine to take. It contains no alcohol, opium or other dangerous drug. It contains no sugar or syrup. It aids the digestion and is a general system tonic, while it acts directly and strongly on the one special set of organs.

DISFIGURED FOR LIFE

Our little girl's humor commenced with a tiny sore on one nostril, but it kept on spreading till we thought she would never get it cured. We tried everything we could get, but it kept getting larger all the time, till both nostrils, the upper lip, a part of the lower lip, and up one side to the eye, were a solid sore. We thought there was no cure, and that she would be disfigured for life. Finally we tried CUTICURA REMEDIES. We used CUTICURA RESOLVENT and nearly a box of CUTICURA (ointment), and in a short time she was entirely well, with no scar or trace of the humor.
