QUIET AT MANILA.

General Otis Cables to Washington That Natives Are Retreating.

Special to EVENING HERALD.

Washington, Jan. 12.—News from Manila yesterday was of a most discouraging nature, indicating that the situation of affairs in the Philippines was most grave. The rebels were reported as concentrating in the neighborhood of Manila with the intention of attacking that place.

The situation to-day, however, shows a change for the better. General Otis cables the department to-day that the condition at Manila is improving, and that the city is quiet. Many of the natives are returning and no trouble is apprehended from that source. This was gratifying news to the President and members of the Cabinet.

JENKS THE NOMINEE.

He is the Democratic Caucus Candidate For United States Senator.

Special to EVENING HERALD.

Harrisburg, Jan. 12.—The Democratic members of the Legislature met in caucus here this morning, in the Supreme Court room, for the purpose of selecting a candidate for United States Senator, to succeed M. S. Quay. There was a large attendance.

GEORGE A. JENKS.

There were two candidates for the empty honor. Ex-Lieutenant Governor Chauncey Black was supported by Judge Gordon, while Hon. George A. Jenks, who was the Democratic candidate for Governor last fall, was brought forward by Colonel Guffy, State Chairman Garman and the silver wing of the party. Mr. Jenks received the nomination and will be voted for by the Democrats in the Legislature.

All the Democratic members of the Legislature from Schuylkill county were present and supported Jenks, with the exception of Senator Higgins, who is confined to the hospital.

The anti-caucus Republicans, who are opposed to Senator Quay, held a secret conference this morning, but will give out nothing for publication. They say they have gained in numbers since their last caucus.

VICTIM OF THE WRECK

Body of Patrick O'Donnell Identified and Brought Here.

ALL VICTIMS ACCOUNTED FOR!

Mr. Uaupis Was a Passenger on the Ill-Fated Train But Escaped Injury and Returned Last Night—Funeral of Mrs. Parrish Took Place To-day.

The sorrow occasioned by the announcement that Mrs. Parrish, of town, was one of the victims killed in the L. V. R. R. wreck on Monday was renewed last night by a telegram from Bonon Brook, N. J., stating that one of the heretofore unidentified victims in the morgue at that place had been positively identified as Patrick O'Donnell, an aged and highly respected resident of this town. The remains were brought here to-day by a son of the victim, Edward O'Donnell, and Michael Dougherty. They were taken to the former's home on West Oak street. The funeral will take place on Saturday and the remains will be interred at Port Carbon.

The deceased was about 50 years old. For many years he resided on the old homestead at Palo Alto and about two years ago came to town and made his home with his son, Edward. His wife died about ten years ago and was buried at Port Carbon. When he met his death Mr. O'Donnell was on his way to Jersey City to visit his son, Daniel, who is employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company in that city. The old gentleman was in excellent health and spirits when he left town Monday morning and looked forward to an enjoyable trip. Mr. O'Donnell was a passenger in the first car of the Shamokin train in the wreck and occupied a seat near Mrs. Parrish. He died from a crush. He was not mutilated, nor were his features distorted.

Messrs. O'Donnell and Dougherty say that there are no more unidentified remains at the Bonon Brook morgue.

At 1:30 o'clock this afternoon the funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Parrish, the other town victim of the wreck, took place from the family residence on West Centre street. The attendance was very large and included the members of the Women's Relief Corps No. 59, Department of Pennsylvania, who were present in a body. The deceased was a member of the organization. The remains were taken to the Primitive Methodist church, on South Jervis street, where services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. James Moore. Interment was made in the Odd Fellows' cemetery. The pall bearers were Messrs. Marshall Baugh, Fred. Roberts, Edward Cooper, John Hoskins, William Collins and John Pooler. J. P. Williams & Son were the funeral directors.

The remains of Mrs. Parasta Diczky, the woman who was killed in the wreck while journeying to New York City after a visit to her brother in town, were brought here last night by the brother and George Wretik. The funeral will take place to-morrow from his home on South White street.

J. J. Tappis, who was supposed to be one of the unidentified victims at Bonon Brook, returned to town last night with the rest of the excursionists. Uaupis was in the third car of the wrecked train and escaped injury. He did not think of telegraphing to his friends here, or at Minersville, and continued his journey to New York City.

Hooks & Brown, the stationers, to-day received by mail a copy of a package, the rest of which was posted the firm's business label. It was sent by W. B. Toney, of West View, N. J., who wrote that he found it at the wreck, in the car in which the passengers were killed, and that the box to which it belonged contained a luncheon. The cover was valued at $100 and he thought it might be of value to some one in making an identification. As all passengers have been accounted for the relic is of no value now for that purpose.

CRIMINAL COURT CLOSES.

All Jurors Were Discharged To-day and Court Closed.

Pottsville, Jan. 12.—The January term of criminal court closed to-day, all the jurors being discharged at noon, with the exception of those engaged in the case of Ella Lewis, of Tamaqua, charged with violating the liquor laws. That jury retired at noon to-day and was still out at 4 o'clock.

The trial of the case against Edward and Richard Scott and Joseph Stevenson, charged with assault and battery and interfering with Officer Whelan of Pottsville, closed this evening and this morning the jury rendered their verdict. Stevenson was acquitted and the two Scotts were found guilty of interfering with an officer, but not guilty as to the charge of assault and battery. They have not been sentenced.

Judge Marx heard a dog case in which John Bond, of Ringtown, was the defendant, and John Longenecker, of Brandonville, prosecutor. The jury acquitted Bond and placed the costs on the county. It was a trivial case, but the costs amounted to $101.58.

Enoch Galena, of Lost Creek, was convicted before Judge Lyons of selling liquor without license on each of Magie Barnes, parrot, and he was sentenced to pay a fine of $500 and the costs and serve eight months' imprisonment.

W. A. Straub, who was convicted of embezzlement in 1897, was brought into court upon a capias, and was sentenced to pay $25 fine and the costs, and serve three months' imprisonment.

Frank Heckwin, of Shenandoah, was acquitted before Judge Lyons of assault and battery upon John Mudry, but he and the prosecutor were directed to pay the costs.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup stops that tickling in the throat. This reliable remedy allays at once irritations of the throat, sore throat, hoarseness and other bronchial affections.

Important to Justices.

Controller Muldoon has decided to set apart Tuesday and Wednesday after each Criminal Court to set upon all dismissed cases by Justice. This is done to facilitate matters, for during the criminal court the office is too busy to give them proper attention.

The Soldiers' Monument.

A meeting of the Shenandoah Soldiers' Monument Committee will be held at Refewich's hall at 8 o'clock to-morrow night, to elect officers and take final action on the question of site.

Farewell Party.

A farewell party will be tendered Dennis Conroy, a member of Co. G, 21st Infantry, this evening in Robbins' opera house. The public generally is invited.

GREAT ASSIGNEE SALE.

Wait! Wait! Wait! Until Next Saturday at 10:00 a. m.

The creditors of Abe Refewich, of South Bethlehem, have appointed L. Refewich as their assignee and the immense stock has been shipped to this town, and Mr. Refewich has instructions to dispose of the same at such prices as they will bring. The money realized from this sale will be divided equally among the creditors.

This magnificent stock includes all the newest and most fashionable styles in overcoats, all colors; fine blue and black dress suits, chevots, tweeds in all styles and colors. A tremendous assortment of boys' and children's suits, also a complete line of hats of just the latest styles in fur, felt and straw, and gent's furnishing goods. All will be sacrificed at prices regardless of cost. It will pay you to take advantage of this sale, as all other sales are nothing in comparison. We expect a perfect jam and have engaged an extra force of salesmen to wait on you.

Don't forget the date, Saturday at 10 a. m., Refewich's Old Stand, 12 South Main St., Shenandoah.

Attraction at Kaiser's.

The Little Irene Myers Company, which made such a pronounced hit here a short time ago, and which has just finished a most successful week in Pottsville, will be at Kaiser's opera house all next week. There was perhaps never a company visited the coal regions, which has become more popular than this one, and it is safe to say that the enormous business of both this city and Pottsville will be repeated next week in Mahanoy City. "The Silver King," which has been supplied with elaborate new scenery since seen here, will be given Monday evening.

Candidate for High Constable.

Candidates for High Constable are becoming numerous, the latest announcement being that of J. J. McGuire, of the Fourth ward, whose card appears in another column. Mr. McGuire has been a resident of Shenandoah for thirty-five years, and has never before sought political preferment, although he has always been a staunch party worker. Mr. McGuire has been incapacitated for work for the past five years, and his friends feel that he is entitled to the recognition he seeks.

Shareholders' Meeting.

The Mahanoy City and Delano shareholders in the defunct Reading savings and building association met at the former place last night and formed an organization, electing F. R. Wagner president and John W. Parker secretary. The following committee was appointed to attend a meeting of the Shenandoah organization at the house of John Mielarski to-night: J. W. Parker, Evan Jenkens and Charles Dunn. The purpose is to devise means to recover the invested money.

Falls of Coal.

Michael Snyder, of Poplar street, had his head severely cut by a fall of coal at the Ellingwagner colliery, while at work last night.

Anthony Walindecavage, a miner at the Ellingwagner colliery, had his back and ankle badly injured by a fall of coal to-day. Dr. W. N. Stein attended both victims.

Grand Hop.

Doyle Wants Secretary.

John E. Doyle, of Cass town, will be a candidate for County Secretary of the Democratic organization on Saturday next at Pottsville. Doyle's pen and tongue are both warm members in politics, and if he be elected Secretary he will give the Republican committee lots of trouble. It would be a victory for the Republican party of this county if the Democrats defeat Doyle next Saturday.

Toes Out Of.

William Lynch, a laborer at the Shenandoah City colliery, had two middle toes of his left foot cut off this afternoon by a fall of coal. He was removed to his home on North West street in an ambulance.

The latter is said to be in line for promotion.

FIGHT FOR SENATOR!

Quay and Anti-Quay Forces Again Gather at Harrisburg.

A DEADLOCK NOT IMPROBABLE.

Some Legislators Predict That a Senator From Pennsylvania Will Not Be Chosen Until After the Quay-Haywood Trial in Philadelphia.

Harrisburg, Jan. 12.—The selection of a successor to Matthew Stanley Quay in the United States senate has created almost as much contention among the Democrats in the legislature as it has in the Republican ranks. With the Democracy the question is whether George A. Jenks, of Brookville, or Chauncey F. Black, of York, shall be the nominee of the caucus. With the Republicans it is the field against Senator Quay, with neither faction certain as to the outcome. The Republicans have a majority of 74 on joint ballot, and the only way the Democrats hope to win is by a split among the Republicans.

Senator Quay has a majority of votes to start with in his own party, but so long as the anti-Quay legislators stand together he cannot be re-elected. While the Democrats are divided on the selection of a candidate to be voted for against Quay they agree that the senator will not poll any Democratic votes. The senate and house will vote separately next Tuesday, and jointly the following day. Many of the legislators are predicting that there will be a deadlock, and that a senator will not be elected until after the trial of the Quay-Haywood conspiracy cases in the Philadelphia courts.

A new and interesting phase is placed on the election of a senator by the general agreement among the leaders that the man receiving a majority of the votes cast in the joint session of the legislature will be the next senator. On joint ballot there are 254 votes. A majority of these would be 128, therefore only 65 votes are necessary to a choice, assuming that only 128 or a bare majority, are present. Of the 169 Republicans who voted in the caucus last week 98 named Senator Quay as their choice. At that time it was agreed that the action of the caucus was binding upon all of those present, and that Senator Quay still lacked 19 of the 128 necessary to elect. Under the condition as it really exists if a number of members are absent from sickness or other cause when the joint ballot is cast it is possible that a much smaller number than 128 will decide the senatorship.

It is stated that a secret conference has been held between the leaders of the Quay faction and certain Democratic leaders with a view of preventing fusion on the senatorship between the Democrats and the anti-Quay Republicans. The Democrats who took part in the conference will, it is said, endeavor to hold the 84 Democratic members of the legislature in line for a straightout Democrat, thus defeating the selection of an anti-Quay Republican.

Senator Quay reached Harrisburg at midnight from Washington to take personal direction of his campaign. Senator Penrose came with him, and during their stay they will be guests at the residence of County Chairman Weis. Senator William Flinn, of Allegheny, chairman of the 53 Republican senators and members who refused to take part in any senatorial caucus until Senator Quay has been acquitted of the conspiracy charges, and Secretary of the Commonwealth David Martin, of Philadelphia, are directing the movements of the opposition.

Ex-Postmaster General John Wanamaker and a committee from the Business Men's League are also on the ground fighting Senator Quay. They reached the city yesterday from Philadelphia and were joined during the day by Congressman John Dainoff, of Pittsburgh; Charles W. Stone, of Warren, and other prominent anti-Quay leaders.

The legislature organized ten days ago, but neither body will settle down to business until the senatorial fight is ended. The standing committees have not yet been appointed, and until they are no new legislation will be presented. Mr. Quay's friends control the senate committees of the senate and house, and the senator's followers will be given the cream of the appointments.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Republican state committee held last evening an address was adopted calling upon the Republican members of the two houses to stand by the action of the senatorial caucus in naming Colonel Quay as the party's candidate. In the address the opposition of Hon. John Wanamaker in Colonel Stone's candidacy for the governorship is vigorously denounced.
