NAVAL PERSONNEL BILL.

An Amendment Will Be Offered to . Abolish Prize Money.

WHO IS THE HERO OF SANTIAGO?

ongressman Berry, of Kentucky, Evokes Enthusiasm in Claiming the Honor For Admiral Schley, to Whom He Pays Poetle Tribute.

Washington, Jan. 14.—The house yesterday entered upon the consideration of the naval personnel bill. It developed much less opposition than was anit will have a large majority when it is placed upon its passage. The last yealige of opposition to the measure from the line officers of the navy was remov ed when an amendment was adopted designed to prohibit staff efficers, upon whom the bill confers positive rank, from exercising command save in their own corps. The committee also asserted their purpose to offer an amendment to repeal the law giving prize money to the navy, and this announcement met with warm approval. The speeches on the bill yesterday were filled with glowing allusions to the glories of our naval victories in the late war, and Mr. Berry, of Kentucky, created a great deal of enthusiasm by his eulogy of Schley as the hero of Santiago. Mr. Berry made the first allusion on the floor of the house to the mooted question as to who was responsible for the victory over Cervera's fleet. He said:

discomforts and dangers of our Northern discomforts and dangers of our Northern "I believe the bill will remove con-winter are directing attention to the sunny filet, and if there is any country where there is a necessity for the removal of conflict in the army or the navy it is the United States. I think we had a magnificent phase of the conflict in the army service of the United States pre-sented in the papers today, and whether some conflict among the officers in the navy in the greatest battle of the war. the greatest battle of modern times, because it demonstrates the character of the men and the vessels that were engaged in it, and there is no doubt in the mind of the American people who is entitled to the credit of that victory. But there are people who are trying to steal away from Schley the credit of the glorious triumph he won on the 3d day of July, 1898."

In this connection Mr. Berry read the following poem, amid a whirlwind of laughter and applause:

When the Spanish fleet, with full headway.
Dashed out of Santiago bay.
Taking the chances of death and wreck,
Who stood on a Yankos quarterdeck
And marked the game with eagle eye:
Say, was it Sampson, or was it Schley?

Who was it, when shot and screaming shell
Turned Sabbath calm into echoing hell,
Steamed into the thickest of the fray,
His good ship leading all the way,
While the roar of his guns shook the
earth and sky;
Say, was it Sampson, or was it Schley%

In American hearts who holds first place

Of those who claim part in that glorious chase? Whose name stood out on that proud day.
As the hero of Santiago bay?
In letters of gold, write that name on high; all we write it Sampson, or write it Schiey?

"I say it would be written Schley." continued Mr. Berry, "and then I say car line via the scenic route, we will operate a weekly teurist car via "The True Southern Route," leaving Chicago every Tuesday and from St. Louis every Friday morning. GENERAL MILES' VIEW,

He Thinks the Commission Should Have Silenced General Eagan, Washington, Jan. 14.-General Miles, discussing the promise of the president that witnesses testifying before the war commission would not be interfered with, said that there might be some question as to the di-viding line between testimony and personal abuse; that in his opinion any court of justice, or, for that matter, a police court, would have stopped a witness who had used before it such language as was used before the war commission. General Miles said:

"I did not want to appear before the When they wrote me suggesting that I voluntarily appear before them I replied that I believed it to be for the best interests of the service for me not to volunteer any testimony. When I was ordered before the commission, and they asked me concerning certain facts that I then had in my possession I was obliged as a matter of honests to answer them, and produced official complaints to me as my best reply. Even then I did not tell them all the facts which I had discovered by my own investigation."

General Eagan consented to be interviewed last night. He said: "A terrible charge was brought against me I was accused of poleoning soldiers under the protense of experiment. If it had not been for that charge might not have spoken before the com mission as I did. Let those that criti-cize my language be placed in the position in which I was placed; let then be charged as I was charged, and then will understand my language bette It is the gored bull that feels the pain Bucklen's Arnica saive.
