NATURE'S CURE

Comrades, Attention.
I served from '81 to '91, and was wounded on May 10, 1864, in the battle of the Wilderness. I would like to have my old comrades know what Celery King has done for me. In 1890 my old complaint, chronic diarrhoea, came back. The doctors could not stop it, but Celery King has cured me, and I am once more enjoying life.—FRANK BOEHLER, Owens, Mich. (Co. F, 4th N. Y. V. L.).
Celery King cures diseases of the Nerves, Stomach, Liver and Kidneys. Sold by druggists, 25 and 50c.

FIGHTING IN SAMOA.

Forces of King Mafetao Defeated by Mataafa.

BRITONS PROTECT FOREIGNERS.

In the Battle the Casualties Numbered Seventy-three—Alleged Violations of the Treaty by the German Consul Discarded in Washington.

Auckland, N. Z., Jan. 19.—Samoaan advice just received here says that Chief Justice Chambers, on Dec. 31, declared Mafetao Tanua to have been elected king in succession to the late King Mafetao. The chief justice also announced that Tamasae had been elected vice king. Chief Mataafa was disqualified.

The consuls of the United States and Great Britain and the German and German warship Porpoise met the German consul, who refused to recognize Mafetao Tanua, and declined to co-operate in the dispersal of the Samoans, who thereupon assembled in large numbers and formed themselves into a militia, surrounded the municipality. Mafetao Tanua and Tamasae mustered about 2,000 men, well armed, but supplied with defective ammunition. The British and American consuls endeavored to avert hostilities, but they commenced on Jan. 1, Mafetao Tanua and Tamasae fought bravely, but 500 of their followers were captured. Then, disheartened and outnumbered, the two chiefs sought refuge on the British warship and their followers sought protection under the guns of the Porpoise. Mataafa's loss was 40 killed and wounded, and Mafetao Tanua lost 12 men killed and wounded.

The foreign residents were placed under the protection of a detachment of men belonging to the British ship, and Chief Justice Chambers and his family went on board the Porpoise. The fact that Mataafa looted and burned Apla, destroyed the plantations and pillaged considerably in the country. The consuls later, however, decided to recognize Mataafa and his chiefs as a provisional government, pending the receipt of instructions from the powers. Afterward Dr. Rafael and the German consul closed the supreme court, declaring that the power was vested in them. The British and American consuls then appealed to the captain of the British warship Porpoise, who landed a detachment of British and Chief Chambers, under their guard, took his seat.

Mataafa held aloof from these late developments. The excitement continues. An enterprising Druggist. There are few men more wide awake and enterprising than A. Wasley, who spares no pains to secure the best of everything in their line for their many customers. They now have the valuable agency of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. This is the wonderful remedy that is producing such a furor all over the country by its many startling cures. It absolutely cures Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all affections of the Throat, Chest and Lungs. Call at above drug store and get a trial bottle free or a regular size for 50 cents and $1.00. Guaranteed to cure or price refunded.

DISCREDITED IN WASHINGTON.
Alleged Acts of German Consul Would Be a Treaty Violation.
Washington, Jan. 19.—The situation in the Samoan islands is realized here to be full of gravity. For some time past there has been an exchange of correspondence between the three governments party to the treaty of Berlin respecting the choice of a successor to the late King Mafetao, and some friction developed owing to the strict adherence of the United States government to the terms of that treaty. The statements in the dispatches from Apla are not regarded here as conclusive for the reason that they are in conflict with the provisions of the treaty. It is reported, Raffel, the president of the municipal council at Apla, and the German Consul, Ross, seized the supreme court and pronounced themselves practically dictators. It is said here they have violated the treaty absolutely.

The chief justice, under the treaty, is made the court of last resort under any circumstances, and moreover the treaty provides distinctly that in case of any dispute between the natives themselves or between the foreigners in Samoa, that dispute shall be referred to the chief justice, and his decision shall be final. Therefore it is scarcely believed here that the president of the council would thus deliberately violate the main treaty provision.

The report that the three consuls have joined in a provisional recognition of Mataafa could not be reconciled with the open disagreement with the terms of the treaty as to the choice of a king that such action would involve, the character being, as already stated, solely lodged in the hand of the chief justice, who, by the way, is in this case an American.

GEN. EGAN'S JUDGES.

The Court Martial Selected to Try General Miles' Traitor.

COURT TO MEET NEXT WEDNESDAY

Or as Soon Thereafter as Practicable. Four Major Generals, Five Brigadier Generals, Four Colonels and a Lieutenant Colonel Compose the Court.

Washington, Jan. 19.—The detail for the court martial which is to try Com-missary General G. P. Egan on charges growing out of his statement before the war investigating commission last week, in which he severely attacked General Miles, was made public at the war department last night. The court is made up of 13 army officers, of whom Major General Wesley Merritt is at the head, and a judge advocate, and it is to meet in this city on Wednesday next, or as soon thereafter as practicable, this qualification being necessary because a number of the members are at distant points and will require some days to adjust their affairs and reach this city. All the officers composing the court save one are from the regular army, a number of whom, however, during the war accepted volunteer rank and still hold those commissions. Major General Butler is the only one who is not connected with the regular army.

The members of the court are Major Generals Wesley Merritt, James F. Wade, Matthew C. Butler and Samuel B. M. Young, Brigadier Generals Royal T. Frank, Alexander C. McW. Pennington, George M. Randall, Jacob Kline and Richard Combs, Colonels Peter C. Haines, George D. Gillespie, Charles H. Sater and Francis L. Guenther and Lieutenant Colonel George B. Davis, deputy judge advocate general, judge advocate of the court.

General Corbin stated that the order for the appointment of the court martial would be directed to General Egan today. This it is expected will be done by an officer or an employee of the adjutant general's office. Its receipt and acknowledgment by the commissary general will be tantamount to the relief of that officer from his present duties and he will turn over its affairs either to some one designated to act by the secretary of war or to the other next in charge in the department. Lieutenant Colonel George B. Davis, of the commissary department, is now on duty with General Egan, and it may be that he will be detailed to take charge of the court martial.

If the course indicated by an officer of the adjutant general's office last night is followed the probability is that General Egan will not be placed under actual arrest and deprived of any of his liberties pending and during the trial, but will be subject only to constructive and technical arrest during that time. In the case of officers of high rank this is occasionally, but not often done, and this course does not in any way invalidate the trial or findings of the court. General Egan will be expected to remain away from his office and make himself inconspicuous until his appearance before the court to answer the charges, when he will be placed under constructive arrest, to remain so during its proceedings.

This is believed to be the sufficient carrying out of the law for all practical purposes and may be allowed in the case of an officer of the general rank who has borne a good reputation. Were the defendant a younger officer of an obnoxious character and in the field with his regiment, the usual course of placing him under arrest and detaining him of his sword would not be followed. While the above is believed to be a general outline of Secretary Alger's idea of what should be done, yet no positive statement to that effect has been made, and it may be subject to change.

WARRANTS FOR RHODES.

The Philadelphia Builder Who Victimized His Friends.

Philadelphia, Jan. 19.—Fifteen warrants for the arrest of William Rhodes, the builder who disappeared six days ago, leaving $50,000 to $100,000 debts behind, are said to have been issued. Three of these, according to the information given, were at the instance of women, Rhodes made a specialty of victimizing women. It is said, and strange stories are told of his power with his eyes in gaining the confidence of those from whom he sought money, the tales conveying the idea that the man exercised a hypnotic power. Rhodes is also charged with taking advantage of the feminine passion for bargains by offering fake mortgages at a discount, he deducting $200 for cash on a $1,000 mortgage.

The man's downfall is ascribed to stock gambling, and an inordinate passion to be regarded as extremely rich. He talked and acted on a Napoleon scale, and made many people believe that he was one of the wealthiest and most successful men in the city. Accounts differ as to Rhodes' integrity up to the time of his failure in business. Some of his acquaintances say that he was all right until two years ago, meeting all his obligations and conducting his affairs by a businesslike style. Others declare that Rhodes has always been somewhat "off" in his transactions. The majority of Rhodes' victims are old friends and intimates.

Two Colored Boys Assassinated.

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 19.—George Call and John Shaw, both colored, and who bore a bad reputation in the community, were shot and killed by unknown persons at Lynchburg Tuesday night. Both had served terms in the penitentiary for robbery and had been whipped by whitecaps and run out of town, but returned. Each was about 18 years old.

"It was almost a miracle. Burdock Blood Bitters cured me of a terrible breaking out all over the body. I am very grateful." Miss Julia Filbridge, West Cornwall, Conn.

To Teach Cubans Humanity.

Santiago de Cuba, Jan. 19.—A conspicuous feature of life in Cuba is cruelty to domestic animals. It is quite impossible to walk the streets of this city without seeing numerous cases of brutality that ought to be prosecuted. Mrs. Edward Wood, with other ladies, is now organizing a branch of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

"Cure the cough and save the life." Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup cures cough and colds, and also the very verge of consumption.

MERCIER AND DREYFUS.

Ex-War Minister Still Strongly Insists on the Prisoner's Guilt.

Paris, Jan. 19.—The Revue publishes another interview with General Mercier, who was minister of war at the time of the condemnation of Dreyfus. General Mercier reiterates his former statements and reiterates that the borderline was "certainly the work of Dreyfus and not of Esterhazy, who was not aware of its existence until long subsequent to the trial."

Under the plea of professional secrecy he declined to explain how the war office obtained the borderline. The secret dossier, he said, consisted of war ministry documents fully proving the inferences deduced from the borderline. The suggestion that it contained letters from a foreign agent is characterized as "a pure invention," as was also, he declared, the statement that M. Casimir Perier resigned the presidency of the republic on account of the Dreyfus affair.

Regarding the motives that prompted Dreyfus' removal from his position, General Mercier said:

"Dreyfus was too fond of the society of women of a certain class. Had it not been for his reputation in this respect he would have left the military college among the first three of his class, owing to his known immorality, proclivities he was placed eleventh. I think he resented this, and that his treason was probably an act of revenge for it."

Major Comte Ferdinand Walsin Esterhazy arrived last evening from Bordeaux to testify before the court of cassation in the Dreyfus revision inquiry. Several newspaper men met him at the railway station, but he declined to be interviewed.

Chairman Dingley's Successor.

Washington, Jan. 19.—There is no doubt that the chairmanship of the ways and means committee, made vacant by the death of Mr. Dingley, will be filled by Speaker Reed at the present session, without waiting for the next congress, and that the new chairman will be Representative S. E. Payne of New York. The appointment is likely to be announced within the next few days. Mr. Payne entered congress 15 years ago, and he served continuously with the exception of the Fifteenth congress.

Deadly Battle With a Murderer.

Knoxville, Tenn., Jan. 19.—Joel and Charles Necessary, William Freeman and Samuel Duncan, of Scott county, Va., were the victims of a shooting affray Tuesday night in the mountains of that county. The necessary brothers died yesterday. William Freeman is fatally shot and Duncan is seriously injured. The four victims were trying to arrest an alleged murderer named William Plannery. The latter's friends came to his assistance and he escaped. Plannery is said to have killed one of the Harford gang.

Women Wrecks. Every once in a while the newspapers tell of some once beautiful woman who has been consigned to an asylum because of physical weakness drove her to seek temporary relief in the alcoholic mixtures that are found on many drug stores and in the public toilet tables.

The story is an old, but even now a woman finds herself suffering from weakness, nervousness, despondency and irritability. She cannot divine the cause, and her family physician seems equally at loss. A friend who suffers in the same way tells her that a few drops of Coleridge, brandy, ale, beer, "malt-extracts" or other stimulants will give temporary relief. And that is the beginning that ends in a madhouse. The woman who suffers from the symptoms described may safely infer that there exists disease of at least weakness of the delicate organs that constitute her favorite Prescription, which contains no alcohol or other stimulant to inebriate will promptly put things straight, and give strength in a womanly way.
