THE gossips have it that Senator Gorman's intense opposition to the peace treaty means that the Eastern Democrats who hope to prevent the nomination of Bryan for President in 1900 will centre upon the Maryland statesman as the man to knock out the Nebraskan, even if they do not succeed in placing the latter at the head of the ticket. Dick Croker, the boss of Tammany Hall, keeps having himself interviewed on the subject of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 as a dead issue. Most politicians of the Democratic faith seem to think that Croker is fayorable to Gorman, and that Croker is vain enough to think that he can command power enough to nominate him:

For the past few days rumors have been flying thick and fast that there will soon be another change in the President's Cabinet. The gossip is to that within six weeks Secretary Alger will step down. Some of his friends state that he long since wearied of the filter of the fire of charges to the effect that upon his shoulders rested almost entirely the responsibility for whatever miamanagement there was in the conduct of the War Investigating Commission will be made public. Spanish Monarchy Firmly Established and Carlos Has No Show. London, Jan. 31.—The Madrid correspondent of The Times, in a letter reewing the situation in Spain, says:

The prospects of Carlism is waning The Carlisis themselves complain that Don Carlos allowed a great opportunity to slip when six weeks ago, the country was filled with dismay and indignation at the price of defeat. He might have had a hope of success then, but now the enthusiasm of even his ardent admirers is chilly, and the general opinion is that he has little chance, the subject is being dropped, the people realizing that salvation is not to be had that way. This result is not due to the suppression of Carlist propa-ganda. On the contrary, the govern-

Restricted Diet Is the Main Cure of All the Benlth Resorts.

"Of the many cures in vogue and recog nized from their records as worthy the name nine-tenths of them depend upon re-lucing the diet for their effectiveness," is the position taken by Eila Morris Kretschmar writing on "The Subject of Diet" in The Woman's Home Companion.

"A widespread fad during the last few years has been the 'no breakfast cure,' and housands of dyspeptics have gained health, the stout have grown thin and the thin have grown stout, all through lifting the burden from overtaxed digestions. An qually popular cure preceding this was tablet lie leaving off of the evening meal—equally effective, of course, just as a 'no mid-day meal cure' would be if it should be promulgated.

One of the most splendid cures for all ills in Europe is the grape cure, practiced in Germany, and it is said that any one taking the treatment drops off the wear and tear of five years—actually renews himself by so much. The sanitariums where this treatment is given are beautifully and healthfully situated and comfortably appointed. The patient is given nothing but unformented grape jules for a period of four weeks—beginning with a generous amount, decreased to a minimum allowance (as little as the system will bear without great weakening) and grad-ually increased to the first amount

"At all European spas and American springs, where people are so benefited, what is the course! A restricted diet and a flooding of the system with pure water -resting and washing the system, in oth-
