It will interest every-body and, according to the originator, is backed by millions of dollars. Next Sunday's Press will have a number of delightful exclusive features. A celebrated broker tells on how to make money in stocks; "Karl" will tell about the moon hour back of the mint; there will be something about the lifting of plants that will amaze you; Frank G. Carpenter tells of a 1,300-mile ride Into the very heart of South America, where he went for The Sunday Press; Anne Ritten-house will have one of her delightful fashion articles, which are bringing letters of in-quiry and praise from almost every state in he union; the last of Andree's balloon shed will be shown in photograph, and there will be a dozen or more other features, including that comic history of Spain and a very funny page by the celebrated M. Quad. Be sure to order next Sunday's Press to-day.

It is understood that he is to vices as mediator between this country and the Filipinos. His present mission, he says, is purely neutral. Speaking of the present condition of affairs in the Philippines Consul Andre said that should the Americans and Filipinos clash the loss to the Americans would be great-not so much, however, from bullets, but from the sickness which would follow an active > damage before being subdued. He did not look for any serious disagreement "The Filipinos," he said, "do not un-derstand their position. As soon as they can be made to realize that the United States will not make rash promises then so soon will the Filipinos wel-come the protection of this country, but until that time arrives there wil always be some signs of discontent As soon as the natives realize that they can make money and live comfortably then they will cease fighting The recent proclamation of the presi dent did much to relieve the anxiety of the people, and the recent conferences between the American commis-sioners and Filipinos' representatives will result in much good."
