Prevent Pneumonia

Prevention is always better than cure, even when cure is possible, but so many times pneumonia is not cured that prevention becomes the natural act of that instinct of self-preservation which is "the first law of nature." Pneumonia can be prevented and is often cured by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

"Some years ago I had a severe cold and was threatened with pneumonia. I could neither eat nor sleep, and was in a wretched condition. I procured a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and took it according to the directions, and at the end of fifteen days as well as sound as before the attack. I have recommended it in many cases of pneumonia since, and have never known it to fail in effecting a cure."

JOHN HENRY, St. Joseph, La.
"I was attacked with a cold that settled on my lungs, and defied the skill of my physicians so that they considered me incurable. At last I began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and was entirely cured after having taken two bottles."

FRANCISCO A. SEVERIANO,
Tarrant, Mass.

TO MOVE ON ILOILO.

The Philippine natives are, like all half savage people, governed in their own aggression by nothing but a fear of being whipped by the enemy, and they cannot understand any forbearance on the part of an opponent except on the theory that he is afraid of them. We have had the same thing for 30 years in our own Indian wars. The British have had the same thing in India and Africa, and so have all the Caucasian races wherever they have had to deal with half civilized peoples. We lost more men and killed more Indians in the west through the mild, temporizing and supposedly humane policy of successive administration than we would have lost in a few sharp, sound thrashings administered in successive allopahthic doses just to show the untutored savage that we meant business, and would whip him first and treat him right afterward.

It is understood that the campaign against the Philippine insurgents is to be prosecuted with vigor. The question was fully discussed at yesterday's cabinet meeting, and it is expected that General Otis, in co-operation with Admiral Dewey, will push forward at once and give the insurgents no chance to recover from the defeat of last Sunday. Iloilo is to be occupied at once by the American naval forces, and it is expected that General Otis will move immediately to Malolos, the insurgent capital, and capture or disperse the so-called Filipino government.

MAHANAY'S BURGESS.

A Large Deficit in His Accounts is Alleged.

At a meeting of the Mahanoy City Borough Council last night it was reported that Chief Burgess' accounts had been audited and that this, with the amount withheld from his salary, balanced his accounts with the borough. Councilman Wm. E. Jones protested that the payment did not balance the account and said that, according to figures taken from books of the Burgess of the Kaiter opera house, a deficiency of $208.50 was shown; that the Burgess had paid $130.75, one month's salary amounting to $50 had been withheld, and the last pay of $100.25, made a total credit of $281, leaving a balance due the borough of $327.50. Council appointed a committee to examine the transactions of the Burgess' office. A committee appointed to investigate the charges of malfeasance in office against the street committee of the Council, made by Councilman Wertman, presented a report exonerating the accused.

REMARKABLE ESCAPE.

Bridal Party in a Sleigh Struck by a Train.

A bridal party had a remarkable escape from death at the Lehigh street crossing of the Lehigh Valley Railroad at 6:45 o'clock last night. The party was starting out for a pleasure trip in a sleigh of William Menka-wicz. The other members of the party were Peter Altus and his bride, Charles and Susan Skonkiewicz and Miss Mary Bierstein. It is stated by the driver that the horses attached to the sleigh seemed to become paralyzed with fear upon the approach of a passenger train and refused to leave the crossing. The engineer of the train tried to stop it, but the distance was too short and the engine struck between the horses and the sleigh. All the occupants were hurled from the sleigh, but not one was seriously injured. The sleigh was wrecked. As the engine struck it released the horses, and they dashed past the Lehigh Valley station and down Centre street as fast as their legs could carry them. They were stopped and it was found that a hind leg of one of the animals was fractured. The animal was afterwards shot to relieve its suffering.

Altus, the bridegroom, received bruises about the legs and his clothing was ruined. Markiewicz, the driver, was the most seriously injured. He received a gash on each side of the head and complains of pains in his back and left leg.

The Socialist Labor Party Tardy With Its Nominations.

The Socialist Labor Party of town yesterday (Tuesday) twenty Commissioners' office nomination papers containing the names of nominees for all the borough and ward offices to be filled at the approaching spring election. The papers should have been filed on Monday. An official of the County Commissioners' office stated today that, as the law distinctly requires that nomination papers must be filed at least 15 days before the date of election, it is not likely that the nominations will be printed on the official ballot.

New Telephone Line.

It is stated on reliable authority that the Anthracite Telephone Company, of Hazleton, whose main line runs between McAdoo and Freeland, will consolidate with the other local lines in Schuylkill, Luzerne and adjacent counties, and will extend its wires to Tamaqua, Mahanoy City, Shenandoah, Pottsville and the other towns in these counties. It is dollars to doughnuts that the company does not secure the right of way through Pottsville. The Town Council of that place refused a similar franchise to opposition to the Bell Company before. It is hoped, however, that the new line will succeed, as the rates at present are exorbitant.

Huckster Ordinance Inoperative.

About a year ago the Town Council of Pottsville adopted an ordinance placing a license upon farmers and others who peddled their wares through the streets within the limits of that borough. At the meeting of the Council last night the Solicitor submitted an opinion declaring the huckster ordinance inoperative, a bill having been passed by the Legislature several years ago declaring such measures unconstitutional. The fines collected will be returned upon demand, together with the costs.

Marriages.

The Church of the Annunciation, on West Cherry street, was the scene of two pretty wedding ceremonies today. The first took place at 11 a. m. and the contracting parties were P. W. Bell, son of Water Superintendent James Bell, and Miss Maggie Loftus, Rev. H. E. O'Reilly, the pastor of the church, officiated at the ceremony. Miss Annie Burke was the bridesmaid and Thomas Conville the groomsmen. As the couples marched to the altar Miss Kathryn Maloy played Mendelssohn's wedding march. The bride was attired in a beautiful suit of brown broad cloth finished with a pale blue corded trim with lace to match. The bridesmaid wore a rich maroon colored broad cloth trimmed in white tulle and a large black picture hat. The bridegroom and groomsmen were attired in conventional black. The wedding was a quiet one, only the immediate friends being present. A reception followed at the residence of the bride's parents, 205 West Oak street. The bride couple left town on the 3:10 p. m. P. & E. train for Washington, D. C., where a week will be spent, and the contracting parties will take up a residence at 205 West Oak street. The contracting parties are both very popular, and a large circle of friends join in wishing them much happiness.

The second ceremony took place at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The principals were M. J. Hauley and Miss Gertrude Merrick. Rev. H. E. O'Reilly officiated. The bridesmaid was Miss Lillie Merrick, a sister of the bride, and Edward Hauley, brother of the bridegroom, was the groomsmen.

A fashionable wedding took place at St. Nicholas church, Mahanoy City, this morning. The contracting parties were Thomas B. Broshman, of Schuylkill Haven, who is yard master for the P. & R. C. & I. Co., at that place, and Miss Mary A. Carley, of Mahanoy City. Miss B. Fallis, of Hazleton, was the maid of honor, and Mr. J. Brennan, of Branchdale, was the best man. BISHOP TALBOT'S VISIT.

The Reverend Gentleman Confirms a Large Class.

Ashland, Feb. 8.—The Rt. Reverend Eberhart Talbot, bishop of this diocese, conducted services at Girardville last evening, in the Lutheran church, the edifice having been placed at the disposal of the Episcopalians of that place. The attendance was large, and the Bishop expressed himself as being highly pleased with the reception tendered him.

This morning the Bishop arrived in this town, and at 10 a. m. the Litany was said in St. John's Memorial church. This evening confirmation services will be conducted in the same church, and the Bishop will deliver one of his eloquent sermons. Tomorrow morning Holy Communion will be celebrated. Thursday evening services will be conducted at Centralia, in the Holy Trinity church, at which the Bishop will preside.

THE STORM.

Today's Continued Snow Fall and Drifts Paralyze Business.

The blizzard which prevailed all day has proved disastrous to the traveling public and business is paralyzed. The streets kept persons from the stores and few teamsters ventured out. The Schuylkill Traction and Lakeside railway companies, in the words of a current song, "were up against the real thing" and couldn't get their cars over the lines. Even the steam railroads found no little difficulty in maintaining operations and all trains were a half hour or more behind schedule time. A Lehigh Valley train running from Mahanoy City to town ran through a drift of snow eight feet high in a cut. The engineer said he seemed to be cut off entirely from the world when he passed through the drift. Unless there is an early abatement in the storm the town will stand a good chance of becoming snow bound. The full effects of the storm can only be realized by those who have traveled through the suburbs. There the drifts are assuming large proportions.

GENERAL EAGAN SUSPENDED.

But He Will Collect Pay Regularly, and Be Paid in 1905.

Washington, Feb. 8.—The president yesterday caused to be promulgated the sentence in the case of General Charles P. Eagan. The court martial sentence was dismissal from the army, and the president has commuted this to six years' suspension from duty. In commencing the sentence the president extols General Eagan's "gallant conduct in battle and his long and honorable record of service," and declares there were mitigating circumstances developed during the trial of the case. He stated by way of explanation that General Eagan's suspension carries him to within a few days of his retirement under the age limit. He will be reinstated in time to retire with the regular rank and pay provided in such cases.

The sentence of suspension, according to the legal officers of the department, does not deprive General Eagan of any part of his pay, but as the sentence reads "without rank and duty" he loses his allowances, which include commutation of quarters, rations and fuel and his horse allowance. This is quite a large financial item.

Back Broken in Trolley Crash.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Feb. 8.—A runaway trolley car dashed into a freight train on the Central Railroad of New Jersey yesterday, but fortunately only one passenger was seriously injured. As the trolley was coming down a steep grade toward the railroad track the brakes refused to work, on account of the ice on the rails. The motorman succeeded in slacking the speed to a slight extent, but he could not get the trolley under control, and it crashed into the coal train with great force. Richard Vaughan, aged 20 years, had his back broken, and several of the passengers were slightly injured.

Quay's Trial Again Postponed.

Philadelphia, Feb. 8.—The Quay trial was yesterday postponed until Feb. 27, one week later than the time announced by District Attorney Rothermel. The announcement of the change of date and the reasons for it was made by Judge Bellier. Feb. 21 is election day and Feb. 22 Washington's birthday, and the judge says it would be unwise to confine the jurors on those days.

Sudden Death of Bishop Williams.

Middletown, Conn., Feb. 8.—Right Rev. John Williams, D. D., LL. D., ranking bishop of the Episcopal church in America, died at the Episcopal residence in this city last night, aged 81 years. His death was sudden and unexpected. He had been attacked with the grip in a mild form about a week ago, but no fatal result was apprehended.
