A Rind Healer's Fee,

Some years ago a young friend of mine went to a mind healer for a lark. There was nothing in the world the matter with him, but he pretended to be the victim of terrible headaches. The wonderful healer asked no questions as to the cause of the silment. He did not care about that, for atthent the did not care about that, for he had one panaces which sufficed for ev-ery iii. Said he to the young investigator. "Go home, and whenever the headache comes on sit down quietly and put your whole mind on it, thinking with all your might that you have not got a headache Then you will not have it and will be

"That's easy," said my young friend. "What is your fee?" "Five dollars."

A Perverted Sentiment.

Some one once wrote a sentimental song about the "light in the window for me," Who is the ideal Bohemian? An authority on men's clothing gives the cold truth is that when there is a light in the window it means some one is string too long and his collar too low. Mr. Orchardson is pronounced traproachable, while soing to bed earlier. A light in the window is pronounced traproachable, while soing to bed earlier. A light in the window is something that a nagged person never fails to see, and when his eyes first see it in turning a corner he gets a cold see it in turni and ever since that time the "light in the window" has figured in poetry and song see it in turning a corner he gets a cold chill and longs for a home in a boarding house. The "light in the window" sentiment is badly overdone. - Atchison Globe

Recently an eminent physician gave ut-terance to the opinion that appendicitis is more common in this country than in others because of the Yankee custom that men have—and men are more frequently sufferers from the disease than women—of habitually sitting with one leg thrown over the other. This habit, the physician was quoted as axing satisfact the property was quoted as saying, restricts the action prevent it though. Dr. Wood's Norway l'ine of the digestive apparatus, and especially Swrup cures coughs, coids, bronchitis, sore of the lower intestine and causes stagns. tion of the contents and the stretching of the opening of the vermiform appendix, making it possible for obstructions to reach the latter and thus giving rise to appendicitis.

There is no other disease, if we may judge from the attention given to it by current publications, in which the general public takes so much interest as in this one, which is comparatively new to med-ical practice. Probably much of the popu-lar interest is due to the fact that only within a few years what may be called the literature of appendicitis has reached the reading community.—Leslie's Weekly.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an in-flamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be aken out and this tube restored to its norms dition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh which is nothing but an inflamed condition o

The Smart Verger. The church possessed a valuable Bible, which was only used on Sundays, says a writer in The Cornhill Magazine, speaking of an English country parish. During the week it was kept in a box which rather curiously formed the stand upon which the reader of the lessons stood. On one occasion, when this was being shown to a visitor, the remark was made that it did not seem very reverent for even a clergy-man to tread upon the Bible. "Pardon me," the old verger replied. "In this church, sir, we take our stand upon the

FROST FOR THE BOLTERS.

While the Regulars Are Enthustastically Endorsed by Great Crowds, the Films-Martin Klekers Find Empty Benches and Get a Cold Reception.

Philadelphia, Feb. 14.-More striking and significant evidence of the sentiand significant evidence of the senti-ment of the people on the United States senatorial issue now before the citizens of Pennsylvania could not be given than was exhibited at two public meetings held in this city on the same night cisco News Letter. last week. A meeting of stalwart Republicans in a single legislative distriet was attended by more people, who enthusiastically declared in favor of the nomines of the Republican cancus, Hon. Matthew Stanley Quay, than were Quay." One was a spirited and hearty. expression of loyalty to party principle and candidates coming from a large and earnest body of Republicans; the other was a chilling frost, with more than half of the seats in the building fervor manifested by the audience. STALWARTS DECLARE THEM-SELVES. In ringing terms the voters of the Pirst representative district at a meeting at Reinstine's hall, Seventh and Dickinson streets, pledged their allegiance to Senator Quay. There were present over 1,000 citizens of the two wards which comprise this district. and the following resolution was passed unanimously amid the wildest enthu-

"The Republican voters of the First representative district, comprising the First and Thirty-ninth wards, in mass strike meeting assembled, herewith earnestly and emphatically protest against the course of those members of the legislature of Pennsylvania who, although elected as Republicans, have thus far falled to abide by the decision of the Republican caucus and support the unanimous nominee of over two-thirds of the Republican members of the general assembly of Pennsylvania for United States senator, Hon. Matthew Stanley Quay.

"Party precedent has declared since the organization of the Republican party that the will of the majority shall rule. The Republican caucus nominee, the Hon. Matthew Stanley Quay, by his masterly strategic ability, as chairman of the Republican national committee, led the party to victory, and as a member of the United States senate has realously and successfully labored for the welfare of the great industrial and commercial interests of the state.

"We heartly approve and commend the action of our representatives, Hon. George A. Vare, in the senate, and Hon. Charles H. Selby and Hon. Joseph Mac-Iver, in the house of representatives, and all the other members of the legislature who have loyally and consistenty supported and voted for Hon, Matthew Stanley Quay for United States enator, and we respectfully and earnestly urge upon all Republicans in the general assembly of Pennsylvania who have the welfare of their party and ountry at heart to do likewise." The significance of this action lies in ously and not as an aftermath of pro-Quay speeches. No sooner did Chair-man Vare read the title of the resolution than every one in the large hall broke forth into enthusiastic cheers. which were kept up until the measure was adopted.

The meeting was afterward ad-dressed by Samuel H. Ashbridge and John L. Kinsey, the Republican candidates for mayor and city solicitor, respectively.

The Wanamaker political bureau managed the anti-Quay meeting. They had big advertisements in all the newspapers subsidized by the immense Wanamaker advertising patronage. were distributed from the business ofrisburg to carry the speakers to address the meeting. The principal speaker was William Flinn, a state senator from Pittsburg, who is also a highway contractor, who has made an immense fortune by his control of councils and manipulation of contracts and oppor-tunities to get "on the ground floor" rule. This eminent gentleman, as the star speaker at the "great reform" demonstration, was too much for the respectable people of Philadelphia. known. In addition to our weekly tourist has had for years. You ought to go and go They declined to be a party to this sort of a political game. Flinn, who is leading the fight against Senator Quay at Harrisburg, has a personal grievance against the senior senator, who on more than one occasion exposed his nefarlous schemes to the people of Allegheny. As has been stated, the meeting was a complete failure. The lower part of the Academy of Music, where the meeting was held, was only partly filled and there was nobody in the upper tiers. Wanamaker, who had a seat in one of the proscenium boxes, went home disgusted before the meeting was half over. Notwithstanding the slim attendance, all the newspapers controlled by Wanamaker influence came out the next morning with four and five columns of speeches assailing Senator Quay, and eading the readers of the newspapers to believe there had been a great popular uprising.

Republicans and Democrats allke who have discussed the calling of this gathering agree that the purpose of the emonstration was not only to inflame the public mind against Senator Quay, This is the trade but mainly to influence the men on the mark of the short line to Florida—the Southern Railway.
