THE CORTES ASSEMBLES

Count d'Almenas' Speech Arouses the Spanish Senate.

NOT A SINGLE GENERAL SHOT."

The Count Complains of the Govern ment's Belay in Executing the Leaders Who Capitulated Hlauco, Rivera and Barges Defend the Generals,

Madrid, Feb. 21.-The cortes reasembled yesterday. The galleries in both chambers were thronged with an expectant crowd. The senate was very toll, hardly a single general being absent Senor Montero Blos, president of the senate, in opening the proceedings, prononneed a enlogy upon M. Faure, and a resolutions of condolence with France was adopted unanimously.

cerned in childbirth, and Senor Sagasta, the premier, then protakes away all posed to refer the bill providing for the ession of the Philippines to the United States to a special committee, but this the Conservatives protested against, declaring that the bill ought to be scientiously discussed, and Senor Sagasta withdrew his proposal.

Count d'Almenas then brought up the claring that the bill ought to be con-question of the conduct of the generals engaged in the war in Cuba, declaring that General Primo de Rivera, General Weyler, General Blanco, Admiral Cer-vera and General Lanares had proved failures. This declaration elicited much applause from the public galleries, in consequence of which several of the spectators were expelled from the chamber.

Observing that he would deal with the "shameful capitulation of Santiago."
Count d'Almenas asked the house whether he should proceed, and was an-The Bradfield Regulator Co. swered with cries of "yes" and "no," and a general uproar ensued. A repetition of the query provoking still greater tumult, Senor Sagasta rose and defeinded the government and its Spanish peace commission. The premier criti-cized America's "unjustifiable conduct," and said that everything might be discussed except the war, because the cause of the generals were still sub-judice.

Count d'Ainseuns resumed his attack upon the generals, and complained that "five months had elapsed and not a single general had been shot." This gave rise to another tumult, and Count l'Almenas was called to order. Again he naked why the generals who capitu-lated had not been executed. It is quite true, he declared, that the army is an army of Rons led by asses. Captain General Blanco's administration in Cuba was deplorable, he said, but he was not re-sponsible for the surrender of Santingo. Recriminations continued Count d'Almenus and Lieutenant Gen eral Correa, the minister of war, and there was renewed disorder. General Primo de Rivera arose and denounced Count d'Almenas as "a contemptible

General Blanco followed, defending the generals and accepting full respon-sibility for events in Cuba during his command in the island. General Barges denounced Count d'Almenas as a calum-

After a promise on the part of Count d'Almenas to produce proofs of his as-sertions the senate adjourned.

In the chamber Senor Silvella, the leader of the Dissident Conservatives, moved a vote, signed by the Conservative deputies, censuring the government for its indifference to the country's troubles. Senor Annix, in seconding the motion. denounced the ministry for accepting the war through fear of the Carlists and declared that the country was now suf-fering the consequences of the govern-ment's possilianimity. He proceeded to detail the lack of preparations and of war matrials and charged the govern-ment with responsibility for the sur-sender of Santiuro, which they ordered render of Santiago, which they ordered although the garrison there numbered 23,000 and there were sufficient provis ons in the place for three months. This declaration created a sensation. In proof that the government was re sponsible for the surrender of Cuba Senor Annix read telegrams from Senor Sagasta and Lieuteant General Correa to General Blanco ordering the surrender of Cuba as a means of saving Porto Rico and the Philippines and preserving order in the peninsula. He also rend General Blanco's telegram in reply, opposing the surrender, but agreeing to bey the government's order. Senor Annix added that President Me Kinley had telegraphed to General Shaf-ter that the surrender of Santiago had been arranged with the Madrid govern ment, and that, therefore, he must make a sort of sham attack.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim."

No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at A. Wasley's drug store. Robbed the Grave.

The Naval Controversy Growing Out of the Spanish War.

COMLEY'S REPLY TO CRITICISMS.

doct, on Which He Was Congratu-lated, Could Baye Grown Into "Rep-be very light. reliens by Conduct" Six Weeks Later

Washington, Feb. 21.—Rear Admiral W. S. Schley having been granted per-mission to answer the charges recently made against him in the communication recently sout to the senate, yesterday handed to the committee on naval affairs his statement, in which he disclaims any purpose of controversy with the navy department.

The admiral says his orders from from Sampson on May 19 were to blockole Cleufuegos, which he proceeded to do. He had so knowledge that there were any insurgents about Clearingos who were triendly until the Marblehead arrived on the 24th. Even had he had this knowledge on the 23d of May, the surf would have prevented communica-tion. On his arrival he sent Commodors McCalla, of the Marblehead, ashore to the result of which was made known to him at 3:40 on May 24. Then, for the first time, he learned definitely that the Within two hours he started for San tingo. "What possible ground of criti-cism," he says, "adverse to me, there can be in all this, I do not see. I was on the spot, acting under orders which gave me entire discretion, and yet clothed me with the responsibility of going to Santiago only after I was satis-fied the fleet was not at Cienfuegos."

He quotes from the dispatch of Samp-son of May 20, in which the latter says Schley should "hold his fleet off Cien-fuegos. If the Spanish ships have put into Santingo they must come either to Havana or vacufuegos to deliver the munitions of war which they are said to bring for use in Cuba. I am, therefore, of the opinion that the best chance to capture these ships will be to hold the two points, Cienfuegos and Havana, with all the force we can muster."

As to the slow progress toward San-tingo on account of the Engle, he states that she was a part of the force which Admiral Sampson had seen fit to send him, and he had no right to abandon her. The weather was rough, and not much better speed could have been kept up. He had been ordered to proceed "cau-tiously." It, however, he had known that the Spanish fleet was in Santiago no consideration for the Eagle or anything else would have prevented him from getting there at the earliest pos-

Speaking of "the retrograde move ments," which the secretary, adopting the language of Admiral Sampson, characterizes as "reprehensible conduct Admiral Schley says that in 42 years' service "never was such language used to characterise conduct of mine, and I see no reason for it now."

As to the battle of Santiago, Admiral Schley says the facts of that contest speak for themselves. Quoting from his official report to Sampson, in which he ougratulated the commander of the quadron and said the "victory seems g enough for us wil," he make the com-itter to contrast his reports and those Sampson containing references to him-"As to all this criticism of my cours rior to the discovery by me on May 29 f Cervera's fleet, whether from Admiral Sampson or the department, none of it and I never heard a word of it from any one until after the battle with that fleet." Admiral Schley quotes the depart-cut's dispatch of May 20 in these words: "The department looks to you to ascertain the fact of the presence of he enemy, and that the enemy, if in the inrbor of Santingo, does not leave with-out decisive action." Commenting upon this the admiral says: "In obedience to the above order I did ascertain the fact that the enemy was at Santiago, and the enemy did not leave without a decisiva attle of July 3 he says at 8:45 of that day Admiral Sampson made signal from his flagship, "Disregard movements of commander-in-chief," and steamed eastward to Siboney. "This," says Admiral Schley, "left me the senior officer present and necessarily clothed me with the responsibility of the command." Con-tinuing he declares that when the enemy's vessels came out of the harbor caciny's vessels came out of the harbor a signal was made from the Brooklyn (his flagship) to the fleet to "clear ship for action," Then followed the signal "close action," and this by the signal "the enemy is escaping westward."

He says the Spanish fleet was coming westward under high speed, and "chang-ng course more to westward brought the Brooklyn heading eastward to m nto a position where she would have lanketed the fire of the eastern vessels f our force, now changing their courses to the westward, and between them and the Spanish vessels. Instant decision was necessary to avoid interfering in any way or cutting off any of the fire of ur vessels, as would have occurred if he had turned towards the Spanish fleet, now approaching the Brooklyn. Turning outward left the enemy's ships unmasked by the Brooklyn and exposed them to the concentrated fire of our

In conclusion Admirsl Schley contends battle was "the crucial and deciding feature of the combat, and of decided

He says he made no report of his mancuver in his report of the battle, as its effect upon the battle was never a question with him.
