THE POLITICAL HORIZON.

Local Politicians Now Interested in the Council Plans.

On next Monday evening the new Town Council will take charge of the affairs of the borough for the ensuing year. At that time new borough officials will be elected and other changes will be made. The personnel of the new Council will be as follows: First ward—William McGuire, Daniel J. Coakley and Thomas Tracy; Second ward—F. E.
Maguire, M. L. Shoemaker and John P.
Boehm; Third ward—D. R. James, C. T.
Straight and William Neumann; Fourth ward—Joseph M. St. John, J. J. Freeman and David Howell; Fifth ward—Patrick Hood, Peter Harkins and Edward Murphy. There are but two new members, Tracy and Howell, and the retiring members are English and Lally.

There is much interest manifested among the Democratic faithful as to the probable outcome of the Councilmanic contest. The Citizens voters, of course, have no interest outside of that having to view a better administration of borough government. The political complexion of Council being Democratic by a majority, that party will control all appointments and it is among the workers of that side of the house who evince the greatest interest in the shaking of the plum tree.

Contrary to the usual custom no caucus has yet been held, and it is not likely to be called before the end of the week. This has caused much uneasiness and speculation on the part of the Councilmanic candidates.
There is a contest for every office, with the exception of the new Council. A representative of the HERALD has gone the rounds and as certained the names of many of the candidates, but before Monday there is a probability that others will be up.

For President of Council the present incumbent, William McGuire, can have the hour without a contest if he desires. Some of his friends may be desirous to see would much rather be on the floor, in the event of his refusal to serve another term the names of Daniel Coakley, Joseph Bell and M. J. Brennan are prominently mentioned, and especially the latter. There is not likely, however, to be a contest in the caucus over this position, which is one that generally brings forth more honor than honor.

For the position of secretary—a nice, juicy plum—there are three candidates. The position is a year, and the present incumbent, best, James J. Coakley, is anxious to gather in that many schedules. Pierce Butler, who usually occupies his time chasing "rainbows" on the strength of false caps, is an active candidate. He feels that as a representative of the local Democratic paper he is entitled to the recognition asked for, and if it is not forthcoming the inference will be drawn that it is intended. Butler is a popular young man and would make an efficient secretary. The name of ex-Secretary Gardin is also mentioned.

For Borough Solicitor, with a nice retaining fee of $400 attached, the present incumbent probably will have no opposition, although some of the Councilmanic have approached in the interest of John E. Covic and Edward Shoemaker, Esqs. The latter, however, have not announced their candidacy.

Borough Treasurer Mullahay has no opposition, but certain contingencies might arise in cases that would change matters.
The salary of the office is $250 a year.
Things are different so far as Supervisor is concerned. Councilman Brennan, who was compelled to "take the dump" last year, will play for larger game this time and will bring his brother for the position. The brother is Supervisor Burns. The latter's friends are active in his behalf, but those who oppose him put forth the argument that three years as Burgess and one as Supervisor ought to be sufficient. Some of the leaders are urging Michael Cuff, a long resident of the borough and who was the victim of a deal on the High Constable nomination. Two dollars a day is paid to this official, and there will be others seeking the plum. At least one Councilman is said to have a dark horse, whose name will not be announced until the caucus meets.

The scramble is over the position held by the men who wear blue coats and with brass buttons. There is a small army of applicants, outside of the members of the present force, each of whom are announced candidates. The names of those prominently mentioned are Patrick Murphy, Benjamin Mater, Martin Mullahay, George Veritas, John Bull, Martin Foley, Michael Hefron, (present members of the force), Patrick Lee, Michael Hefron, Michael Heaton. There are other candidates, but the ones named above are the most prominent and active. There is a disposition on the part of some of the Councilmen to reduce the number of policemen to four, and the indications are there will be three less than at present.

For water superintendent James Bell is a candidate for a second term. No other name has been publicly announced, and whether or not he will bob up at the caucus future developments must determine. Thus there is the assistance to the water superintendent, the two engineers and two firemen at the pumping station, the man on the dump and two regular men under the supervisor, all these fall from the plum tree next Monday when the Democratic majority gives the annual official shake.

Inas much as the "faithful" and their friends await the result with a certain degree of uncertainty.

Creeping Consumption

Do not think for a single moment that consumption will ever strike you a sudden blow.
It does not come that way.
It creeps its way along.

First, you think it is a little cold; nothing but a little hacking cough; then a little loss in weight; then a harder cough; then the fever and the night sweats.

The suddenness comes when you have a hemorrhage.
Better stop the disease while it is yet creeping.
You can do it with

Our Annual SPRING Announcement.

It is with the greatest pleasure that we announce to our many friends and customers in the vicinity, that we are receiving almost every day our mammoth spring stock of clothing. After spending considerable time inspecting the stock of the leading clothing manufacturers of this country, we can with pardonable pride announce that the styles we are receiving are classed as the leading and most popular styles that time and money can purchase. There is not an old style in the entire stock. But all new, fashionable, and well made clothing, and the beauty of them is, that they are made up equal to custom make and we can safely say that when you buy one of our new spring suits you get a garment that will make you feel comfortable and at home. Our stock of novelties for the children will surpass anything we have ever before attempted and will embrace styles that for beauty and appearance cannot be surpassed in this country. In fact, our prices are the lowest in the country. The single pants for men and boys, the nobby styles, show the pains we take in selecting them and when you see them you will agree with us that our styles and prices cannot be beaten in this part of the country.

A cordial invitation is extended to everybody to call and examine our stock. You are always welcome, whether you buy or not.

GREAT MINDS GET TOGETHER.

Remarkable Meeting of Distinguished Men and Women Next Sunday.

Rudyard Kipling's struggle for life, which has been a feature of the week, serves to emphasize the remarkable coming together of a number of famous writers in the great Philadelphia Sunday Press on next Sunday, March 5. To begin with, there will be a series of anecdotes of Kipling, with the latest photograph, a snap-shot, taken of the distinguished writer. Fergus Hume will have a detective story which is the best thing he has done since his famous "Mystery of a Hansom Cab." Paul Lawrence Dunbar, the noted negro author and poet, has written a story of the well-known Tuskegee Institute in Alabama.

Lady Henry Somerset, England's granddaughter, will have a story of her own signature story of conversion; Frank G. Carpenter tells some odd things about life and travel in South America; "Karl" describes "A Day in the Department Store"— simply a pen picture of people you are familiar with the world over. The puzzle funds will have another unit to enter, together with a brand new game founded on the passage of the army bill.

Next Sunday's Press will be a treat to everybody, no matter what their taste. Be sure to order next Sunday's Press to-day.

The Camp's Financial Troubles
Camp 47, P. O. S. of A. of Schuylkill Haven, a few years ago purchased a property which they converted into a meeting hall at an expense of $14,000. The title to the property was a bit beclouded, and to secure the mortgages a note with S. A. Losh, G. W.
Weiss, Irvin Tyson and G. F. Deinger as en-dorers, was given. These endorsees had an agreement in writing with the Camp that they should be kept safe. The beneficial fund had in arrears something like $500.
Claims have been presented against that fund.
Judgments were entered by others for work done, and to save themselves Senator Leach and others had an attachment issued to protect themselves.

At that time eggs in Havana were worth five cents each. The freight out off the supply, and the dealer called that he could not fill the order lower than $1.00 a dozen. The reply came back to ship them anyway. It is said he paid 30 and 40 cents a dozen for them.
