Catch Cold Easily?

Are you frequently hoarse?
Do you have that annoying tickling in your throat? Would you feel relieved if you could raise something? Does your cough annoy you at night, and do you raise more mucus in the morning?
Then you should always keep on hand a bottle of

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

If you have a weak throat you cannot be too careful. You cannot begin treatment too early. Each cold makes you more liable to another, and the last one is always harder to cure than the one before it.

Dr. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral protects the lungs from colds.

SAVE YOUR EYES.

Few people realize the value of their eyes. The benefit of perfectly fitted glasses, with reference to health, cannot be overestimated.
Having made a thorough study of this subject we are prepared to fit examination reveals disease not only of the eye, but of other organs of the human system, sooner than any other known

An Echo From the Grave.
The big fire which visited Shenandoah on Friday morning again illustrates the dimensions and unsubstantiality of most buildings erected in the coal towns. Shenandoah, like Mahanoy City, sprang up very quickly. The coal deposits in these places on being developed caused a large influx of labor and big profits being realized in real estate, lots were quickly purchased and many houses erected at almost ridiculously low figures, entirely inconsistent with good workmanship. Nearly all the structures have been built of frame and very close to one another. The consequence of this lack of foresight is not providing some means to prevent the spread of fires is always disastrous. Many and great conflagrations is the direct result of this in-judiciousness, or greed, or, perhaps, both.

There is difference between a bargain for a bait and a genuine bargain. We wish you to see the difference. We offer big bargains on account of removal to No. 10 South Main St.

Looking After Legislation.
Fourteen tax collectors from different parts of the county met in Pottsville this week to take action on several bills before the Legislature pertaining to the tax gathering business. One of the bills which meets with favor makes taxes a first lien against properties, and is known as Senate Bill No.
29. Another one favored allows tax collectors five per cent commission on all moneys collected. Another meeting will be held at the same place next Monday.

Special Excursion.
The Pennsylvania Railroad will run a special excursion to Washington, D. C.,

Jobs With a Serious Turn.
As a practical job, two young men spent furniture and ransacked about in the house of Joseph Yarnell, at Lavelle, in the absence of the family, to make it appear that burglars had been there. Yarnell believed that such was the case, and when he saw the effigy on the roof he ran away and was seized with an attack of nervous prostration. His condition is critical.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is a true friend to all suffering with coughs or colds.

for Fort Leavenworth, Mo., on Monday. The number were the following: Peter Rafferty, Joseph Zupz, Gilberton; Robert Toumy,

THE SOLDIERS RETURN.

Delays on the Homeward Journey Spoil the Reception.

The members of Companies E, F and H, 5th Regt., Pa. Vol., have arrived at their respective homes from Camp McKenzie, Georgia, after an absence of almost a year.
Elaborate arrangements had been made at Mahanoy City, Girardville and Pottsville for the reception of the respective regiments, but the unfortunate delays enroute spoiled many of the plans, and the demonstrations were not equal to those intended.
Still the receptions were of a sufficiently cordial and patriotic character to make the soldiers feel that they were welcome home and their service to the country was well appreciated by the townsmen returning soldiers paraded by a circuitous route to Army hall.
As the line passed the headquarters of the Young Men's Republican Club there was a grand display of fireworks. In the upper assembly room of Army hall the soldiers took seats in front of a platform, from which an enthusiastic address of welcome was delivered by John W. Parker, editor of the Mahanoy City Record. R. P. Schwank, Esq., responded in behalf of the company, after which there was an adjournment to the lower hall, where a turkey supper was in waiting.
The fast lacked the freshness that it would have had if the soldiers had arrived at the time expected, but it was their first meal at home in nearly twelve months, and they seemed to enjoy it hugely.

Co. H arrived at Pottsville at 4 o'clock this morning and Co. F got to Girardville at about 4:40. Co. B reached Tanques at about 8:40. Cordial receptions were extended at each place and the soldiers were royally feasted before being allowed to go to their respective homes.

Mother and Daughter Insane.
The family of Henry Luckenbill, of Pine-grove township, is sadly afflicted. His seventeen-year-old daughter has been in a demented condition for some time and Tuesday his wife died suddenly and violently insane. Mrs. Luckenbill jumped from the second-story porch of her home into a piling fence and was badly injured. She had also set fire to the kitchen floor and much difficulty was experienced in restraining her from other rash deeds.

Schriek is Reappointed.
The President yesterday appointed the following postmasters who were previously appointed during the session of Congress and subsequently were not confirmed: Match Chunk, Edwin F. Luckenbach; New Kensington, Miss Georgia E. Shaw; Oil City, William M. McKim; Pottsville, Gustavus C.
Schriek; Schuylkill Haven, I. W. Tyson.

Brought Suit to Recover.
Philip Keiper, of Hazleton, has entered suit in assumption before Judge Stapleton of McAdoo, against Mrs. Sarah Drescher, of Ringtown, for the recovery of a good round sum representing a bill for a fence erected around the grave of her late husband.

Election Officers Arrested.
Wilkesbarre, Pa., March 9.—Michael Neary, judge of election of the Cork Lane district of Pittston township, causing the arrest yesterday of Inspectors Keating and McCue and Clerks McAn-drews and O'Boyle, charging them with changing the ballots, fraud and drunkenness at the last election. The defendants were arraigned before Justice of the Peace Pollock, and gave bail for a further hearing.

The Town Shows Up Well.
Shenandoah has a population of about two hundred. There are twelve saloons in the place, four bottlers and four wholesalers.
The percentage of inhabitants to a saloon is very small.

J. C. Davenport, the courteous agent for the Lehigh Valley at Audensat, a former resident of this town, who was injured on Monday, is now at his home at Raven Run.

RELEASED ON PAROLE.

Court Allows Galanis Time to Arrange His Wife's Funeral.

The Herald yesterday published an account of the distress of four children at Lost Creek No. 2 through the imprisonment of their father, Joseph Galanis, and death of the mother, and stated that a movement was on foot to at least secure a temporary release of the prisoner. The movement was a successful one.

Yesterday afternoon the counsel for Galanis went before the court and stated the facts of the case. It was shown that the mother died on Tuesday night, last, and four children ranging from 4 to 15 years of age were left without guardians, or assistance to prepare for the funeral. The court took a humane view of the matter and consulted with the District Attorney's office and Warden Levan, which resulted in an understanding that Galanis be released on parole, that he may arrange for and attend the funeral of his wife, and also prepare for the care of his children until he serves the five-month balance of his eight-month sentence. Galanis is to return to the jail next Saturday. Meanwhile he will store away his household goods and take his children to the almshouse at Schuylkill Haven, where they will remain in care of the country until the father's sentence expires.
