FACTS ARE STUBBORN.

If Shenandoah People are not Convinced by Local Testimony, They Differ From Other People.

Facts are stubborn.
Some may be disputed;
None can be disproved.
A fact is always hedged about with proof.
Has to stand the test of investigation.
Or it drifts to the realm of doubt;
Investigate closely the following.
The closer the scrutiny the more convincing the result.
A Shenandoah citizen speaks here;
Speaks from experience and conviction.

Mr. John D. Hughes, of 213 North Market street, miner, says: —"I have been in Shenandoah for 28 years. My son and I contract in taking out coal. For years I had trouble with my back and kidneys, had both a pain and lameness across my loins and in the small of my back. Well, this bothered me very much, sometimes being worse than others. I was induced to try Doan's Kidney Pills and procured them from Kirlin's drug store. I derived great benefit from them for they corrected the action of the kidneys and freed me from pain."

A POSTMASTER'S FOLLY.

Edward P. Bogert, of Wilkesbarre, Disgraces Himself.

HE TAMPERED WITH THE MAIL.

Caught With Open Letters Addressed to Prominent Business Men, He Was Arrested and Furnished Bail For His Appearance Later.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., March 10.—Edward F. Bogert, postmaster of Wilkesbarre, was arrested yesterday, charged with tampering with the United States mails.

About two months ago several complaints were lodged with the postal authorities at Washington that mail was disappearing, or that which they received bore evidence of having been opened by a steaming process. The postal authorities subsequently detailed two secret service men on the case. Wednesday night Bogert entered the office and was seen to take several letters from the boxes and then go into his private office and carefully draw down a curtain. A few minutes later a detective, who was acting as a clerk, turned out an electric light in the rear end of the office, this being the signal to two other secret service men who were stationed outside. The man on the inside carefully admitted his associates, one of whom was Inspector Gorman. The two men went at once to Bogert's private office, and without the ceremony of knocking entered and there found the postmaster seated at his desk, on which lay three letters addressed to prominent business men of this city, and all of them opened. The postmaster was taken before United States Commissioner Gustav Hahn, where he gave bail in $4,000 for appearance later.

Mr. Bogert is editor of the The Evening Leader. He would not be interviewed, but in his paper appeared the following:

"There are always two sides to a question, and when there are three or four fellows, and one or two in particular, clamoring for a political office and hungry for the emoluments attached thereto, there are sure to be schemes worked and plans formed to entrap the incumbent, cause his removal and punish him otherwise, even if nothing further than the annoyance and chagrin that accomplishment of their devilish underhand work imposes. When the diabolical schemers are fully shown up, and their nefarious trickery exposed, there is a question as to which side will furnish the raciest reading."

The inference to be drawn from the above is that Bogert imagined himself the victim of a conspiracy to oust him from the postmastership, and in order to discover the conspirators he opened letters addressed to Republican politicians.

DID NOT ASK SUPPORT.

Italy Did Not Want Our Aid in Securing a Port in China.

OUR GOVERNMENT WAS NOTIFIED

In Order That the Italian Government Should Know Whether There Would Be Any Objection, and Was Informed of Our Disinterested Neutrality.

Washington March 10.—The Italian government, through its representatives in Washington, lately laid before the authorities here its purpose to ask of China a port on San-Mun bay, and invited an expression from this government as to its attitude. In response it is understood that Secretary Hay, as well as the president, made it clear that the United States would pursue the same course as toward the Russian, British and German occupation of Chinese ports, namely, disinterested neutrality. The exchanges have been verbal and rather informal, more in the nature of diplomatic soundings than direct propositions. They have given occasion to erroneous publications to the effect that Italy had asked the United States to support her demands on China and that this government, in a pointed note from Secretary Hay, had refused. It is said in an eminent and authoritative quarter that Italy made no such request for American support, and that there was no declination from this government. The circumstances of the negotiations as explained in this authoritative quarter are as follows:

When Italy determined to seek a port on the Chinese coast she addressed those powers having large interests in China, notifying them of her purpose. Owing to the good will between Italy and this country, as well as the American interest in China, a notification was presented to the state department here. While Italy is said to have had no desire through this notification to enlist the support of the United States, she was desirous of pursuing the usual diplomatic course when a move of this character is contemplated, namely, learn whether the United States would be favorable, disinterested or opposed. In short, before proceeding Italy desired to know what attitude the United States would take as to the Italian demand on China.

The reply of Secretary Hay, which is said to have been verbal, was in response to this notification and soundings from the Italian authorities. In this reply the president is said to have given his personal concurrence. In substance it was an announcement that the United States would in no way change the attitude it had maintained thus far when Great Britain, Germany and Russia made advances toward China.

Instead of being a denial of any request the reply was accepted by the Italian government as entirely satisfactory and as placing it in the same position as other European powers who had sought ports in China. This, it is said, brings the negotiations at Washington to a close in a manner entirely satisfactory to the Italian authorities.

China's Apology to Italy.

Pekin, March 10.—The tsung-li-yamen has notified Signor Martino, the Italian minister, that his dispatch asking for a concession at San-Mun was returned to him because it was impossible to comply with the request and because a refusal might have endangered the relations between Italy and China, but it was added that as the action had been misunderstood, the Chinese minister in Rome had been instructed to express the tsung-li-yamen's regrets.

Esterhazy Predicts Dreyfus' Pardon.

London, March 10.—The Daily News publishes an interview with Count Ferdinand Walsin Esterhazy, who is represented as having said: "The fireworks of the Dreyfus affair are only just commencing. One thing is certain. It is all up with General De Boisdeffre. He and General Roget are responsible for Colonel Henry's forgery and death. All the excitement, however, will end in smoke and the pardon of Dreyfus."

Delaware Legislator's Sad Death.

Dover, Del., March 10.—James C. Conoway, Republican representative from the Fourth district of Sussex county, who has been sick almost since his election and unable to attend the session of the legislature, died Wednesday night at his residence, near Georgetown. He died just as Representative King, who had gone down for the purpose of administering to him the oath of office as representative, drove up to his home.

Tacoma's Vigilance Committee.

Tacoma, Wash., March 10.—Citizens, indignant at the recent robberies and holdups, held a public meeting in the chamber of commerce rooms yesterday and decided to form a vigilance committee. The police department was denounced as incompetent and a citizens patrol organized. It was decided that all suspicious characters must be compelled to leave the city.

Beats the Klondike.

Mr. A. C. Thomas, of Marysville, Texas., has found a more valuable discovery than has yet been made in the Klondike. Utah Fails to Elect a Senator.

Salt Lake, Utah., March 10.—The joint assembly of the legislature was declared adjourned sine die last midnight without electing a United States senator. Ten ballots were taken last night. The 161st and last ballot was as follows: McCune, 20; George Q. Cannon, 19; F. J. Cannon 7; King, 4; J. H. Moyle, 4; Powers, 4; Nebeker, 1; Sutherland, 2; absent, 2.

College Professor Van Dyke.

Princeton, N. J., March 10.—An important meeting of the trustees of the Princeton university was held here yesterday. President Patton reported gifts amounting to $65,000 had been received to be used for the general expenses of the academic department. Toward the endowment of a chair in English literature $100,000 was given on condition that Rev. D. Henry Van Dyke, of New York, be the first incumbent. D. H. McAlpin, of New York, gave $50,000 of the amount and the other $50,000 was secured through the efforts of C. C. Cuyler and M. Taylor Payne. Dr. Van Dyke was elected to the chair. The resignation of Dr. Murray as dean of the university was presented, but the board declined to accept it and devolved the active duties upon the president until the next meeting of the board.

Danger Along the Delaware.

Stroudsburg, Pa., March 10.—There is no marked change in the situation in the upper Delaware river. There has been a fall in the water to about 12 feet above low water mark. Three iron bridges are in danger of destruction should the ice break away above before going out below. In some parts the ice is piled up to a height of nearly 40 feet. Those living along the river realize their peril and are ready to move at a moment's warning.

"John Jones!"

Squeaky voice replies: "Ere."

Sergeant: "Ou, aye, ye're here, or say ye're here, but ye're sic a muckle lear I canna believe a word that comes oot o' yer mooth, sae I'll jist mark ye doon as absent!"—Answers.

A Way to Wealth.

Upon one occasion the late Earl Poulett, who, by the way, was a great spendthrift, was paying his physician, and, on handing the medical gentleman 400 guineas in gold, asked him if he knew how to grow rich. The doctor replied in the negative, and the earl advised him never to pay an account by check, but always in coin, "for," he added, "the more you look at your money the less inclined you will be to part with it."

Took Profits.

"There goes a man who made $200,000 out of a simple little invention."

"What did he invent?"

"He didn't invent anything. He was the promoter."—Ohio State Journal.

BEARDED WOMEN.

Designing men, through alluring and cunningly worded advertisements, constantly endeavor to work upon the feelings of sick and ailing women by inviting them "to write to a woman (!) and secure a woman's sympathy." It is well to remember that the best sympathy is to be had at home and not from strangers, perhaps hundreds of miles distant. The object of the sick is to get well, and however precious sympathy may be, it never yet cured a seriously afflicted woman. While the sympathy of your milliner or dressmaker might be appreciated and be just as beneficial, if not more so, than sympathy from a stranger, yet it can not effect your cure if you are an ailing woman.

It is loudly proclaimed through the press that "a woman can best understand a woman's ailments," and on this ground sick women are invited to "write to a woman" and get the benefit of a woman's advice. The sort of "understanding of her ailments" wanted by a sick woman is a trained medical understanding. If a woman has this trained medical knowledge she understands woman's ailments not as a woman, but as a physician. If she is not a doctor she cannot understand the ailments at all, and cannot treat them successfully, because she lacks the necessary training.

As far as known, there is no regularly qualified woman physician connected with any proprietary medicine especially designed for women—no one, therefore qualified by learning and experience, to advise on questions of disease and its cure.

It is certain that there is no one, man or woman, connected with any "put-up" medicine for women, excepting only Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, who, like Dr. Pierce, is a regular graduated and qualified physician, and who has, like him, devoted more than thirty years to the special study and treatment of diseases of women.

For more than thirty years Dr. R. V. Pierce, a regularly graduated doctor, has been chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. On his staff are nearly a score of regularly graduated, experienced, skilled physicians, each of whom is a specialist in his chosen class of diseases. Every letter addressed to Dr. Pierce as above, has prompt, conscientious attention, is regarded as sacredly confidential and is answered in a plain envelope so your private affairs are kept safe from prying eyes.
