It was stated by a prominent Quay sake—and that is Hood's leader in the Senatorial fight that they have no expectation of electing Quay at this session. They now have a majority of the Republican Representatives, and it is their purpose to vote daily for Mr. Quay until the end of the session, and then make an appeal to the voters of the Commonwealth two years hence, when they confidently expect to elect enough representatives to secure his election. But such things are uncertain, and an election may take place when least expected.

Al/THOUGH the election is almost a year off, candidates for Chief Burgess are already announcing themselves. The people will demand an efficient and fearless man for this position hereafter. The experiences of the past is sufficient to show the necessity therefor. The Citizens party have it in their power to control that office, if they make the proper nomination. Michael Graham is the logical candidate. Whether he would accept or not we do not know, but this we do know-he is the right man in the right place, and would defeat any candidate the Democrats could name.

The Little Filipino Again Talking Warner's Safe Cure the Victor Among Modern Medicines.

It was once believed that a finger ring made from a coffin-nail would cure epilepsy. The He Says, Were Responsible For the tooth of a soldier who had been killed in battle was regarded as a remedy for toothaches. Butification of the Peace Teenty Imagine such ghastly nonsense as this parading as medical science! Yet the human mind, Without Amendment says Reports like the human body, must creep before it can walk. In time men learned to reason and of American Victories Are Ludicrous medicine was put upon a rational basis. Back in the old days, some childish or disgusting London, March 11.—Senor Agoneillo, these would have been used to relieve indignation. Mark the progress illustrated in this letter from J. E. Stockwell, of Lincoln, Nels.

"I have been badly affected with trouble of the stomach and have used nearly all kinds medicines and doctored with local physicians to no avail. After being almost completely discouraged, I was advised to one Warner's Safe Cure, which I did, and I am glad to be able to say that it is the only remedy that has done me any good. I have used three bottles and am feeling like a new man all over. I am thankful to the Warner's Safe Cure Co, for their medicine, and our recommend it close fully to those suffering as I have suffered."

Another instance of the victory of rational medicine is afforded by Jacob Cramp, of Birdshoro, Berks County, Pa., who wrote, May 18th, 1898 :

"I have taken five bottles of Warner's Safe Cure. It relieved me of the pain over my kidneys. When I got down I could hardly get up again. I did not know what was wrong with me. I could hardly do my work. I heard of Safe Cure and thought I would try it After taking one bottle I felt better. I am very grateful for Warner's Safe Cure and would advise people to try it." Just one case more. Averett Perry, of Louisburg N. C., says:

'I have taken only one bottle of Warner's Safe Cure and it has done me more good than anything else I ever took. I had an acting feeling in the pit of my stomach. I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart. I can recommend Safe Cure as the finest medicine in the world." Sufith Got the Decision San Francisco, March 11.—Billy La-igne, brother of Kid Lavigne, jumped into the ring in the fourteenth round of the Smith-Lavigne fight last night and Referee McDonaid was forced to give the decision to Smith. The cause of Billy Lavigne's action was the fact that George had received a couple of solid blows from Smith, and was palpably rattled and somewhat groupy. His rother, seeing his condition and fearing knockout, out of brotherly sympathy and family pride jumped through the ropes and placed his arm about his brother's shoulder, declaring he would never see George humiliated by a knockout. While Lavigue was getting the worst of the mixes in this round he was not out of it, and might have stayed through had not his brother interfered.

This was declined him to a man." by the regulars, but they agreed, if the Democrats wanted to weed out Addicks, to give them one more opportunity by taking up Colone! Dopont again, for whom some of the Democratic assembly-men had expressed a desire to vote. The Democrats said no to this, and the result is that they are voting for whom soever they please, while the regulars have again brought Colonel Dupont into the fight. The Democrats, therefore, will not again take up Senator Gray as a unit, because they realize the necessity of leaving the senatorship an open ques tion for two years hence. It is conse quently expected that today's voting last well into the afternoon, and will make the day a memorable one in the history of Delaware.

Parslow exhibited much less courage and was more dead than alive when the drop fell. The condemned were taken to the scaffold separately, and were prevented from seeing each other by a screen placed between them. Six hundred men, who had remained up all night, witnessed the execution. Outside the jail there were 2,000 more, who with a beam tried to batter down the gate of the jailyard, and could only be made to desist by the provincial police firing their revolvers into the air. behavior of the crowd inside was that one of the priests reproved them a om the scaffold.

Mrs. Poirier was organist of the Catholic church at Jerome, and Parslow, her reputed lover, sang in the choir. While the body of the murdered husband lay in their home she played the organ at a wedding ceremony. Both confessed each blaming the other.
