Talk of Compromising a Strike. Pittsburg, March 13.—All of the 71 strikers of the Schoen Steel company arrested Saturday afternoon on charges of disorderly conduct during the progress of a meeting in Hartman's Hall, Woods Run, were discharged yesterday with out fines. Matters are progressing which may have a tendency within a short time to terminate completely the whole trouble. Prominent strikers are quietly going among the workmen and talking about a settlement. Ine imported so cialists, according to these men, are to be entirely left out of the question hereafter. The strikers realize that both side are losing more money than either car afford, and they are beginning to feel that the sconer the whole thing is set-tled the better it will be all around.
