What we know,

WE KNOW,
WE KNOW.

We know that people generally don't understand the bearing of the condition of their eyes on their general health. There are children in this country to-day, sick because of eye strain. Their illness is attributed to other causes, and unless they come under care of an honest and intelligent optician, they will go on being sick until the true cause is discovered by accident or the exercise of good common sense. Let us assist you in this case.

Spring
Millinery
Opening.

Thursday, March 23, 1899.

THE FAME of this Department has penetrated the far corners of everywhere; and yet but seven years old. Visitors to the city should not forego the chance of critically looking into the store they've heard so much of as the phenomenon of the land.

There is much to see; much to sell—if you want to buy; much profitable knowledge in modern up-to-date style headgear for the Spring of '99.

We have surprised you with unmatchable values in the past in this department, why shouldn't we surprise you in the future, and more so? Our present facilities, covering as they do the best millinery producing centres, are positively unequaled.

We have made a strenuous effort to crown this season with the loveliest stock we ever had. How great has been our success we'll leave for you to judge when you come and let us untold to your wondering eye the immensity of our Millinery collection.

What bright, dainty creatures of beauty the new Spring Hats and Bonnets are!

What skill, what taste, what ingenuity the Milliner Artists have displayed! What beautiful combinations of Feathers, Flowers, Ribbons, Lace and Straws!

Every fashion that will be popular in foreign cities will be represented in our Grand Millinery Display.

The two special prices—for this day in ready-trimmed Hats will be the $2.50 and $5.00 specialties, for the first day opening only; neither can be matched at double the price. The other prices vary from $1.98 to $23.95, all intermediate prices.

In this Spring Millinery we exhibit over 1,000 ready-trimmed hats, and the special features for the opening day will be the most handsome decorations that have ever been produced in this Mountain City, and is worth your while to come far as well as near.

We extend a hearty welcome to one and all.

It is with pardonable pride that we invite your attention to our Dress Goods Department.

With the opening of Spring comes the desire for new outer garments. If you are fond of shopping we would suggest looking around—then come to us and see the newest, as well as the most stylish, dress fabrics and ready-made suits. Our Aim is good quality and consistent prices.

our natural Palms as is possible,

Half Sick
Half Well

Many persons have their good day and their bad day. Others are about half sick all the time.
They have headache, backache, and are restless and nervous.
Food does not taste good, and the digestion is poor; the skin is dry and sallow and disfigured with pimples or eruptions; sleep brings no rest and work is a burden.
What is the cause of all this?
Impure blood.
And the remedy?

It clears out the channels through which poisons are carried from the body. When all impurities are removed from the blood nature takes right hold and completes the cure.
If there is constipation, take Ayer's Pills. They awaken the drowsy action of the liver; they cure biliousness.

Write to our Doctor.
We have the exclusive services of Dr. J. C. Lowell, M.D., in Pottsville, Pa. Write to him for a free consultation. He will send you a Biliousness," without cost.

Address, Dr. J. C. Lowell, Mass.

Volunteers, during the Spanish-American war. Klitzel's Zimmerman's banquet hall was the scene of the affair and after an appetizing menu had been disposed of the feast of wit and flow of soul was begun. Each speaker, beginning with President Joseph F.
Patterson, had to run the gauntlet of a brilliant cross fire of annoying questions and interjections and a hearty laughter greeted the vanquished as well as the victor.

Speeches were attempted with more or less success by Messrs. Patterson, Snyder, Berser, Strigel, Fausst, Smith, Minker, Bechtel, Fribert, Lubold, and the reception ended

HEALTH RESTORED.

When I see a man who is an easy and steady eater and a sound and regular sleeper, I see a man who has no occasion to be afraid of the world, the flesh or the devil. For, from those still solemn hours of the night, when human figures in like resplendent statures in the darkness and from those other hours when a boy's foot and fingers deliver to the mouth the food which the plain stanzas ready to welcome—from these two things, I say, proceeds all human power, together with the clearness and unity of mind which leads to its every valuable accomplishment.

"When we sleep," said Leigh Hunt, "is the time when the mysterious spirit goes to take its airy stands." "I advise you to sleep in peace and wake in joy," said Sir Walter Scott. "Sleep," said Butler, "is the happiest of earthly boons." "Sleep," said a poet-philosopher of Boston, "brings all our lifetime near eyes as the night lovers all day in the bosoms of the fir tree."

What these gentlemen say is very good and fine, and makes sleep seem as easy a thing to come at as a ham sandwich is to the fellow who has five cents still left in his pocket. Nevertheless, if you could take the roofs of the houses and look down into them from above, passing from one to another, swift as Asmodeus, you would see millions of people tumbling about on their beds, praying in vain to the somnolent gods from early evening to the crack of day.

"I couldn't sleep," writes a lady. "I tossed and tumbled with pain and excitement. This was some five years ago. I suffered greatly from pain in the back, strange mental hallucinations, loss of appetite, scanty and dark fluid which scalded in passing, bad taste in the mouth in the morning, loss of nerve and tone, restless nights, gradual failure of weight and energy, and dark and sallow skin. I had no ambition to go about my daily duties. Even the weight of my clothes was oppressive.

"My sister had taken Warner's Safe Cure for female weakness and had been immensely benefited. I gave up my doctor and began using the Safe Cure. Soon I felt like another person. I could eat heartily and my system was filled with fresh vigor. My health was restored and I worked with ease and slept like a tired school girl." (Signed) Mrs. J. H. PAGE, Brockton, Mass.

Arthur J. Pilgram to E. B. Heany, premises in Quakake, including the hotel and other buildings and some dwelling houses. It was known as the Panet property. The consideration was $5,000.

Senator Loach is reported seriously ill at his home in Schuylkill Haven. His condition was improved this morning.

Harry Phillips, formerly of this place and now of Folsom, near Philadelphia, was in town to-day making arrangements for the funeral of his wife's mother, which takes place next Thursday.

BAPTIST RALLY.
Annual Gathering Held at Girardville To-day Well Attended.

The annual rally of the Baptist Young People's Societies of the western district was held at Girardville to-day, in the First Baptist church. There were three sessions, morning afternoon and evening, and the attendance at each session was large and much interest manifested in the proceedings.

The morning session was opened at 10:30 with devotional exercises by Miss Mattie Price, of Shenandoah, Rev. William Jennings followed with an able and eloquent sermon. The afternoon session opened at 2:00 o'clock with devotional exercises by John Filer, when the following program was rendered: "Our Young People's Work," Rev. R. T. Preston; "The Value of Gleaning," Miss Margaret Vaughn; "Our Duties," Miss Susan Evans; "A Helpful Song Service," Ebbie Morris; solo, Miss Mary Smith; Juniors, "What Our Union is Doing," Miss Miriam Parker; "Some Things About the Life of Paul," Tommy Davis; topics assigned Oliver and Salut Clair Union; "Baptist Expansion," Rev. Leroy Stephens, D. D., Lewisburg, Pa.

The evening session will open at 7:30, when the Shenandoah choir, under the leadership of William Waters, will open the exercises, followed by the Girardville choir. Rev. Frank S. Dolans will lecture on the subject: "From the Land of the Rising Sun to the Dark Congo and the Philippine Islands. A Lantern Journey among the missions in Asia and Africa."
