THE BEEF INVESTIGATORS.

Meat Reshipped From England and Sent to the Soudiers, Washington, March 31.-There were two original witnesses before the army beef inquiry court yesterday, and two former witnesses were recalled. Lieutenant Gampfer, who was commissary of subsistence at Lakeland, Pla., and Majo Creighton Webb, who was on General Lawton's staff in Cuba, testified for the first time. Colonel Woodraff, of the commissary department, and Mr. More hons, the Tampa agent for Armour & Co., who superintended the supply of fresh beef to the troops at Lakeland were those recalled. Colonel Woodrut stated that in one instance canned been which had been shipped to Liverpool England, was brought back to this coun Try and sold for the use of the army This purchase amounted to 35,000 pounds. The heef, as he understood i had been stored in Armour's warehous in Liverpool and had been sent abroad with the view of selling it to the British government. Major Webb's testimon dealt almost entirely with the canne roast beef, which he denounced as use-less as an article of food. Lieutenant Gampfer said that a representative of Armour's, whom he took to be Mr Morehous, had told him that chemicals were used to preserve the beef. Thi Mr. Morehous denied when recalled. Killed by a Scoreher
