The main force to day was directed by the bondsmen's counsel to show that the 1896 borough duplicate was not delivered to Mr. Scanan until December, 1887, while Mr Whalen directed his efforts to contradiction of Mr.

scanlan on that point. in the books copied from reports furnished by the finance committee of Council.

Mr. Scaulan was next called to the witness stand, and remained there for some time. Mr. Scanlan was next called to the witness stand, and remained there for some time. He made a correction of testimony previously given and said it was not the school duplicate for 1896 that be had in his bands for a few days at a time, loaning it to Mr. Devit in the intervals, but the county duplicate. He then swort hat he did not have the 1896 school duplicate in his hands until September, 1897, and the 1898 horough dublicate did not reach him until December, 1807. Mr. Scanlan did not recollect that Mr. Hanns brough him the 1896 borough duplicate in his new location. Lower Tesephone Rates for First-Class brought to him the 1896 borough duplicate. He had simply told them that the lists were ready. duplicate?

A. Yes, sir. Mr. Whalen called attention to the fact that, while Mr. Scaplan contended that he did not receive the 1896 borough duplicate until December, 1897, the petition to oper the judgment states that it was not received until September, 1897. Mr. Reilly said the bondsmen, and not Mr. Scanlan, made the petition, and the dates were based upon such information as they could glean from a review of the Council minute book. Mr. Whalen replied that, nevertheless, the peti-tion confirmed the stand taken by the borough that the duplicate was delivered in September, 1897. On examination by Mr. Heilly, Mr. Scan an said the items of $1,000, Jan. 5, 1897, $5, 000, Feb. 4, 1897, and $1,800, Mar. 5, 1897, were principally made up of moneys collected on the school duplicate of 1896, but the whole amount was credited to the 1895 duplicate. He was collecting money on both duplicates at the the time. The money was credited to 1895 in the published statement. By Mr. Whalen: "Well, there is no objec-
