OUR COUNTRY: First, Last and Forever.

"An early break is predicted," a standing headline in the "insurgent" newspapers.

THERE is no longer any danger that the school appropriation will be reduced. This is as it should be.

RECENT events indicate that Uncle Jimmy Mingoque is still in the land of the living. It is said he still has political aspirations...

THE legislative investigating committee has been given another extension of time in which to make its report. It is hinted that criminal prosecution will be recommended by the committee.

ON the second of May next all the counties of Pennsylvania will elect superintendents of schools for three years. Some of our educational journals are advocating longer terms...

FILES' Presidential Bid. It is reported at Washington that General Miles is itching with ambition to become President of the United States. It goes without saying that neither he nor his admirers have the slightest idea that he can be nominated next year by the Republicans...

There is considerable talk in the newspapers of the country about starting a new party, and undoubtedly something is going to be done along those lines, but just what no one worth quoting seems to know at present.

Whether on pleasure bent or business, take on every trip a bottle of Syrup of Figs, as it acts most pleasantly and effectually on the kidneys, liver, and bowels, preventing fevers, headaches, and other forms of sickness.

Miss Lockheart's LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM.

LETTER TO MRS. FINEAN NO. 67,101. "I cannot express my gratitude to you for the good that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I have taken five bottles of the Compound and two boxes of Liver Pills and feel better in every respect."

Only the women who have suffered with female troubles can fully appreciate the gratitude of those who have been restored to health.

BOOKER T. WASHINGTON'S ADVICE.

Colored Educator Regrets Political Opposition to Southern Whites. "Tuesdays, Ala., April 10.—Professor Booker T. Washington, answering the request of a prominent colored man in North Carolina as to what should be done to allay the present conflict between the races, says: "Unconsciously we seem to have gotten the idea into our blood and bones that we are only acting in a manly way when we oppose southern white men with our votes. In some way, by some method, we must bring the race to the point where it will cease to feel that the only way for it to succeed is to oppose everything suggested or put forth by the southern white men."

The Kidney Complexion.

The pale, sallow, sunken-cheeked, distressed-looking people you so often meet are afflicted with "Kidney Complexion." Their kidneys are turning to a purplish color. So is their complexion. They may also have indigestion, or suffer from sleeplessness, rheumatism, neuralgia, brain trouble, nervous exhaustion and sometimes the heart acts badly.

FILES' Presidential Bid.

It is reported at Washington that General Miles is itching with ambition to become President of the United States. It goes without saying that neither he nor his admirers have the slightest idea that he can be nominated next year by the Republicans...
