General Lawton's Troops Meet With Little Opposition.

TWO MORE TOWNS CAPTURED.

Longas and San Antonio Now in the Possession of Our Soldiers-A Skirmish in Which Five Men of the North Dakota Regiment Were Killed.

Manila, April 15 .- General Lawton is marching north, along the road between the hills and the lake, with the gunboats Napidan and Laguna de Bay abreast of his troops. The enemy is retreating northward.

On Wednesday the troops crossed the Paghanjan and concentrated at Lambun, at the mouth of the river. After leaving two companies of the Fourteenth regiment to guard the entrance of the river the troops marched to Longas and found it deserted. Furniture which had been dropped in the flight of the natives was scattered along the trails leading into the hills.

Major Weisenberger's sharpshooters were sent toward Pactos Ancontonia in the forenoon. They ran upon a nest of rebels in some thick bushes, which afforded a splendid cover. Five men of the North Dakota regiment were refund the money on a 50-cept bottle of killed and two were wounded, two of Greene's Warranted Syrup of Tar if it falls the former dwing after having been brought to Longas church, where Father McKinnon administered the sacrament to them.

The main body of the American troops, while at dinner in Longas, heard the firing and advanced to the support of the sharpshooters. A scout from a hill, saw the little fight and many white coats running into the The Laguna de Bay, at the be ginning of the fight, shelled the hills, making them too hot for the enemy.

The Americans entered San Antonio at sunset without meeting with any resistance. Twenty unarmed prisoners, bearing copies of the proclamation of the United States Philippine com-mission, which they had somehow secured, were afterwards released and sent outside our lines with bundles of proclamations to distribute.

The Fourth cavalry is guarding Santa Cruz. Two companies of the Fourteenth regiment are at the mouth of the river, two are at Pasingham, two at Lambun and one at San Antonio. The remainder of the troops are at Longas. General Lawton is on board the Laguna de Bay and the Cascetes are off San Antonio.

The country just occupied is thickly populated, and produces much fruit. McKenna, of the signal corps, is indefatigiable. He ran a wire through the hostile country without having a guard with him.

Additional Filipino dead found north of Santa Cruz swell the number of the enemy killed on Monday to 150, including Paole Aguirre, one of the leaders, and 12 officers.

At Pansanghan a woman was found hidden in a basket and a youth buried in mud, except as to his head. Both were given food and money, to their great astonishment.

Robbed the Grave.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite-gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Bitters,' and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at A. Wasley's drug store.

Sutcide Followed Advice. Corning, N. Y., April 15.—Joseph Green, aged 70 years, of Cedarville, asked his nephew the easiest way to kill himself. The nephew jokingly told him to tie a stone about his neck and jump into the river. Green took the advice, and drowned himself in the Chemung river. His body was recovered. Family trouble is assigned as the cause for the act.

THE BEST SPRING TONIG.

As winter passes away it leaves many people feeling weak, depressed and easily tired. This means that the blood needs attention and sensible people always take a tonic at this time of year. Purgatives are not the right medicine — they weaken instead of strengthening.

Dr. Williams Pink Pills for Pale People are the best tonic medicine in the world and do not act on the houseless.

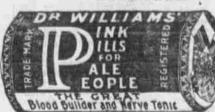

not act on the bowels. They stimulate the appetite, enrich the blood, strengthen the appetite, enrich the blood, strengthen the nerves and make people feel bright, active and strong.

No one is better able to speak of this fact than Miss Harel Snider, a charming young woman of Aritington, Ind. To-day she has rosy cheeks, snarking eyes and a plump form, which prove that she is in good health. A year ago Miss Snider was very thin, her cheeks pails, eyes sinken and dull. She was troubled with nervousness and general detaility. She says:

"After several months' treatment from the family physician we saw he could do no good. I was discouraged and did not know what to do. One day I rend an item in a paper of the wonderful curative qualities of Dr. Williams Pink Pils for Pale People. I tried the medicine, and when nearly through with the second box noticed

CROKER AS A WITNESS. Three of the Indicated Dropped From

Investigating Committee.

HIS DRAMATIO DECLARATION.

If You Can Show Me Where I Have Taken a Single Dollar From This City You Can Cut That Arm Off." Declines to Reveal Business Affairs,

New York, April 15.-Richard Croker as on the stand yesterday before the Mazet investigating committee, was called again today. John F. Car-roll, the Tammany leader's chief deputy, was also put through a course of questioning. Judge Joseph F. Daiy, whom the Democrats refused to renominate for justice of the supreme court last fall, told of his treatment by Mr. Croker and Tammany, while other prominent witnesses contributed testimony that went to make the day a most notable one in the investigation into the city's affairs.

The examination of Richard Croker was a remarkable one, chiefly by reason of the answers which he returned to questions propounded to him by Mr. Moss. He was brief and direct, and took advantage of the many opportunities afforded him to retort in a manner that evoked applause many times from those guthered in the com-

Mr. Croker gave events a somewhat dramatic turn when, after refusing to answer several questions concerning his private affairs, he held up his right hand and said impressively: "If you can show where I have taken a single dollar from this city, you can cut that arm off."

When the Tammany chief first went on the stand Mr. Moss conducted a line of questioning which Mr. Croker evidently believed was a loss of time, for he suddenly leaned forward and said: "It is not necessary to bring up what everybody knows. There is no use playing to the gailery; there is no use making speeches. I am the leader of the party, and I acknowledge it. All these people are my friends, and I am going to stick to them all the time."

Mr. Moss drew from Mr. Croker the fact that the Tammany chief believed that all the offices of administration of all departments should go to the vic torious political party. Mr. Croker said that when the Democrats placed men in office the party expected to have those men do what the leaders of the party asked them to do. He himself had recommended the appointment of various officials and the distribution of patronage. Not in every case, how-ever, he said, had his wishes been carried out. He admitted, nevertheless.

"Then you are working for your own pocket?" said Mr. Moss. "All the time, the same as you are."

"To the boss belongs the lion's share of the plunder," sneered Mr. Moss. "No plunder, no," said Croker. "You can call it what you like. You can call the bill you sent to the legislature for the work you are now doing plunder,

Mr. Croker told the committee that it was customary for candidates to office to contribute to election expenses, and stated that some contributions had been as high as $8,000 or $10,000. He said that the contributions were not compulsory, but were, in many cases, on the contrary, voluntary.

Perhaps the most interesting part of the investigation was that in which Mr. Croker was questioned closely as to how he had made his money. Mr. Croker refused to tell of his private affairs, but admitted that he was a member of several companies, one of which is the Air and Power company, good." "I've got nothing to conceal. If any one comes to me with a good stock to buy, I buy it, and so would you. I will not go into any details of my private business."

Mr. Moss endeavored, in a persuasive way, to induce Mr. Croker to give further information on the subject of money making, but the witness simply refused to give details. He declared, however, that he was willing to let Moss see the books of his office for the last seven years and see what he had

Former Judge Joseph F. Daly tes-tified that he had been notified in the early part of last October that he need not expect a renomination. This noti-fication came directly from Mr. Croker, and it was, he said, the result of his refusing to appoint a chief clerk of the court of common pleas recommend-ed by Mr. Croker, and because he had refused to make a judicial order for the removal of the legal sale to 111 Broadway, where Peter F. Myers' firm is located. Judge Daly said that he had paid $7,000 in assessments for his two nominations by Tammany Hall.

Former Judge Roger A. Pryor testified that he, too, had contributed to Tammany on account of his nomination, he having sent a check for $10,000, payable to the order of Richard Croker, chairman of the finance committee of Tammany Hall. He was subpayable to the bearer, and he did so.
John F. Carroll, Mr. Croker's chief lieutenant, did not prove a very easy witness, and because of his refusal to answer questions, Mr. Moss suggested answer questions, arr. Moss suggested that he might have to have Mr. Carroll sent to prison for contempt of court. Later he asked that Mr. Carroll's refusal to answer questions be reported to the legislature. The cause of all this was the question as to whether Mr. Carroll had any connection with the Consolidated les Co. or MINING SUPPLIE tion with the Consolidated Ice Co., o whether he held any stock therein. developed during the examination that Mr. Carroll had given up a $7,500 position to accept his present position in Tammany Hall, which, theoretically, is without salary.

Mr. Moss pointed out that therefor Mr. Carroll was without visible means of support, and was, technically, pauper. The witness, however, denied this, while at the same time he denied that he was receiving a salary from Mr. Croker or from Tammany Hall, or from anybody that the coun-sel could name fourth of a mile and never stop to rest. I am as heavy as I was at 10 years (125 lbs). I also had dinness of sight and impaired memory. I had spells that when I would try to speak I couldn't think of the words I wanted to say, but would say something else. I have improved, oh so much and Dr. Pierce's medicines have done the good work. It has been about a year since I commenced to use the medicines. My health has been improving slowly but surely. We cannot expect a disease that has been coming on for years to be cured in a few days. It any lady, suffering as I have, will write to Dr. R. V Pierce, at Buffalo, N. Y., and get his advice and use his medicines according to directions, a cure will surely result." Most dealers in medicine sell Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. There is no other medicine that is "the same" or "just as
