SAMOAN COMMISSION.

The President Instructs Our Representative, Bartlett Tripp.

ANTICIPATES QUIET AGREEMENT

Mr. Tripp Believes That There Will Be No Disposition on the Part of Any of the Three Commissioners to Protract the Conference.

Washington, April 18.—(Ex-Minister Bartlett Tripp, the American member of the Samoan commission, arrived here last evening from his home in Yankton, S. D. He had a conference with the president and Secretary of State today, when his instructions were given him. The entire commission, Baron Sternberg, Mr. Elliot and Mr. Tripp, will be entertained at luncheon by Secretary Hay.

Mr. Tripp said last night that he would leave direct for San Francisco either tonight or tomorrow morning. He had not been acquainted as yet with the plans of the other two commissioners, and the exact time of his departure had not been fixed. He declined to talk over the Samoan question and explained that even if he had any special knowledge of the islands to which he was going, the diplomatic nature of his mission precluded his entering into any statement of his views. He said, however, that he apprehended no unnecessary delay in the negotiation, and that he believed an agreement on the questions at issue would be readily reached at an early date. While he had had no communication with the other two commissioners on the subject he was confident there was no disposition on the part of any of the three to make the negotiations cover a long period, and he did not believe any obstacles to a speedy adjustment would be interposed. He himself hoped for a speedy and satisfactory agreement between the powers.

While there has been no meeting of the commission, it is understood that Mr. E. Y. Morgan, of New York, will be appointed secretary of the commission, so there also has been considerable gossip connecting the name of Dr. Wilhelm Solif with that office. Dr. Solif is now in San Francisco waiting to proceed to his post as president of the municipal council of Apla, but the creation of the high commission practically suspends his functions, as well as those of all other officials on the island.

With Mr. Tripp's arrival here all members of the commission are now in town. Mr. Elliot, the British commissioner, leaves this evening for the east on a short trip, and will proceed thence to Chicago, where he will join Baron Sternberg, the German commissioner. The latter leaves tomorrow afternoon, and it is quite probable that he and Mr. Tripp may arrange to travel together. This hurried departure will permit the execution of the plans for sailing from San Francisco on the Badger on the date fixed upon, the 26th.

QUEEN'S LEGAL BATTLE.

Expert Goldsmith Puts in Another Day Answering Questions.

THE CASE WILL REACH THE JURY

The Admission of Goldsmith's Evidence Settles That Point—The Examiner's Lawyers Serve Notice of Objection to Every Answer.

Philadelphia, April 18.—Meyer Goldsmith, the commonwealth's expert accountant, was on the stand all day yesterday in the trial of Senator Quay, making statements of fact that are apparently damaging to the defendant's side of the case. Goldsmith is the main witness for the prosecution and it is through him that all of the documentary evidence is to be presented. This witness has examined the bank's books thoroughly and he came into the courtroom yesterday with a number of typewritten sheets containing figures that he gathered from the various books, relating mainly to the deposit of the state treasurer and the account of Senator Quay. He swore to the correctness of his work and then the district attorney formally offered the paper in evidence. This was objected to by the defense on the ground that such a paper is not testimony. It was insisted that the books themselves should be placed before the witness and his statements uttered from what he saw entered in them. The judge decided in favor of the commonwealth. Although the defense apparently gained this point, the paper was practically in evidence, witness Goldsmith using its contents in framing his answers to the district attorney's questions. When the Quay lawyers objected to this they were met by the judge's explanation that while the paper could not be used as sworn evidence, the witness might use it to refresh his memory. One effect of all this was to make certain that the case will now go to the jury, there having been some doubt on this point up to the decision to admit all that Goldsmith might have to say.

Just before the close of the day's proceedings there was another ruling by Judge Biddle in favor of the defense which may have an important bearing on the future of the case. The statute of limitations has been pleaded again and again by Senator Quay's lawyers as a bar to much of the testimony presented by the commonwealth. As Mr. Quay was indicted on Nov. 17, 1898, the two years allowed by the statute for prosecution would extend back only to Nov. 17, 1896. On this basis Mr. Watson has frequently urged Judge Biddle to exclude mention of transactions dating back to 1886, when Mr. Quay was state treasurer. The court has uniformly held, in effect, that the statute of limitations does not affect the evidence but does affect the crime.

The district attorney pointed out that he alleges the defendant's guilt during the two years the law confines him to, and to prove this the corroborative evidence of the previous years should certainly be admitted. Judge Biddle decided against the commonwealth. He ruled that the evidence should be confined to the conspiracy alleged and not to some other conspiracy.

It is interesting to note that there was every indication that the judge was about to rule against Mr. Quay when Mr. Watson got in another little speech, begging the court to consider the point that the prosecution has so far failed to prove a specific conspiracy, and this should be done before it went into the general question of conspiracy. The judge took this view, and ruled accordingly. The lawyers for the defense claim that the decision practically rules out the figures prior to Nov. 17, 1896. Mr. Rothel says its effect will be to prevent him from offering much of the evidence he hoped to present.

All day long Mr. Goldsmith read out figures taken from the bank books, embracing the various settlement periods of six months, each dating back to Oct. 31, 1897, showing the amount of the state deposit, the amount loaned to Senator Quay during each six months, the amount of interest allowed the state treasurer for that portion of the state deposit apparently not set aside for Senator Quay's use, the amount of interest, any, the senator has paid on his loans, and the amount of money used to purchase stock for him. The deposit during the years mentioned ranged from $1,200,000 to $400,000. Senator Quay's loans were shown to be as great as $866,000 in one period of six months. Occasionally, the witness said, small but inadequate payments of interest by Senator Quay were shown, but generally there was nothing to indicate that he paid for the use of the bank's money.

While all these figures were going in counsel for Senator Quay sat silent and motionless, listening to the monotonous routine of question and answer. This was in pursuance to an understanding that the defense objected to every answer, that the objection was overruled and an exception noted. This is for future use in a higher court, if necessary. Once Mr. Shields felt constrained to enter an earnest protest against witness being permitted to place a man's liberty in jeopardy by making such monstrous statements, based merely on conjecture.

There is no doubt that nearly all of the expert's deductions and figures were obtained from the "rod book," about which so much has been said, and against the introduction of which the Quay counsel made such vehement but unavailing objection.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident of which Mr. John Oiler of Philadelphia is the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, an appetite gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying 'Electric Balm' and to my surprise, and to the surprise of the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim. No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at A. Waseley's drug store.

under the strain of the arduous duties he had performed since the advent of the present administration, and for over three weeks has been confined to his house in this city by nervous prostration. The general belief is that Assistant Secretary Cortelyou will succeed him if he should retire. Mr. Porter's wife and mother are anxious. It is understood that she should give up her exacting duties.

A BURDEN LIFTED.

When a woman who has long suffered from female troubles, is again restored to health she feels that a tremendous burden has been lifted from her shoulders. Her figure rounds out again. Color comes to her cheeks, and she sparkles to her eyes. She feels much the same as when a girl, and if the neighbors wouldn't talk, she chances are also would Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription go on and have a good romp, as in childhood's days. Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription lifts the burden of disease from women. It allays inflammation and stops drains in the feminine organs. It strengthens the fragile supports that hold the internal organs in place. It corrects all irregularities. It drives away the "blue" and banishes nervousness. The "burden" of child-bearing is rendered an occasion of no danger and little pain. It is the best medicine for women's ailments. The long experienced specialist in women's diseases, ever made. The Doctor will give free, fatherly advice to all women who write him at Buffalo, N. Y. No fee whatever is charged.

"I was a great sufferer for four years from displacement and ulceration" writes Mrs. Mary Pickering of Olin, Keokuk County, Iowa. "At the time I began using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription I was not able to sit up in bed. I took eight bottles and got to be a stout woman, far from being ailing, and completely cured. My little daughter for quincy and enlarged tonsils, has taken Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and is now as healthy as a horse. I will answer."

Druggists and dealers will not urge substitutes for Dr. Pierce's medicines. There are no other medicines in the world "just as good," although avaricious druggists will sometimes say so for the sake of the greater profit to be made upon the inferior articles.

THE ELECTIONS IN SPAIN.

Madrid, April 18.—Judging from the election returns thus far received the government may be expected to get 235 out of 410 seats. Two hundred and forty-three ministerialists have been elected, including 150 Silveristas, 23 Polaviejas and 30 Pidalistas. Senor Sagasta has been returned by a small majority for his birthplace, Logrono, after a sharp contest with a Republican. For the first time since 1893 Senor Romero y Robledo failed to get a seat. Senor Emilio Castelar, the distinguished Republican statesman, was defeated at Murela. Only 15 Republicans were elected. At Tortosa, southwest of Tarragona, two persons were killed and several injured in election riots.

The Army Reorganization Reduces the Departments to Five.

Washington, April 18.—The secretary of war yesterday issued orders for the reorganization of the military departments in Cuba in accordance with the change in the conditions resulting from the demobilization of the volunteer troops on that island. The number of departments is reduced from seven to five, the two eliminated being the department of Pinar del Rio, commanded by Brigadier General Hasbrouck, and the department of Matanzas, commanded by Brigadier General Bates. The department of Pinar del Rio is consolidated with the department of the province of Havana, and Brigadier General Lee is assigned to the command of the two combined departments. The department of Matanzas is consolidated with the department of Santa Clara, and Brigadier General Wilson is assigned to the command of the new department.
