QUAY CASE CLOSED.

DEFENSE OFFERED NO EVIDENCE AND WANTED THE CASE DISMISSED.

Judge Biddle, However, Overruled the Motion, and the Now Famous Case is in the Hands of the Jury.

Special to Evening Herald. Philadelphia, April 20.—When court opened this morning at 10 o'clock there was a large attendance of spectators in anticipation of sensational moves on the part of counsel for Senator Quay.

It was generally believed that the defense would submit testimony and endeavor to establish the contention that a political conspiracy is back of the prosecution, and it was hinted that Senator Quay would go on the stand and clear up some matters in doubt in connection with his dealings with the People's Bank.

The attorneys for Senator Quay made the formal announcement that they rest their case, and followed this up with a motion to dismiss the indictment, upon the grounds that the District Attorney had utterly failed to criminate Senator Quay during the period of limitation as ruled by the court.

District Attorney Rothertman opposed the motion, and after considerable argument, Judge Biddle refused to dismiss the case and ruled that it go to the jury.

When court adjourns this afternoon the jury will retire and deliberate upon the evidence submitted and render a verdict accordingly. There is a difference of opinion as to when a verdict will be reached. The lawyers for the defense are sanguine of acquittal, while others are of the opinion that the jury will either convict or disagree. Thus, the end of this remarkable trial is in sight.

A FIRE AT MIDNIGHT!

Started in an Attic Where Children Were Sleeping.

ALL ESCAPED WITHOUT HARM!

A Candle Left Burning Ignited a Trail of Tallow Which Connected With Clothing Hanging Over a Baluster—A Neighbor Gives Prompt Assistance.

There was a sensational occurrence at the home of Philip Yarowski, the grocer, on West Centre street, at about twelve o'clock last night, due to fire starting in the apartment in which his three children were sleeping.

The parents sleep on the second floor of the building and the beds of the children are in the attic. Mr. Yarowski was absent from home last night. When the wife put the children to bed early in the evening she took with her a lighted candle and left on the baluster which guards the stairway opening in the attic. The children fell asleep while the candle was still burning. There was no candlestick with it. As the candle burned the tallow trailed along the top of the baluster until it connected with some clothing thrown over the railing. When the blaze of the candle reached that point it connected with the trail of tallow a flame spread over to and ignited the clothing.

The attic was soon filled with smoke and one of the children, a boy of about ten years, was aroused by a choking sensation. He screamed for help, arousing his mother, who was asleep below. The woman hastened to the attic and commenced fighting the blaze, but as the smoke became too dense, she alarmed the neighbors. John Engelberger, a next door neighbor, entered the attic from the roof and, after assisting his mother, got the children safely down stairs, put out the fire. About this time Policemen Uralita and Hand arrived upon the scene, but there was no occasion to call out the fire department.

Little damage was done by the fire, but the escape of the children from suffocation is regarded as a close one.

THE LEGISLATURE ADJOURNS

And Penrose Alone Represents Pennsylvania in the National Senate. Harrisburg, April 20.—The great battle for United States senator ended without an election, and unless Governor Stone calls an extra session, at which there should be an election, Pennsylvania will have only one representative in the United States senate in the next two years.

After that will come the battle for the control of the state convention, which will nominate a candidate for state treasurer.

The senatorial contest began on Jan. 17. On that day Senator Quay received his highest vote, 112 senators and representatives casting their ballots for him. This was 15 less than the number necessary to a choice, and he never came nearer an election during the more than three months of the struggle. No such bitter political contest was probably ever before waged in this country. The fight has been distinctly on Quay and anti-Quay lines, and both sides had numerous representatives here at all times keeping a close watch on the members of the legislature. Both sides promise that the contest for supremacy will be carried into every county in the state and waged incessantly until final supremacy is assured.

IMPORTANT CAPTURE!

Alleged Crooked Gang Arrested in Philadelphia and Lancaster.

THEIR PARAPHERNALIA SEIZED.

It Includes a Plant For Manufacturing Counterfeit Paper—Two of the Suspects Leading Lancaster Manufacturers.

Philadelphia, April 20.—Probably the most important capture in the history of the secret service was made on Tuesday in this city by Chief John E. Wilkie and his agents, when they arrested Arthur Taylor and Baldwin S. Bredell, the makers of the famous counterfeit 'Monroe head' $100 silver certificates. These arrests were followed yesterday by the capture in Lancaster, Pa., of William M. Jacobs and William L. Kendig, two prominent cigar manufacturers, Harry Brallier and Simon Kleinordinger, Jacobs' bookkeepers, and James Burns, Kendig's foreman. There were also captured the original plates from which the silver certificates were printed, a new $100 counterfeit plate and a new $50 plate, and also three sets of plates for the printing of counterfeit revenue stamps, rolls, other paraphernalia and about five tons of paper and a large amount of counterfeit stamps. The 'Monroe head' plate and also the stamp plates and the other materials were found in Lancaster where the printing was done. The plates for the new $100 note and the $50 note were found in this city.

The officials have taken possession of the factories of the cigarmakers, and have attached their bank accounts. Taylor and Bredell, it is said, were captured while actually at work on the new plates. They are young men, who were employed in Philadelphia by different firms, but some time ago started in business for themselves. They are said to be expert engravers, and never before have been under suspicion. The men will undoubtedly be brought to trial at the earliest possible moment. They are said to have confessed that less than $10,000 of the famous $100 notes were put in circulation. The silver certificate, which was first discovered a year ago last fall, was probably the most dangerous counterfeit ever put in circulation, and even the experts of the government for a long time were undecided as to whether the note was genuine or counterfeit. The counterfeit resulted in the retirement of the whole issue.

A dispatch from Lancaster announces that those arrested in that city were taken before United States Commissioner B. F. Montgomery, and waived a hearing.

United States District Attorney Beck, of Philadelphia, was present to conduct the government's case. He said the names named in this city were charged with counterfeiting an internal revenue stamp for the payment of the tax upon 50 cigars and a United States silver certificate of the denomination of $100. They were also charged with equipping a factory at Lancaster for the manufacture of paper, in addition to these charges Kendig is charged with entering into a conspiracy with Taylor and Bredell, who were arrested Tuesday in Philadelphia, to make and engrave plates to be used in counterfeiting. Mr. Beck asked that the bail be placed in a high figure, saying that it was the most dangerous counterfeiting scheme ever evolved in this country. The operations, he said, were unparalleled in their audacity and in the mechanical ingenuity displayed. The most expert in the history of the government in the last 25 years. He said it was apparent that Brallier and Kleinordinger were merely tools, and he asked that they be released.

The commissioner fixed Jacobs' bail at $45,000 and that of Kendig and Burns at $25,000 each. Kendig was released on bail last night, but Jacobs and Burns were sent to jail and this morning were brought to Philadelphia.

ANOTHER SENSATIONAL ARREST

Prominent Lancaster Lawyer Charged With Being an Officer.

Philadelphia, April 20.—A sensational arrest was made in this city last night in connection with the capture of the counterfeiting gang. Harvey K. Newitt, who was assistant United States district attorney in this city during the administration of President Harrison, was taken into custody by secret service men on a warrant sworn out by Chief Wilkie, charging him with bribing Detective McManus, of the Philadelphia office. He was given a preliminary hearing before United States Commissioner Edmunds and held in $15,000 bail, which was furnished by a wealthy friend. It was shown at the hearing that on March 6 Newitt gave McManus $500 as a bribe, and on March 23 $500 more. This money was turned over to Mr. Wilkie as soon as it was received.

According to the story told by one of the officers, Kendig, of Lancaster, suspected early this year that he and his confederates were being watched by secret service men in Lancaster. He came to this city and engaged Newitt as a go-between to bribe Officers Burns and McManus, who were working on the case. Burns was not approached, but Newitt saw McManus and the latter agreed to accept the bribe. All of the meetings between Newitt and McManus were witnessed by members of Mr. Wilkie's force, and the evidence against him is said to be most positive.

It is stated here that enough counterfeit stamps were captured by the detectives in Lancaster to cover 440,000,000 cigars. As near as can be learned about $140,000 worth of bogus stamps have been used on cigars thus far sent out from Lancaster.

Delegates to General Assembly. At the meeting of the Lehigh Presbytery, at Hasleton yesterday afternoon, the following were elected as commissioners to the General Assembly, which meets at St. Paul during May: Rev. J. W.
