OUR COUNTRY: First, Last and Forever.

Several Democratic candidates are already forming combinations; and some of them will be broken.

Now that Capt. Coughlin, of the Raleigh, has had his say, and gotten his shore legs on, he will probably withdraw his remarks.

WHILE Mr. Croker refused to tell how he got some of the wealth for which no one knows him to work, there were others who have divulged some of the ways by which this great leader of the New York Democracy amasses wealth.

On account of the expenses incurred in equipping the new Guard to take the place of the men who went from the old Guard into the volunteer service in the Spanish-American war, there will be no encampment this summer.

Of the sins of omission charged against the late departed legislature that neglected to reform the ballot laws of the state is among the most glaring.

Extending Immigration Laws. Washington, April 25.—Assistant Secretary Melkielehn, of the war department, has issued an order extending the immigration laws of the United States to Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippine Islands.

Arrayed Class Against Class. There were some passages in Bryan's speech at the New York banquet that would be more in keeping with a socialist harangue than with what, prior to 1896, was called a Democratic speech.

The best medicine that money can buy is Hood's Sarsaparilla. First, because it combines economy and strength. There is more concentrated merit and medicinal power in a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla than in half a dozen bottles of others.

This is the kind of talk to be expected from Herr Most rather than from a man asking to be elected President of a great nation. Bryan denounces the millions who voted against him, constituting a majority of the American people, as persons plotting to rob their fellow-citizens.

The government has conscripted no man since the days of the civil war, and Bryan's reference to that point shows the hollowness of the arguments to which he resorts. Nor did the Republican party prefer the dollar to the man in 1896.

The mouthing and pretensions of Bryan, on the other hand, sought for and obtained the command of a regiment, though without military experience. When the place became inconvenient he resigned, yet the regiment is still in service.

After all he is a demagogue who is found out and beaten, and his socialistic ranting can be discounted accordingly.

AFTER ANOTHER CAPITAL. Our Troops Will Try to Capture Acapulco at Calumit.

Washington, April 25.—Information received at the war department indicates that General Otis is about to execute another important movement. The objective point is the insurgent town of Calumit, lying about eight miles northwest of Malolos. It was here that the insurgents concentrated after being driven out of their capital, setting up a new capital and making it the base of their operations.

Victims of the Whitney Wreck. Five Bodies Washed Ashore, But None of the Wreckage. New Smyrna, Fla., April 25.—Captain Hawthorne, of the wrecked Morgan line steamer Whitney, had embalmed and shipped home yesterday the body of H. Sullivan, an officer on the General Whitney, which came ashore at Oak Hill. He also had embalmed five bodies that came ashore within five miles of Coronado.

Novel Suit for Damages. Washington, April 25.—A suit for damages has been instituted by one Washington dry goods firm against another which involves a novel point of general interest. The charge is that the defendant firm "maliciously, unlawfully and unjustly" conspired to persuade one of plaintiff's clerks to leave his employ and enter that of the defendant, by reason of which the plaintiff was compelled to increase the clerk's salary in order to retain his services.

Refracting the Raleigh's Sailors. New York, April 25.—One hundred and twenty sailors from the United States cruiser Raleigh, clad in their naval uniforms, were given a banquet in the Astor gallery of the Waldorf-Astoria hotel last night. The entertainment was planned and carried out by a committee including Roosevelt, Edward William C. Whitney, William P. McAldoo, and George J. Gould.
