GERMAN VIEW OF COGHLAN. Kalser's Government Satisfied With

Secretary Hay's Disapproval. Berlin, April 25.-John Hay, secretary of state of the United States, has expressed to the German ambassador at Washington, Dr. Von Holleben, his emphatic disapproval of the conduct of Joseph B. Coghlan, of the United States cruiser Raleigh, in uttering in a recent speech sentiments calculated to irritate the German government. In official circles the Cohlan incident is regarded mildly as an "ausfluss der weinlaune" (expression of wine humor). A representative of the foreign office said:

"The American government has promptly and efficiently done all we could reasonably expect. This alone, even if it were not for other indications, shows us that the American govrnment in no way identifies itself with the utterances of a solitary of-

The Tageblatt In an inspired arti-le recalls the fact that the incident is a year old (referring to the message which Admiral Dewey is said to have ent to Admiral Von Diedrichs), and adds:

"If we must admit Admiral Dewey at first harbored suspicions of the German squadron, these suspicions were subsequently removed and their relations became most cordial, Admiral Dewoy even decorating his ships with lags on the empress' birthday, which nternational etiquette did not compel Im to do.

The Lokal Anzeiger, in a somewhat lolent denunciation of Captain Cogh-

"He comes of Irish-American lineage, which notoriously produces the oughs, both high and low, of the American classes." The Boersen-Courier thinks it

"strange the Americans recommence to seek a quarrel with Germany instead of first conquering the Filipinos, who promise to give them enough work for some time.' The Vossiche Zeitung adds: "Captain Coghian belongs to the class of Ameri-can officers who have swelled heads in consequence of their easy victory over

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bid cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four Doctors gave me up, saying I could live aut a short time. I gave myself up to my savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth. I would meet my absent my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Conghs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at A. Wasley's Drug Store Regular size 50c and $1.00. given a chance to confess to the mis-deeds of which the mob supposed him to be guilty, but he protested his in-nocence to the last. Three times the noose was placed around his neck and the negro was drawn up off the ground. Three times he was let down with a warning that death was in store for him should he fail to confess his com-plicity in the Cranford murder. Three times Strickland proclaimed his inocence until, weary of useless torturing, the mob pulled on the rope and tied the end around the slender trunk of the persimmon tree. Not a shot was fired. Strickland was strangled to death. The lynching of Strickland was not the lynching of the negro. Said he "Gentlemen, this negro is innocent Hose said Lige had promised to give him $20 to kill Alfred Cranford, and I believe Lige has not had $20 since he has been on my place. I do not ask you to liberate him. Hold him, and if the courts adjudge him guilty, hang him.

Mr. Thomas called attention to the fact that Strickland had voluntarily told of having seen Hose on the night of the murder, and finally a vote was taken, which resulted in a unanimous decision to let him live. With the assurance that Strickland would be taken to Fairburn jall the major returned to his home. A mile further on the lynching took place. The negro was a tenant on the plan-tation of Major Thomas. When Sam Hose, the murderer of Alfred Cran-ford and the assailant of his wife, made his confession immediately prior to his burning, he implicated Lige Strickland, Hose contending that he had been offered money by Strickland to kill Cranford. It was known positively, however, that Hose had made false statements in his last confession, and many of those who alded in his burning were disposed to disregard his statement in regard to Strickland. Late Sunday night about 15 men went to the plantation of Major Thomommittee proved far less interesting than any previous one. The session was entirely devoted to probing the various enevolent and other societies which are supported solely by members of the police force. John Proctor Clarke, who conducted the greater part of the examination, intimated by his questions that while the single headed po-lice bill was pending at Albany levies were made on all ranks of the force for funds to oppose it, but his witnesses failed to give any confirmation to the implied allegation of legislative corruption. Mr. Croker was not called as a witness, and on his promise to return to this country was excused from
