BATTLE WITH INDIANS.

One of the Bedskins Killed and Several Others Arrested. Cornwall, Ont., May 2,-The St. Reis Indian reservation, on the south side of the St. Lawrence, about six miles east of here, was the scene of a fatal affray yesterday between a detachment of Dominion police and the Indians. Jake Ice was instantly killed and two other Indians were wound-

A large proportion of the Indians of St. Regis village and St. Regis Island object to the election of chiefs for terms of three years, under the Indian act, and are determined to stick to their old tribal system of life chiefs. In this stand they are en-couraged by the Indians of the adjoining American reservation, who, like effects of the well known remedy, the Canadian reds, are a branch of the Symur or Figs, manufactured by the great Iroquois tribe. Three times the Indians have by force prevented the holding of an election, the last time on March 27 last, when they attacked inspector Hogan and Officer Chamberlain, of the Dominion police, and kept Indian Agent Long a prisoner for several hours.

Controversy Between United States and County Judges in Missonet. Osceola, Mo., May 2.—The expected conflict between United States deputy marshals and the three judges of St. Clair county, predicted for yesterday, did not materialize. The judges, hav ing been warned that there would be a force of deputies here, decided not to come to town, but instead, it is said, held court somewhere in the woods. It has developed that the tax levy for the regular county fixed has already been made. It had been the urpose of United States Marshal Dunham and his deputies, acting under the orders of Federal Judge Philipps, to effect the arrest of the St. Clair county judges when they met here The pleasant method and beneficial yesterday in regular session to make the annual tax levy. According to the clerk of the court the judges came into town stealthily on Friday night, met in the court house, made the tax levy and returned to the brush.

It was stated that the long fight of the people of St. Clair county against the levy of a special tax to pay interest on bonds of a railroad that was never built might end in bloodshed yesterday when the three fugitive judges, who had been in hiding to prevent the United States officials from compelling them to levy the special tax or suffer arrest, should come here to open the regular term of court. It was stated that the judges would be protected by a mob of 500 farmers.

Village of San Andres, in Puerto Principe Province, Looted.

THE VILLAGERS TERRORIZED.

They Are Frantically Begging the Americans for Protection-An Amer-Ican Tells How Cuban Officers Made Money at Expense of the Starving.

Havana, May 2 .- According to dispatches from Puerto Principe province, the village of San Andres was recenty raided by a band of 40 outlaws led by Autonio Barcelo, formerly a citizen The of Holguin, Santiago province. place was completely sacked, the bandits carrying off 20 horses, a large quantity of clothing and groceries and $1,200 in money. Five mounted men, the dispatches say, attacked a store in the village of Tiena Azul, abducted the proprietor and his wife and carried away $200 in money. The people of the locality are frantically begging for protection, and a force of rural guards is greatly needed. The country folks are moving into the larger towns for safety, while the planters, many of whom have bought quantities of sugar cane in isolated localities, fear that the marauders will destroy it before it can be gathered.

La Verdad, the leading newspaper of the city of Puerto Principe, comment-ing upon these conditions, bitterly denounces the American administration, charging the United States authorities with being "slow to relieve need" and with being "more occupied with trifles than with the serious work of reconstruction."

Mr. Beattle, a wealthy sugar planter, who has arrived here from Manzanillo, in the western part of Santiago prov-ince, says there is no trouble in his district at present, but owing to the expected early removal of the Fourth immune regiment property holders there feel a good deal of anxiety. He points out that many laborers who were formerly soldiers in the Cuban army are greatly disgusted at what they know of the way many of the Cuban officials made money while the war was in progress. According to Mr. Beattie, any Cuban general might give orders for the purchase of cattle to be killed and distributed for food among the starving, but, as the transaction worked out, the officers who secured the orders sold the cattle to friendly planters like himself, and would then proceed to divide the purchase money, cording to rank.

Mr. Beatty was very anxious to get rid of the Spanish regime, and he gave the Cubans all the help in his power, but he declares that he would much rather have Spanish than Cuban rule as the latter is now expressing itself. In his opinion the United States should remain in military occupation of Cuba at least 10 years, and he would have Washington make an announcement to the world at once to that effect. This would make practicable the immediate investment of capital, a large amount of which is now lying idle in Cuba, only waiting for a definite ex-pression of policy by President Mc-Kinley.

General Ludlow complains that one of the principal difficulties Havana is now suffering from is the presence of many "worthless Americans"-men who come here virtually to change their usual sphere of idleness,
