POTTSVILLE NEWS.

Happenings in Court and Elsewhere at the County Seat.

Pottsville, May 2.—The Borough Council has decided to secure the consent of property owners toward cutting down the Centre street hump, to cost about $4,275.

The Crescent Club's May Assembly last evening was a brilliant affair.

The coroner's jury found the old man wanted on the Penna. Railroad near the Seven Stars hotel to be A. K. Bektrauser, of Shamokin. The body was taken by his family.

Some of the new post office furniture arrived.

More records were sent to the President at San Francisco by Lieut. Moses for services in the Philippines.

Old members of Co. H, 8th Regiment, have decided to permit physical examination by Brigade Surgeon Halberstadt next Monday evening, and then Pottsville will have three companies, or a battalion.

Assemblyman David F. O'Brien is a candidate for Clerk of the Courts.

The funeral of Mrs. Oliver Dobson, an old resident, widow of the once well known hatter, took place this afternoon; that of the late Sidney B. Briscoe, the New Philadelphia merchant, Monday afternoon; and Julius A. Miller, superintendent of the Children's Home, was buried Tuesday afternoon.

The Democratic standing committee will be called to meet on Saturday, May 20th, at Union hall, Pottsville, to fix a date for the county convention. Chairman Meyer and the party leaders favor an early date. The state convention will probably be held on June 7th and it is probable an effort will be made to have the county convention held the week after—on June 12th. Many good reasons are advanced for this.

Letters of administration were granted to Fred T. Ludwig, on the estate of Julius Miller, late of Trenton, deceased; Patrick J. Ryan, on the estate of Ellen Ryan, late of Gilberton, deceased; August Knecht, on the estate of John Thomas Schmitt, late of Yorkville, deceased.

The Taxpayers' Association is expected to seek an injunction against the bonds the County Commissioners propose issuing. The clerks of the Commissioners are preparing a statement of assets and liabilities to file with the Clerk of the Courts.

Letters testamentary were granted to Mary Ann Saylor, on the estate of Charles Saylor, late of Pottsville, deceased; Safe Deposit bank, on the estate of Sydney B. Briscoe, late of Pottsville, deceased; Catherine Meyer, on the estate of Benjamin Meyer, late of Rush township, deceased; Samuel Boyer, on the estate of Mary Neifert, late of Rush township, deceased; Mary Brennan, on the estate of William P. Delaney, late of Shenandoah, deceased.

CRIMINAL COURT.
Thomas W. Reese, of Tamaqua, who was found guilty of adultery, prosecuted Ames Swade, of the same town, on the charge of selling liquor at his hotel on Sunday. The verdict was not guilty and each pay half the costs.

Patrick Boyle, who had been out of jail but a short time when he stole a $2 pair of shoes from the front of Fogarty Bros. store, pleaded guilty and got two years for it from Judge Marr. Officer "Jack" Stevenson was the prosecutor.

John Eckert, of Pinegrove township, pleaded guilty to a charge of stealing the love of W. A. Hummel's wife and was sentenced to pay a $25 fine and the costs.

Samuel G. Ochs pleaded guilty to a charge of f. and b. preferred by Mamie Underreuder, and got the usual sentence to pay the costs, lying in expense, a fine and $1 per month for seven years toward the support of the child.

Joseph Packer pleaded guilty to a similar charge brought by Emma L. Hand and received a similar sentence. Most of such defendants serve three months in jail and then if they are without property are discharged under the insolvent laws.

Alex. Lavender pleaded guilty to house-breaking and larceny, and Judge Marr gave him $50 fine, the costs and six months.

George Frees pleaded guilty to malicious mischief and got three months.

Frank Beckman pleaded guilty to assault and battery and must do 30 days.

Edward Borer pleaded guilty to placing tracks on the highway near Port Carbon, to injure bicycle tires, and got the costs, $10 fine and 30 days.

Judge Bechtel heard the suit of William Hopkins vs. George Wenlock, on a charge of stealing a dog valued at $100 from the Ferguson house, at Shenandoah. Elmer Ransuch, who was a porter at the hotel at the time, testified that Wenlock went with him to the P. & R. Railway station and shipped the dog to some place at a distance. Assistant Station-master Deen testified that when he asked Ransuch the name of the man who was being shipped, he was being shipped to identify the person. Ransuch replied, "Alex. Watts." Wenlock denied that he was near the station, and said he did not steal the dog. E. W. Shoemaker, Esq., represented the prosecution and Messrs. Flannigan and Robinson the defendant. The jury retired.

David Bretz was found not guilty of mistreating Mrs. Luckenbill, a demented woman of Washington township.

Mrs. George Earnest, charged with assault by Mrs. Frank Houser; guilty, $5 fine and costs.

Edward Nolan, usual charge on oath of Michael Werner; pleaded guilty, usual sentence.

Judge Marr heard the charge of desertion preferred by Elizabeth Reinhold, of Union township, against her husband, Henry. It was shown that there was really no difficulty between the couple beyond an idea the husband had regarding the medical of his wife's relatives. It is shown Reinhold was a good man, held his wife in respect and loved his children. Judge Marr suspended sentence in expectation that the parties will agree to a settlement.

William Ferriday, surety, on oath of John Zimmerman; court directed defendant to pay $5 fine, the costs, and give $100 bond to keep the peace.

The Grand Jury ignored the bills and put the costs on the prosecutors in the following cases: Peter Holden, violating liquor laws, oath of George F. Seibert; Peter McAlones, assault and battery, on oath of P. Labotte; Theodore Howelock, selling liquor without a license, on oath of George F. Seibert; John Riordan, assault and battery to rob, on oath of A. Grass; John Cornash, assault and battery, on oath of Jacob Biggus; Sylvester Donavag, aggravated assault and battery, on oath of John Gehans; Andy Mayersch, assault and battery, on oath of Steve Evans.

A trial bill was found against Harry Becker, of Girardville, in the Cartermen case, the fight which took place the day of Hon. Harry Constein's nomination.

The large number of divorce cases now in court has caused some comment.
