CHILD'S BODY FOUND.

The Parents Were Too Poor to Purchase a Grave.

Some excitement was occasioned in town yesterday morning by the announcement that the dead body of a child had been found on Leost mountain. Deputy Coroner Burke was notified and the investigation following resulted in the location of the child's parents. They were Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Yost, of East Lloyd street. They stated that the child was born on the 1st inst. Yost purchased a coffin, but had no money with which to buy a grave, so he buried the body just outside the Odd Fellows cemetery. The burial was not made sufficiently deep and the dogs unearthed the remains. They were taken in charge by O'Hara Bros., the undertakers, and today sent by express to the Schuylkill Haven almshouse, for interment in the burial ground there. Deputy Coroner Burke is to hold an inquest to-night.

CASES AT THE COURT.

The Civil Term Opened at Pottsville This Morning.

JUDGES BECHTEL AND MARR SIT.

The charge against John Sparr by His Son's Wife Dismissed—Messrs. Laubenstein, Patterson and Bryant Appointed Bicycle Side Path Commissioners.

Pottsville, May 15.—The first week of civil court opened with a fairly large attendance this morning. Judges Bechtel and Marr were on the bench. Several decisions were handed down by both, among them the following:

Charles Leahy appointed registry assessor of Cole's election district No. 1, Mahanoy township. Jacob Felty appointed majority inspector of Pinegrove township, west.

The report of viewers for opening a new road in South Manheim township was confirmed absolutely. A number of bonds handed up last Monday were approved, with the exception of one from South Manheim township, a tax collector's bond, which was not approved because a person whose name appeared as a bondsman notified the court that he never signed the bond.

The court announced that if an affidavit were filed that at least 25 of the 35 petitioners for the appointment of three side-path commissioners are freeholders and owners of bicycles, the court would name the appointees. Charles A. Snyder, Esq., answered that such an affidavit would be filed. It was done later. The court then appointed the following Commission: A. L. Laubenstein, of Ashland, for the northern district; Joseph F. Patterson, of Pottsville, middle district; Willis Bryant, Schuylkill Haven, southern district. They will assume their duties on January 1, 1900, by which time the bicycle tax will have been levied, collected, and be available for use in the construction of side paths for bicycles along the public highways.

Watson F. Shepherd, Esq., is unable to appear at court, owing to an affliction of the eyes, and several cases in which he is counsel were continued.

SCHOOL APPROPRIATION CUT.

Governor Stone Says These Appropriations Have Embarrassed the State.

Harrisburg, May 15.—Governor Stone has made public his action on the general appropriation bill, which provides for the ordinary expenses of the various branches of the state government, the interest on the public debt and for the support of the public schools for the two fiscal years beginning June 1, 1899. He has made a cut of $1,000,000 in the school appropriation and reduced several other items whereby he saves in the aggregate $1,500,000, which will be applied to reducing the floating debt of the commonwealth.

The governor has filed in the office of the secretary of the commonwealth a statement giving his reasons for disapproving certain items in the bill and approving parts of certain other items. He recites the history of the steady increase that has been made in the school appropriation since the adoption of the constitution of 1874, which requires that not less than $1,000,000 shall be appropriated annually for the support of the common schools. He shows that in 1885, when the fund was increased from $500,000 to $5,000,000, the additional $5,000,000 was intended to be used to enforce the free text book law.

The net annual revenues of the commonwealth are about $11,000,000, of which there is paid out of the state treasury annually more than $5,000,000 in support of the cause of education. Governor Stone says the magnificent appropriation to the public schools has financially embarrassed the state so that if the revenues would justify it he would cheerfully allow the appropriation to remain at $11,000,000. He claims it is absolutely necessary to reduce the appropriation, and he is confident the people will justify him in making a reduction of $500,000 annually in order that the appropriations made by prior legislatures may be paid.

THE WRECK AT EXETER.

The List of the Dead Has Now Reached Twenty-nine.

SIXTEEN LIVED AT NORRISTOWN.

The Accident the Result of Somebody's Blunder, and the Coroner Will Conduct a Rigid Investigation in an Endeavor to Place the Responsibility.

Reading, Pa., May 15.—The total number of dead as a result of Friday night's rear end collision on the Philadelphia and Reading railway at Exeter, six miles below here, reached 29 yesterday. William D. Jenkins, of Norristown, dying at the Charity hospital at Norristown. Of the large number of injured persons still in the hospitals here three are in serious condition, and small hope is entertained for their recovery. They are William Friederhorn, Thaddeus S. Adie and George W. Holmes, all of Norristown. Holmes' 9-year-old son was instantly killed in the accident, but the hospital physicians have not yet informed the father of the boy's death. All of the bodies here have been identified and all the bodies have been claimed by relatives or friends and have been sent to their various homes.

The body which was on Saturday thought to be C. H. Howell, of Phoenixville, Pa., was yesterday positively identified as that of Captain Charles T. Street, of Philadelphia. A card bearing the name of Howell was found on the body and this led to the belief that it was Howell.

Norristown suffered the most severely by the disaster, 16 of the dead having lived in that city. They were: William Stahler, druggist; William Camm, retired; Colonel George Schall, retired; John Slinghoff, chief of fire department; William H. Lewis, produce dealer; F. D. Bowers, proprietor of book store; Henry Richards, real estate dealer; Charles H. White, real estate dealer; John Kuntz, milk dealer; Henry J. Coulson, iron worker; Joseph Taylor, colored porter; Harry Thompson, watchman; Samuel McCarthy, contractor; Isaac M. Fillman, fireman; Norman C. Holmes, aged 9; William D. Jenkins, laborer.

The other 13 victims were: Lucien J. Custer, aged 20, and Daniel H. Yoder, 40, both of Pottstown; Jacob W. Markley, Philadelphia; John Johnson, Mt. Carmel, Pa.; H. C. Hartford, Philadelphia; Captain Charles Leaf, Fort Washington, Pa.; E. L. Hunsberger, Conshohocken, Pa.; C. L. Lavery, Harrisburg; E. E. Shelby, Hatboro, Pa.; C. H. Powell, Phoenixville, Pa.; Michael Lawn, 37, Germantown; Captain C. W. Eicholtz, Downingtown, Pa.; Samuel W. Henry, Conshohocken.

At least 10,000 persons visited the scene of the catastrophe in the first few days. Railroad trains brought crowds, and hundreds came on foot. Relief hunters kept the police busy. Almost everybody was bent on carrying away some kind of memento. Many of the people did not hesitate to take away with them pieces of wood thoroughly saturated with human blood. Everything in the neighborhood of the wreck is bespattered with blood, and the sight was a gruesome one.

The question as to who is responsible for the catastrophe is still being discussed here. That some one blundered is generally admitted by railroad men. Who it was that blundered, however, no one seems to positively know, and opinions on this point differ widely.

The Reading officials here yesterday took the trainmen to task, saying that who were concerned in the affair, and they were sent to the general offices of the company in Philadelphia. What these statements contain the officials refuse to say.

The coroner will begin a rigid inquiry this afternoon. He has summoned a large number of witnesses.

State Hospital Funds. Governor Stone has granted to the Mincer hospital at Fountain Springs an appropriation of $84,750. This is a reduction of $8,000 from the amount granted by the Legislature. The Pottsville Hospital receives $15,000, the same amount that was appropriated by the previous Legislature, but a reduction of $5,000 granted at the recent session. There are now only three measures in the hands of the Governor, the general appropriation bill, the Erie Judge bill, and the State College bill.
