POTTSVILLE NEWS. Happenings in Court and Elsewhere at the County Seat.

> Pottsville, May 16 .- The second day of ivil court opened with a small attendance. There are thirty-five cases on the calendar or this week, and out of that number wenty-four have been marked for trial, so hat both Judge Bechtel and Judge Marr will be kept busy. Next week the long cause list will begin, and seventeen cases out of a total of thirty, have been aunounced as ready for trial. Those serving as jurges this work from Shenandoah are as follows: Edward Early, William Zimmerman, James Burna, C. T. Straughn and Morgan Davis.

THE PLUST CASE The first case called this week was that in which S. P. Thomas, Joseph R. Thomas and Jerre Fessier are defendants and Washing-ton Camp No. 73, P.O. S. of A., prosecutor. Thomas was trensurer of the camp and it appears appropriated $600 of the camp's inds to his own use, and upon which the sump subsequently accepted interest. The camp now seeks to recover that amount from his bondsmen. C. N. Brumm represents the camp, and Charles Berger the deodant. The lawyers addressed the jury veste day afternoon, and when court opened this morning judge Bechtel delivered his charge. The jury rendered a verdict in favor camp for the amount claimed, with in Returnable May 29; In the estate of John Phillips, deceased, a corrected distribution statement was filed. In the estate of Decatur E. Nice, decoased, the return of sale was confirmed; In the estate of Wm. Guinther, deceased, Court fixed May 29th for reading the return of the real estate; Is the estate of Jane Davis, deceased, court permitted Wm. L. Davis, the executor, to nortgage the property.

THE ARBITHATORS' AWARD, The case of Mrs. Elizabeth Griffiths, of Shonandoah, against William Thickens, supervisor for the Girard Estate, and Join Broscius was arbitrated in the office of Me-Henry Withelm, Esq., at Ashland on Thursday. It is an action to recover rent for and secure ejectment from Mrs. Griffiths' house treatment by Her Hughand on West Oak street, Shenandoah, Broscius refused to pay, or leave, because the Girard Estate installed him in the house when the Estate ejected him from a house on Lecust mountain, and says he never obligated himself to pay any rent. The Estate disclaims any responsibility for rent after the first The property was rented in January, 1898, and Broscius and his family still ive in it. The arbitrators gave an award in favor of Mrs. Griffiths for the amount of rent due, and declare that Brosins must vacate the house.
