OUR COUNTRY: First, Last and Forever

No general of either ancient or modern times ever equaled Aguinaldo's record for abandoning capitals.

On September 9 next, people will date their letters not all people, but a large number 9.9.99. How long will it be before a similar collocation of numbers occurs, and how often will it occur in the 20th century Perhaps 1-1-01 might be accepted, and 2-2-02, meaning Candlemas day, 1992 would certainly be so. It will be a long time however before we reach the darkey's favorite figures of 4-11-44.

REAR ADMIRAL WATSON has sailed for Manila to succeed to the command as soon as Dewey is ready to come home, the administration hoping he will come to receive the welcome of the people. It will be a great welcome, and already dinners are projected and oh-be-joyfuls of every perfect. kind. The Admiral has given a qualified promise to attend the National Encampment of the Grand Army, to be held in the fall in Philadelphia This will give Schuylkill people a convenient opportunity to see and give him the glad hand.

IT is announced in political quarters that Mrs. John Reynolds has been decided upon as the successor to her ing for Europe. late husband, as postmaster at Mahanov Plane. There was quite a contest for this office, William Middleton, one of the most prominent and influential Republicans of that place being a candidate and having the support of the party workers. Senator Penrose, since the retirement of Mr. Brumm, has the selection of postmasters in this county, and he makes his selections upon the recommendation of the party leaders. It appears, from what is considered reliable authority, that Hon. Elias is almost too late, because the first symptoms Davis, in company with Major Finney are so like mild sickness that they do not and John J. Coyle, called upon the Senator and secured the appointment of Mrs. Revnolds. And now the unsuccessful candidates are kicking.

Guillain, communicated to those present the contents of a telegram received by the governor of Jiboutil from Major Marchand, saying the mission was in perfect health and would arrive at Jibotil on May 16. The dispatch added:

'At the moment of our arrival at the end of our journey across Africa and the termination of three years spent in the accomplishment of the task entrusted to us, the chief of the mission and his officers beg you to renew to the government and their military chiefs the assurance of their respectful devotion and of the spirit of discipline and obedience which three years spent in the bush has been unable to alter.

The ministers decided to grant the swards to officers asked for by Major Marchand, and they also drew up a program of the fetes to be given in onor of the African traveler.

Major Marchand will be officially received at Toulon by the naval prefect and delegates from the ministry of marine and the ministry of the colonies. On his arrival in this city he will be met at the railroad station by representatives of the ministry of war, ministry of marine, the ministry of the colonies, the president of the republic and a committee of the military club. Beltimore, May 17.—John Berry, the 18-year-old colored boy who killed
Miss Amanda Clarke, by whom he was imployed as a servant, near Bowie, Prince George's county, was yesterday convicted of murder in the first degree by a jury in the criminal court and sentenced by Judge Wright to be hanged. He received the sentence with the same indifference he has exhibited since the trial began Monday morning.

Berry, on the evening of March 18, beat Miss Amanda Clark and her sis-Miss Annie Clark, with a billet of wood. Miss Amanda died on the following day without regaining consciousness. Miss Annie recovered from the assault before the negro secured any of the valuables for which he committed the deed. With threats of again attacking her, Berry compelled her to swear on the crucifix that she would not make known the occurrence of the night. He then, upon her solicitation, notified a priest and a physician that their services were needed at the Berry was suspected of being the murderer, and was at once arrested upon suspicion. His counsel had the case removed to Haltimore, on the ground that he could not secure a fair trial in Montgomery county.

Two Killed in a Strike Rlot. Little Rock, Ark., May 17.—Forty strikers attacked 25 colored coal miners behind a stockade at mine No. 53. near Huntington, firing volley after volley at them. Men on guard at the stockade returned the fire, killing one of the strikers. John Wright, one of the guards, was killed, and another, James Campbell, seriously wounded. A number of new guards have been posted about the mine and more trouble is feared. The colored miners had been imported from Illinois several days ago to take the places of the strikers,
