A VICIOUS ASSAULT.

Knife blade Plunged a Dozen Times Into the Victim.

It is surprising that William Turki, a Lithuanian of town, is alive after the treatment he received at a boarding house on South Pear alley Saturday at the hands of Frank Kordecki. The latter was taken into custody by Policeman Lattis and Constable Phillips.

The assailant and his victim had a quarrel at the house referred to and Kordecki used a pocket knife with bloody effect. Several of his plunges barely missed vital points. Turki was stabbed twelve times. There was one wound in the head, another in the neck, just missing the jugular vein; in the right and left shoulders, right forearm, this one six inches long; in the left breast, about an inch above the heart; on the right arm, and in the right side and back.

Dr. J. G. Church was called upon to attend the victim and said the man looked as if he had been in a chopping machine. He added that Kordecki must have some knowledge of surgery to be able to cut so close to vital spots, and yet avoid inflicting fatal injury.

When the case was up before Justice Shoemaker a settlement was made by which the prosecutor was released upon payment of $5 to the prosecutor, the doctor's bill and the costs.

Stolen Beer Recovered.
When John Donovan, a driver for the Columbia Brewing Company, left his wagon standing at the corner of Lloyd and Gilbert streets and went into a saloon at five o'clock Saturday afternoon, Samuel Hinks, James Hughes and Joseph Flock took a keg of beer from the wagon and hastened with it to the rear-end of a lot half a square away. Before they could get the keg tapped, Donovan, in company with Constable Bolla and others, pounced upon them. They were taken to the driver and the thieves were taken to the lockup. As the brewing company lost nothing by the theft it did not wish to prosecute the men, and they were discharged after paying the costs of the arrests.

They Are Now M. D's.
The graduating exercises at the Medical-Chiroprical College, in Philadelphia, were held on Saturday, when diplomas were given to 147 graduates in medicine. Among the number were Christian Grubler, son of Rev. John Grubler, and William J. Scanlan, brother of Frank Scanlan, of the County Commissioners' office. Both young men are residents of this town and passed with high honors.

THREATENED BY FLAMES.

A Family Had a Narrow Escape Early This Morning.

THEY FLED THROUGH THE FIRE!

It Started While All Were Asleep and the Flames Were in the Mainway as They Descended—Property on West Apple Alley the Scene.

A fire that barely missed resulting in the loss of lives occurred on West Apple alley this morning. The alarm was sounded almost simultaneously with the blowing of colliery whistles at the usual hour, 5:30 o'clock, and stirred up the town, as the location of the box from which the alarm was sounded led many people to suppose that the fire was at Kiskimuncie colliery.

The scene of the fire was the property of David B. Jones, a double block located at Nos. 517 and 519 West Apple alley, one part being occupied by Jones and his family, and the other by the family of John G. Madie. Mr. Jones and his wife, the Kiskimuncie colliery. He was at work during the fire. Much sympathy is expressed for him, as the property was only built about three years ago and he cleared it of debt only recently. His family is a large one, consisting of himself, wife and eight children.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones arose at three o'clock this morning, and after the former went to work the wife returned to bed. About two hours later the family was aroused by cries from the woman in front of the house. Mrs. Jones sprang from her bed and found the apartments full of smoke. She aroused all her children and they had time only to scurry to clad themselves. Mrs. Jones says the flames were making their way up the double block in spite of its hoodway, and extinguishing it before the property was wholly destroyed. The eastern half of the block, occupied by the Jones family, was so badly burned that it will have to be rebuilt. The front and west side of the other half is in comparatively good condition. The property was insured, but the amount was not learned. The Jones family lost all household effects and the wearing apparel of the entire family. The family in the adjoining dwelling saved considerable furniture, and the contents of the first floor, but the contents of the second had to be abandoned to the flames.

No one can give the origin of the fire, but the appearance of the ruins indicated that it started in the kitchen shanty at the rear of the Jones property, which was entirely destroyed, while the shanty of the adjoining house remained standing, although ruined by the flames.

NOTES.
One of the Columbia Ice Company horses kicked a bystander who got too close to him at the fire, but did not inflict serious injury.

Adam Kaniner, of the Rescue company, was struck on the back of the head by a ladder. He was cut, but not seriously and continued on duty. The ladder did not reach the book and ladder truck did not reach the fire with the usual promptness. This was due to the front part of the truck being sagged and in need of repairs. Marshall Hughes, driver, was obliged to drive cautiously on that account.

Three firemen on a roof west of the burning building narrowly escaped being pushed to the ground when a line of hose with heavy pressure momentarily got beyond their control.

Two disinterested Polish men in a house a short distance from the scene of the fire got into a fight over a discussion as to the origin. They stopped when the police approached the place.

POTTSVILLE NEWS.

Happenings in Court and Elsewhere at the County Seat.

The second week of civil court opened this morning with Judges Bechtel and Marr and Judge Lyon, of Juniata county, on the bench.

In the matter of the application of George W. and Julia Strang for an order to set aside judgment, the money having been paid to the Prothonotary, Judge Bechtel refused the application, on the ground that the Supreme Court had decided that the money is paid to the Prothonotary, the court must affirm the judgment. The parties must make application to open the judgment. There will be another hearing next Monday.

In the case of the Commonwealth vs. Anne and Christ O'Boyle, found guilty at the last term of court, and the cost put on the prosecutor, a new trial was refused, but the costs were set aside as to the prosecutor. Decrees of divorce were granted in the cases of Farley vs. Farley and Ramsay vs. Ramsay.

The citizens of the Middle ward of Tamaqua asked that the polling place be changed to the house of Thomas Curley. The petition was granted.

In the case of David Graham vs. John Lawlor and the Commonwealth vs. John S. G. M. Holloper, summary judgment was granted by the Sheriff to give the plaintiff possession of property purchased at Sheriff's sale.

The list of long cases was gone over and several were marked continued. Only eight cases so far are marked for trial.

The bond of Phoen Hermany, of Mahanay City, in the case of Interpleader, with sureties, was filed.

An application for the transfer of the saloon license of Anthony Schmick, Second ward of Shenandoah, to Brunel Romanowski, was deferred on application of S. G. M. Holloper, summary judgment.

Citizens of Landingsville petitioned for the appointment of C. A. Warnkessel, as Constable to fill a vacancy.

Sheriff Toole acknowledged the following deeds in open court this morning: To Elsworth Erdman, two lots in Mahanay township, for $275. To Franklin B. Hefner, a lot in Friedensburg, for $919.

Application was made by Mary A. Lumber for a rule to show cause why a judgment for $58.88 against her should not be stricken off the records. The case was returned to the next Monday. It is alleged that the attorney secured her signature by misrepresentation.

A petition was presented in behalf of Mrs. Frank Sparr, of Mahanay City. She states that she was married to Frank Sparr and has deserted her, and is now a resident of New Haven, Conn. She has two children. She asks that John Sparr, father of Frank, and grandfather of the children, be required to show cause why he should not support the children.

A petition in divorce proceedings was granted in the case of Minnie vs. Edward Smith.

The equity suit of Kolb vs. East Ridge Coal Company, which was set for Friday, next, for argument, was postponed indefinitely, owing to the marriage of B. F. Cummings, Esq., one of the counsel, taking place on June 2nd.

A citation for the benefit of creditors was issued to compel the estate of E. J. Ryan, Heene, of Schuylkill Haven, to file a report.

John F. Whalen, Esq., requested that the argument in the case of Tax Collector M. J. Scanlan, of Shenandoah, be fixed for June 2nd.

The following deeds were recorded to-day: William Biew to John Harley, property in Mahanay City; Christ Miller to Sarah Miller, property in Mahanay City; William Houser to Casper Krantz, property in Union township; M. G. H. & L. Association to T. H. B. Lyon, property in Mahanay City; Gabriel Reed to John Deiter, property in Hegins township; Preston Coal Company to Annie McDonald, property in Butler township; William Hagner to W. C. Hall, property in Cresora; Mary Deist to C. Fuchenslager, property in Cresora; Philip Erbe to Jacob Erbe, property in Orwigsburg; Jacob Erbe to William Haber, property in Orwigsburg; U. C. B. & L. Association to Alfred Klingler, property in New View; Maggie Walter to Peter Kistler, property in Porter township.

TWO BAD MEN.
Lutwin and Piekalowski Recaptured, But the Latter Escapes Again.

Peter Lutwin, who escaped from the lockup last week with Joe Piekalowski, was arrested last night at the corner of Gilbert and Coal streets, where he was quarrelling with Christ Heene, who had ordered him away from the premises. The two men were serving five days as suspicious characters when they escaped.

Lutwin was arrested by Policemen Hand and Munnally. At three o'clock this afternoon he was taken to the lockup. Piekalowski is in custody on West Coal street. He showed fight, but was overcome by Munnally, assisted by Constable Bolla, and taken to the lockup. When the police arrived there they found Lutwin had again escaped, the lock of his cell door being broken.

It was evident that he had outside assistance. He had been committed at about two o'clock this afternoon, by Justice Toomey, in default of $300 bail for jail breaking. A guard is now kept at the lockup over Piekalowski and a hunt is being made for Lutwin.

Well Recommended.
The new proprietor of the Ferguson House, although here but a short time, has established himself as a genial and courteous host and the newspapers of his former place of residence evidently knew what they were talking about when they made the following complimentary remarks upon his departure. From one of them, the Clearfield Republican, we glean that "William H. Reese, for the past three years landlord at the Windsor Hotel, left Monday evening for Shenandoah, Schuylkill county, where he will take charge of the Ferguson House, the leading hotel of that city. Mr. Reese is a good hotel man and is regarded as one of the best in the business by the traveling men generally. The people of Shenandoah will find him straightforward and honorable in all his dealings. He is followed to his new field by the best wishes of Clearfield people generally."

The Hattersman's Journal says "William H. Reese has landed the Ferguson House, at Shenandoah, Pa. The people of Shenandoah can congratulate themselves upon getting one of the best landlords in the state."

POWERLESS EMISSARIES

Filipino Officers Without Authority to Conclude a Peace.

MUST REPORT TO AGUINALDO.

The Moneyed Leaders Want Peace, and Those Who Want a Cash Offer Wish to Harass the Americans Until Offer is Made—Dewey's Departure Manila, May 22.—General Gregorio del Pilar, Lieutenant Colonel Alberto Barreto, Major Zealita and Senator Graciano Gonzalez, the Filipino commissioners who arrived here on Saturday to negotiate with the United States commissioners, held a conference yesterday morning with Messrs. Schurman, Worcester and Denby. They say that they are without power to bind the so-called Filipino government in any particular and can only refer any results of the present negotiations to Aguinaldo.

Autonomy is the burden of the talk of the Filipinos, and it is thought that the kind they wish for would be little different from the scheme for an American protectorate, of which they talked of before the war.

The Filipino commissioners, with their families, spent yesterday in visiting friends in Manila and conferred with Senores Florentino Torres, Pablo Ocampo and Theodore Yanco, the members of the local Filipino association, who will participate in the meetings with the American commissioners.

Senator Torres was a member of Aguinaldo's commission before the war. He opposes independence and favors autonomy, and he has been most influential in persuading the followers of Aguinaldo to make the present advances.

Senator Paterno, who has succeeded the irreconcilable Mabini as president of the Filipino so-called cabinet, is a student and a writer of ability. He once drew up a plan of autonomy under Spain, which the Spanish government promised to adopt, there then being a troublesome rebellion on foot.

The American commissioners in studying the question of Philippine government have found several good points in this scheme. Paterno is now the strong man in Aguinaldo's party.

All the moneyed leaders of the insurrection see that it is hopeless, and are anxious for peace. Those who want money think they may profit by harassing the Americans a while longer.

On the suggestion of Mr. Schurman, president of the American commission, the local Filipino peace party has started a newspaper.

Major Kobbe's expedition to open communication with General Lawton has occupied Arayat, about seven miles beyond Candaba, on the Rio Grande following the course of the stream. No insurgents were found there, and the Pampangas along the river are friendly.

Last Friday Major Kobbe took Santa Ana, about six miles northeast of San Fernando, on the road to San Isidro. A priest met the expedition with a white flag.

Delegations from San Nicolas and Santiago, small villages just south of Arayat, came to Major Kobbe with the news that 200 insurgents, who had been holding both places, had withdrawn. They invited the Americans to enter and as the members of the expedition marched in the church bells were rung, and the timid natives who had fled flocked back.

When the cruiser Olympia, with Admiral Dewey on board, left here on Saturday afternoon for New York there were scenes of wilder enthusiasm. As the steamer got away the Oregon, Baltimore and the Concord fired an admiral's salute. At the first shot the band of the flagship played a lively air and her white-clad sailors crowded the decks and gave a tremendous cheer. As the Olympia passed the Oregon the crew of the battleship gave nine cheers for the Olympia, who responded by throwing their caps so high that dozens of them were left bobbing in the wake of the cruiser.

Then followed the noisiest half hour known in this harbor since the battle which linked its name with that of Dewey. The din of guns and brass bands echoed through the smoke, a host of steam launches shrieked their whistles, the musicians of the Baltimore played "Home, Sweet Home," her flags signalled "Good-bye" and those of the Oregon said "Pleasant voyage."

The merchant vessels in these waters dipped their flags, the ladies on the decks of the vessels of the fleet waved handkerchiefs, and the great black British cruiser Powerful, which lay the furthest out, saluted the Olympia. The latter's band then played "God Save the Queen," and to this the crew of the Powerful responded with hearty cheers for the Olympia. The last music heard from aboard Dewey's flagship was "Auld Lang Syne."
