Paying taxes is like buying many of the so-called bargains in many stores—you generally pay out a good deal of money for very meagre returns.

Our line of Childrens Dresses is complete—the styles the latest—the fit, perfect—and the prices—well, they fit the purse of the buyer as no "special" bargains can do.

RIBBONS GALORE—Our stock is all right in quantity—quality—and price. We have the narrow widths for trimming dress skirts, and we have the wider for neck ribbons and waist belts.

MEMORIAL CEREMONIES.

Parade in Town This Morning a Small One.

BUT TWO DIVISIONS IN LINE!

The Ceremonies at the Cemetery Were of the Usual Impressive Order—Hon. James B. Reilly, of Pottsville, Delivered an Able Address.

The observance of Memorial Day in town to-day, while not attended by as much display as has marked the observances in past years, was nevertheless imposing. The day was a splendid one for a demonstration, but many circumstances existed over which the committee of arrangements had no control, and the parade was the smallest one seen here on a Memorial Day in many years. One of the counter effects to the arrangements the committee had made was the dedication of the Lithuanian church. These ceremonies prevented the Lithuanian Band and several societies that usually take part in the Memorial demonstration from participating in the parade to-day.

There also appears to have been an extensive indisposition to parade upon the part of many other societies not prevented from participation in the ceremonies by the dedication, and although official notices had been issued to these societies to meet this morning and arrange to take part in the demonstration, none of them appeared in line.

The parade started at 9:40 and was headed by carriages containing the orator of the day, old soldiers and flower committees of the G. A. R. and Sons of Veterans. In rear carriage with the orator, Hon. James B. Reilly, of Pottsville, were Rev. G. W. Van Fossen, rector of All Saints' Protestant Episcopal church, and Rev. D. I. Evans, pastor of the First Baptist church.

The rest of the line of parade was in the following order:
Chief Marshal, B. G. Hess.
Aides, George L. Hafner, P. J. Maley.
FIRST DIVISION.
Chief Burgess and Uniformed Police.
Grant Band.
Watkin Waters Post 149, G. A. R.
Henry Horcastle Camp 49, S. of V.

Annunciation Cadets of Temperance.
Anthracite Castle No. 74, K. G. E.
SECOND DIVISION.
Marshal, William Emanuel.
Aids, Mitchell and H. J. Muldoon.
Rescue Hook and Ladder Company No. 1.
Knights of Annunciation and Phoenix Hose Company No. 2.
Columbia H. & S. F. E. Company No. 1.
Carriages.

The line moved over the following route: Out Centre street to White, White to Coal, Coal to Jarlin, down Jarlin to Oak, up Oak to Chestnut, out Chestnut to Cherry, down Cherry to Main, up Main to the cemetery.

The ceremonies at the G. A. R. plot of the Odd Fellows' cemetery were in gratifying contrast to those in the town. The attendance was large and the ceremonial was marked by all the impressiveness of similar gatherings in former years. Hon. James B. Reilly made an able address, which was fully in keeping with the occasion and made a profound impression upon the assemblage. Revs. D. I. Evans and G. W. Van Fossen participated in the ceremonies and the usual reverence to the dead were bestowed by the firing squad of Henry Horcastle Camp No. 49, Sons of Veterans.

Upon the close of the ceremonies the assemblage dispersed and attention was turned to the dedication of the graves. The following is a list of the soldier dead whose graves were strown with flowers:

A BRILLIANT AFFAIR.

Alumni Reunion and Banquet at the Ferguson House.

The annual reunion and banquet of the Shenandoah High School Alumni at the Ferguson House last evening, was a most brilliant affair, and so pleasing and satisfactory to all concerned that the organization will no doubt be more active than it has been for the past few years. There were over a hundred graduates of the high school present and the gathering resulted in a renewal of many very pleasant associations of the past.

The banquet was served at nine o'clock. Miss Host Seede had the dining hall elaborately prepared for the occasion and the menu and service were the subject of commendations from all quarters. The menu was as follows:

- MENU.
Raw Oysters.
Broiled Sirloin Steak.
French Fried Potatoes.
Broiled Lamb Chops, Frenched.
Baked Potatoes.
Stewed Chicken, Cream Gravy.
Lobster Salad.
Sliced New Tomatoes.
Mayonnaise Dressing.
Potato Salad ala German.
Sliced Cucumbers with Cream.
Pickles.
Ice Cream.
Bananas.
Strawberries.
Crackers.
Tea.
Cocoa.
Coffee.

Following the banquet was a musical and literary entertainment of a very interesting and pleasing character. The instrumental part of the program was furnished by the Illey orchestra. The program was as follows: President's address, H. C. Hooks; solo, Dr. D. John Price; recitation, Miss Katie Sheehy; solo, Miss Nora Graham; address, E. W. Shoemaker, Esq.; instrumental solo, Edward Hobbin; recitation, Guy C. Kelper; selection, male quartette; address, M. F. Conroy, Esq.; solo, Miss Annie Coogan; recitation, Frank B. Williams; solo, Edith Morgan; solo, address, M. M. Burke, Esq.; solo, Martin Devitt; address, Prof. J. W. Cooper; solo, Miss M. O'Hara; recitation, Miss Annie Williams; duet, Miss Morgan and Dr. Price; recitation, Miss M. F. Conroy; solo, Miss M. Cavanaugh; remarks, members of Alumni; orchestra.

The attendance at the reunion included many graduates of the high school who have become identified with the legal, medical and other professions, and some who have become residents of distant points, but whose pleasant recollections of the days they spent in the school made the distance of travel but a minor consideration. Those who shared the pleasures of the reunion were: Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hooks; Mr. and Mrs. James Stuck; Frank Conroy, Guy C. Kelper, Hannah Morrison, Annie Monaghan, Lizzie Bellis, D. John Price, M. D., E. W. PHILIPPINES COURTS!

Re-Established by Order of Governor General Otis.

THE SPANISH SYSTEM REVIVED.

Local British and American Interests Endeavored to Have the English Code and Language Adopted—Captain Tilley a Victim of Treachery.

Manila, May 30.—An order has been issued re-establishing the Philippine courts, which have been closed since the American occupation. It revives all the Spanish system not conflicting with the sovereignty of the United States.

The chief justice is Cayetano Arriano. The associates of the civil branch are Manuel Araullo, Col. Crowder and Gregorio Ferrer. The justices of the criminal branch are Raymundo Melliza, Ambrosio Rianares, Julio Loreto, Major Young and Captain Birkhimer. The attorney general is Florentio Torres. This corresponds with the American supreme court.

The Filipino members are all prominent lawyers. Arriano is the leader of his profession in the islands. In the early stages of the Filipino movement he was Aguinaldo's principal adviser. Arriano was a member of Aguinaldo's first cabinet. Melliza was president of the insurgent government at Iloilo. Torres is the leader of the local committee working with the commission to conciliate the insurrectionists.

Spanish will be the official language of the courts. There has been agitation among the local British and American business men and American lawyers who came to the Philippines to make fortunes to have the English code and language adopted, but Governor General Otis concluded that it would be unwise, even if practicable, to upset long usages.

The Spanish salaries proved a stumbling block to obtaining good men, the highest being only $2,500. The Spanish judges receiving fees, which are abolished.

Two correspondents of a New York paper have been disbarred for fabricating an interview with General Lawton, dated Manila, May 23, and for evading the censorship.

The steamer El Cano has arrived here from the island of Guam, bringing the Filipinos who were exiled there by the Spaniards for participating in the old rebellion.

It now appears that the attack on the men of the signal corps at Escanolate, on the island of Negros, was the result of a plot of treachery. Captain Tilley and his party landed to pick up and repair the cable. The natives had a white flag floating over the cable house when the party landed. The latter, however, were no sooner ashore than they were fired upon by the natives. A number of them were picked up by a boat, but Captain Tilley and two native men of the party are missing.

General Otis says that the campaign against the Filipino insurgents will be prosecuted by the American forces with the utmost aggressiveness possible during the rainy season.

General Lawton is of the opinion that an early settlement of the present troubles and the close of hostilities depend largely upon the Americans giving rigid protection to the working classes in their peaceful occupations, while waging incessant war against the armed forces of the enemy from this time forth by means of guerrilla warfare. He will show the insurgents by vigorous action on the rivers, lakes and mountains that their belief that our troops cannot campaign in the rainy seasons or in the mountains is untrue.

Strawberry and chocolate ice cream delivered daily. At Scheider's bakery, 7 East Centre street.

BOYCOTTED THE MASHAN.

Here is a curious case reported from Mahanoy City. Kate Oliver's Polish husband 25 years old, was prosecuted by her husband, Michael, about a year ago for unlawful intimacy with a man named "Fancy" Peters.

The woman was convicted and the court imposed a fine and costs aggregating $45, which were never paid. The husband got hurt in the mines last March and, when discharged a week ago, found that his wife and Peters were living together. He was admitted to the house, but only as a boarder. He submitted meekly, but only to gain time for revenge. This morning the wife was taken to the Pottsville jail as a captive, in default of payment of the old fine and costs. She would not go without her two children, and they are with her.
