Evening Herald.

FRIDAY, JUNE 2, 1899.

OUR COUNTRY: First, Last and Forever.

Those appointments announced to be made from Harrisburg will now be pigeon-holed, for a time at least.

OUR Democratic friends are reformers in theory only. The Auditor's statement is conclusive evidence that they do not practice what they preach.

In many parts of the county butchers and retail meat dealers are advancing prices on all kinds of fresh meats from two to four cents per pound, necessitated by a similar advance on the part of the Chicago packers. Evidently the public must pay for the embalmed beef "vindication."

THE general assembly of the Presbyterian church has decided that smoking is not unchristian. Presbyterians, like other Christians, indulge in the weed if they happen to enjoy it, and if the decision had been otherwise the smokers in that denomination would doubtless have continued to smoke about the same as usual.

A READER of the New York Sun submits for an answer the following questions: "Is sugar lower or higher in price since organization of trust? Have the employees had their wages raised or reduced? Are there more or less men employed?" The editor of the Sun, in reply, says the average price of granulated sugar for the nine years previous to the formation of the Sugar Trust was 7.905 cents. The average price for the nine years following the organization of the trust was 8.272 cents. The Secretary of the American Sugar Refining Company says that wages have remained about the same, and that the number of employees has largely increased. This increase in the number of employees is due to the large increase in the sugar refining business.

THESE Democratic editors who profess to be greatly shocked because of President McKinley's recent order taking out of the classified list about 4,000 government employees, most of whom are private secretaries and confidential clerks to the heads of departments, forget the action of one Grover Cleveland. He turned the Republicans out, and put the Democrats in, and the present administration is afraid to undo the wrong. Even if it has the inclination it has not the nerve. When Cleveland found that his party was cleaned out in the McKinley-Bryan contest in 1896, he made haste to save the thousands of Democrats he had placed in office by spreading the civil service blanket over every office in sight, from the confidential chief clerk and private secretary down to the scrub woman and coal passer. It was a clean sweep. A good deal of a humbug was Grover, but it cannot be said of him that he lacked nerve.

THE authoress trade is being kept in good shape by the producing interests, and while there is little to say of activity at this time, the main thing of holding the product within the demand is being attended to in a manner which indicates better conditions for this trade than we have been able to record in some years. Says this week's issue of Seward's Coal Trade Journal. It is not at all likely that we shall have any great activity in this line of trade until after about six weeks have passed away, but thereafter we do look for about as good a condition of affairs as any one might wish for. We fancy that there is going to be as full a fall trade as in former years for this favorite domestic fuel, and it is natural to expect that the returns therefrom will be in excess of what was the case during the fall of '98. This is likely to be the case from the frunous with which the supply is held.

THE TRANSVAAL DEFIANT.

The African Republic's Curt Answer to a British Protest.

Bloomfontein, Orange Free State, June 2.—Among the most important points that President Paul Kruger of the Transvaal republic, and Sir Alfred Mitchell, governor of Cape Colony and British high commissioner for South Africa, will have to discuss at their conference here in regard to the demands of the Outlanders will be the question of the dynamite monopoly, under which the Outlanders are groaning, and which the British secretary of state for the colonies, Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, has used his utmost endeavors to remedy. But a blue book on the subject, issued last night, shows that matters in this connection have practically reached a deadlock.

The blue book opens with a letter from Mr. Chamberlain dated Jan. 13, reviewing the whole question and protesting that the monopoly was inconsistent with the London convention. To this the Transvaal government replied, under date of March 8, controverting the arguments of Mr. Chamberlain, and stating that her majesty's government was not entitled to a protest.

Mr. Chamberlain on April 21, however, renewed the British protest, adding that her majesty's government reserves its rights. In answer to this the Transvaal government replied, on May 22, with two curt sentences, to the effect that it abided with the view expressed in its communication of March 9.

Their wages ranged from $2.25 to $3 per day. The employers were allowed 30 days to consider the request. Not having received satisfactory replies the men yesterday declined to go to work.

THE MAZET PROBERS.
Evidence of the Worst Form of Vice Existing in New York.

New York, June 2.—The sessions of the Mazet committee yesterday were noticeable chiefly for two points, one the turning out of Mr. Moss, and the other evidence regarding the existence in this city of the most frightful form of depravity. Neither incident took up much time, by far the greater part of the sessions being devoted to the examination of President Feitner and Commissioner Sheehy, both of the tax board. Their evidence merely went to show the long established inefficiency of the system of personal taxation, and revealed nothing sensational.
