ANOTHER MURDER.

Harry Elliott Shot Without Warning

His Home in New Philadelphia. Another shooting affair, resulting in mur der, occurred in Schuylkill county last even-ing, New Philadelphia being the scene this time. It is said borough politics played an important part in leading up to the sad and pufortunate affair.

Harry Elliott, a prominent young man, aged 45 years was shot down in a cowardly manner, without warning. His assailant was thomas Brennan, who for two years was constable of the borough and is a leader of the Democratic party. Elliott was a Republican and assisted in Brennan's defeat for constable last February. This caused bad There Were Twenty-Eight in the Class and feeling between the two.

Yesterday was pay-day, and Brennan wa docked for time lost, and he blamed Elliott, who was fire-boss. Brennan imbibed freely on his way to Elliott's house, where he found the latter stripped to the waist washing him self with several of his children about him. Brennan applied vile threats and then whipped out a revolver and fired twice, both shots taking effect. Elliott dropped to the floor, and the frightened wife and children shrieked in terror. He expired this morning.

Brennan walked coolly to McQuall's hotel, latter left for New Philadelphia to-day. The dered.

THE GRAMMAR SCHOOLS. COYLE SEEKS Graduating Exercises in the High School

Yesterday Afternoon. There were sixty-one graduates from the grammar schools to the High school with the close of this year, which is a large addition to the advanced branch. The graduating exercises were held in the High school yesterday afternoon, after the adjournment of the School Board meeting, and all the Di-rectors who attended the meeting were in stiendance at the exercises, Director Joh H. Martin presiding and presenting the diplomas to the graduates, in the absence of the president of the Board.

Owing to the large number of graduates it was arranged to select the pupil receiving the The McCarrell Jury Bill Promoter Charges highest mark in each of the four grammar schools for declamations at the exercises and schools for declamations at the correises and this resulted in a condensed program, which was as follows: Chorus, "Summer Evening." Class; Declamation, "Our Country," Miss Alice Hirsh; Declamation, "The Old Man in the Palace Car," Miss Bessle Levine; Chorus, "These Evening Bells," Class; Declamation, "The Aright Side," Miss Annie Cowley; Declamation, "Betty and the Bear," John Hunter, Chorus, "America," Class Hunter; Chorus, "America," Class.

The exercises were very interesting and all who took part in them acquitted themselves very creditably.

The members of the graduating classes were: May Burns, Maurice Coakley, Lizzle

Fisherty, Nellie Gallagher, Beatrice Haskins, Mary Hobbs, Katie Kirk, Bertha King, Adrian Knelly, Bessie Levine, Delia McCor-mack, Mary Mitchell, Eddie McGowan, Viola Raudenbush, Maggie Sunderland, Nellie Sheeby, Michael Toomey, Roy Weidman, Annie Bierstein, Anna Cowley, Martin F.
