OUR TROOPS ADVANCING

The Effort to Hem in the Forces of General Pio del Pilar.

HARDSHIPS OF ONWARD MARCH.

Our Soldiers Frequently Compelled to Flounder Through Morasses Walst Deep In Mud, Under the Terrific Heat of a Tropical Sun.

Manila, June 5.-The position of the American troops indicates that they will today sweep the peninsula of Morong, the land projecting to the south into Laguna de Bay, where the insurgents are supposed to have a as well as the battery on the western smashed the propeller of the gunboat

General Hall marched yesterday from Antipolo, about six miles and a half northwest of Morong, toward the peninsula, with his forces spread out to cover a large section. Colonel Tru-man, with the First North Dakota regiment and the Twelfth infantry advanced along the coast of the lake from Taytay, incidentally clearing several small towns. Colonel Wholley with the First Washington regiment landed on the peninsula above the town of Morong. The army gunboats Napidan, Covadonga and Ceste are in position to co-operate.

The original plan was to surround the forces of General Plo del Pilar, so that he must retreat to the Morong peninsula, where capture would have een inevitable. This was not a com dete success, because General Hall's column found the country full of handleaps to marching. There were several streams to be bridged or ford-od, and the troops frequently flounder-ed through morasses waist deep in mud, an experience which, under the terrific sun, exhausted the Americans quite beyond endurance. Most of Gen-eral Pio del Pilar's followers are supposed to have escaped northward, probably reaching Bosoboso, a stronghold in the mountains, Colonel Wholley, having success fully completed his share of the move-ment, brought the Washington regiment to the River Pasig, where about Saturday midnight the men embarked upon cascoes and started for their destination under the convoy of the gun-

They encountered a repetition of the experience undergone by almost every expedition on attempting to enter Laguna de Bay, as the boats went aground in the shallows at the mouth of the river and were detained there several Major General Lawton in the meantime was indefatigable, riding from one force to another and supervising he loading of the cascoes, without sleep for two nights.

General Hall's column, which as-sembled at the water works, or pumpng station, late Friday night, consists of the Second Oregon volunteers, a bat-talion of the Second Wyoming regiment, four troops of the Fourth infantry, the first six companies of the Colorado regiment and two nountain guns.

The men rolled themselves in their blankets and lay upon the wet grass for a few hours under a drizzling rain. At 4 o'clock Saturday morning they began to cross the San Mateo river, and about noon easily repulsed a large band of Filipinos, about 12 miles east of Manila, between Mariquina and Antipolo. The Oregon regiment, the cavalry, the artillery and the Fourth infantry accomplished this task.

A running fight was in progress all the afternoon. A Filipino outpost first attaked a few American scouts. whereupon the Fourth cavalry formed a skirmish line and easily drove the insurgents into the hills. Then the Oregon regiment moved across a wet, soggy rice field, in extended order, toward the hills, where it was believed a large force of the enemy had concen-When the Oregonians were Americans replying and pressing forward more rapidly.

After a few volleys the insurgents were seen scattering over the crest of the hills in every direction, and their panic was increased when the artillery opened upon them and shells began to explode all around them, undoubtedly causing great loss of life. The bom-bardment by the batteries and the musketry was maintained for nearly half an hour, after which not a Filipino could be seen in the hills, and not a shot came from the position.

The heat was intense, and the troops suffered greatly, but they continued on the trail taken by the fleeing enemy in the hope of driving them toward the General Hall's column, in the movement upon the Morong peninsula, com-pleted a circuit of 20 miles, over rough and mountainous country, having two engagements with the insurgents, one of them severe, keeping up an almost constant fire against scattered bands of rebels for nearly 24 hours from 4 'clock Saturday morning, when the olumn left the pumping station.

The Filipinos were driven in every direction and the country through which General Hall passed was pretty thoroughly cleared. At 10 o'clock yesterday morning the column reached a point a few miles from Taytay, where General Hall was met by General Lawton, who had already entered the town and found it deserted.

General Hall's objective point was Antipolo, ten miles off, and there was desultory firing all along the line of march. The gunboats could be heard shelling the hills in advance of the

The column, after driving the rebels from the foothills near Mariachino, bout noon yesterday, with a loss of but two or three, slightly wounded, proceeded with all possible haste to-ward Laguna de Bay, the Fourth cavalry in the lead, the Oregon regiment next and the Fourth infantry last. At 5 o'clock these three regiments fought their second battle of the day, and it resulted, like the first, in the complete rout of a large Filipino force. In this fight the American loss was four killed and fifteen wounded.

INSULTING M. LOUBET.

Rictors Demonstrations at the Anteuil Race Course.

COMTE STRUCK AT PRESIDENT,

But Only Succeeded in Hitting the French Rater's Hat-The Assaflant Badly Reaten-Over a Hundred Arrested-Londet Calm and Digalified.

Paris, Jone 5.-President Loubet, accompanied by the premier, M. Dupuy, and the chief of the military household, General M. C. Balllond, drove to the Auteuil races yesterday afternoon, closely followed by Mme, Loubet in a second landau. As they drove along the avenue des Champs-Elyaces the crowd bowed respectfully, but on arriving at Autoull they were met by a violent demonstration, evidently organized, and directed against the presi-

There was a storm of hoots, yells and cries of "Panama," "Abas Loubet" and "Vive l'armee." A few shouts of "Vive Loubet" were drowned in the

A strong force of police kept order and arrested many of the disturbers, including a man who tried to force his way to the president's carriage. During the second race the clamor increased to violence and was plainly of Patriots, collected with their supporters both before and behind the presidential stand, around which a formidable affray proceeded.

During the grand steeplechase many blows were struck, and several police men were injured in their endeavors to prevent an invasion of the presidential stand. At the crisis of the excitement Comte Christiani rushed toward the president, brandishing a stick, and di-rected a blow against him, striking his hat. Comite Caristiani was thrown, trampled upon and severely bruised in the melee. He was carried away by six policemen, he kicking and plunging and the blood spouting from his nose. He is a grandson of a general who was well known during the empire.

President Loubet remained all the while quite unmoved, talking to the premier, while the officers of his military household were defending him Finally, after thirty arrests had been made, the police ordered the Republican guards to surround the presidential stand. The principal leaders of the demonstration were M. Joseph Lasies, deputy for Gers, and M. Firmin Faur, deputy for Oran, Algeria, both Anti-Semites.

Police Inspector Grilliere had his head seriously wounded in the meles, and President Loubet has since decor-ated him with the Cross of the Legion of Honor in recognition of his devotion It seems certain that the demonstration was organized by the Jounnesse

Royaliste, the Ligue des Patriotes and the Anti-Semites, the rallying sign being a carnation in the buttonhole. Comtesse Boni de Castellane, who was Miss Anna Gould, of New York, placed herself at the head of tha Jeunesse Royaliste and marched up and down the lawn, shouting "Vive l'armee." Comte Bout de Castellaine and his brother Jean were arrested, but soon liberated.

Comte de Dion, when arrested, resisted and fought with his cane, smashing it on a policeman's head and causing the jeweled top to fly off, striking a journalist. He was detained in cus-

Most of the persons arrested represent some of the most aristocratic families in France. Count Christiani is held on charge of atempting to strike the president. Comte d'Aubigny d' Assis is charged with wounding Police Inspector Grilliere and another police-man. At a late hour many influential persons sought to obtain the release prefect of police refused all such requests, and removed all the prisoners

Demonstrations and counter demon strations continued until M. Loubet left the race course at 4:30 p. m., the arrival of his carriage being the sig-nal for an indescribable tumult. The mounted guards with difficulty opened a passage through the crowd, the president being pursued to the last with hoots and yells. Even eggs were

It was noteworthy, however, that the people generally cheered him loudly. the cheers increasing as he drove to the cheers increasing as he drove to-ward the Elysee, which he reached safely at 4:45 p. m. During the demon-strations a number of hats labeled "resignation" were picked up. The race course committee apolo-gized to M. Loubet, who replied that he could not think of holding them responsible. He remarked to an important personage that he did not intend being intimidated into resignation. A special cabinet council was summoned at 9 o'clock last evening to consider the situation, and important measures were concerted, to be submitted to the president at another council today for the preservation of order. The ministers, who were in reserve as to the nature of these measures, but a semi-official note has been issued, which says:

"The government will act with the greatest energy and will impose respect for the president and for the state," Altogether about 130 arrests were made, one being that of M. Dansette, deputy mayor of Armentieres. Millions Given Away.

case yesterday, but it is understood that detectives were engaged in looking up the records of the prisoners now in custody and in going over various letters which were found in th spartments formerly occupied by the trio, in the Mills hetel annex. What they discovered among the effects of the conspirators the police refused to disclose. A vigorous search is also being made for the hunchback, Isaac Hughes, who shared the rooms of the Wilsons, as they called themselves. Hughes is wanted by the police as a witness, and it is believed that he will be able to throw some light upon the operations of the others.
